Reformed—Union, morning; Spring Mills, afternoon; Centre Hall, evening.
Lutheran—Tusseyville, morning; Centre Hall, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce that D. H. Foreman, of the Borough of Bellefonte, is a candidate for the office of Prothonotary, subject to the usages of the Democratic party. Paid.

We are authorized to announce that D. Paul Farney, of Bellefonte, is a candidate for the office of District Attorney, subject to the usages of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce that John R. Lemon, of Ferguson township, is a candidate for the office of Commissioner, subject to the usages of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce that John D. Miller, of Walker township, is a candidate for County Treasurer, subject to the usages of the Democratic party.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Treasurer of Centre county, subject to the decision of the Democratic primaries to be held June 3, 1911. J. MITCHELL CUNNINGHAM, Bellefonte, Pa.

We are authorized to announce that J. Frank Smith, of Centre Hall borough, is a candidate for Register, subject to the usages of the Democratic party.

On March 8th Talking Roosevelt will make a trip through the south, west to California, north to Washington and east through the states bordering Canada. The tour will be for speech making on all the subjects under the sun.

A measure passed the house of representatives in Washington, and will no doubt pass the senate, to increase the salary of mail carriers by one hundred dollars. The measure reads that salaries shall not exceed one thousand dollars a year.

There was much speculation as to how nominations for borough and township offices would be made, but the opinion of the attorney general has settled the matter. The method of nominating has not been changed, but the time has been shifted from January until October. An extended article on the subject appears in this issue.

LOCALS.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Slack became residents of Centre Hall.

Valentine post cards at the Reporter office. Every card is a beautiful work of art.

Howard Zeigler, of near Axe Mann, has leased the farm of Al. Rishel, this side of Zion, and will move there in the spring.

Reporter readers whose subscriptions expire in February are kindly asked to take a look at the label on this issue.

It is next Wednesday evening, 8th instant, that the fourth number of the Centre Hall lecture course will appear in Grange Arcadia.

Hon. J. C. Meyer offered a bill in the Legislature to permit pupils to attend school in another district when the school in their home district is two miles from their residence.

Ricker Bros., of Nittany Valley, recently received a car load of stock from Meadville, consisting of nineteen head of horses and a large number of hogs, which were unloaded at Mill Hill and driven to the Ricker farm.

W. H. Matter, who a few months ago made sale of his farm stock, etc., in Georges Valley, and located in Lock Haven, is now in Clearfield county, where he is engaged in driving team for his brother, at West Decatur.

While Benjamin J. Musser continues as president of the Citizens State Bank, in Jewell, Kansas, and continues to hold his interests in other business in that place, he has changed his place of residence to Excelsior Springs, Missouri.

L. N. Wilson will act as supply on the Centre Hall Reformed charge next Sunday. Services will be held at three points—Union, morning; Spring Mills, afternoon, and Centre Hall evening. Mr. Wilson is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College, and is a senior in the seminary connected with that institution.

J. Frank Smith, of Centre Hall, is a new man in county politics, and announces himself a candidate for the office of register, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters at the June primaries. Mr. Smith has been a life long Democrat and is thoroughly capable of filling the office if elected. He is at present conducting a general store, but he is not a millionaire. If successful in being elected to the office he seeks, the income will aid him in supporting a large family, instead of buying bonds and stocks.

Progress Grange Had Banner Day.

Progress Grange had a banner day on Saturday. At a regular meeting held in Grange Arcadia, twenty-nine applicants for membership were favorably acted upon.

In a few well chosen remarks, Miss Florence Rhone presented one hundred dollars, a gift from the James A. Keller heirs, as a memorial to Mr. and Mrs. Keller, both of whom were charter members of the local order, and continued active members until their death. The gift was received with appropriate ceremony, and as stipulated by the donors, will be used to cancel a bond. The order has also money sufficient to cancel a bond, and after these two bonds have been called in, there will remain an indebtedness of $900 of the original $2000 bonded indebtedness.

Dr. Gray—February 8th.

Because of sickness Dr. Fred Hopkins cannot fulfill his engagement to lecture February 8th, as the fourth number in the Centre Hall Lecture Course. Dr. John A. Gray will take his place. This change was made too late to give particulars concerning Dr. Gray; but the Central Lyceum Bureau gives assurance that he is "even better than Dr. Hopkins." As Dr. Hopkins was most highly recommended this is high praise; and a rich treat may be confidently expected.

Remember that the time is Wednesday evening, February 8th instead of Thursday evening, February 9th. This change was announced before it was known that Dr. Hopkins could not be here.

The Colyer Mountain Farm Sold.

The Colyer farm, in the Seven Mountains, was sold to David L. Geary, of near Red Mill, who will convert it into a pasture lot. The farm contains about one hundred and sixty acres, with good buildings, which were erected by the late William Colyer during his ownership of the farm. The price paid by Mr. Geary was $1500, the seller being George R. Meigs, of Colyer. The latter, during the past few years, planted largely to potatoes, the yields being very fair.

Local S. S. Convention.

There will be a meeting of the officers of the district Sunday-School Associations, in Centre county, at Bellefonte, in the Presbyterian chapel, on Monday Feb. 6. It is earnestly requested that every officer, as well as superintendents and others interested, be present. At this time meetings will be arranged under the direction of the state field workers in every district.

Mrs. M. J. Baldwin, state elementary grade superintendent, will address the primary and Junior teachers at 10 a. m., and at 2:30 a conference will be held with these teachers.

Fire Destroys $35,000 Warehouse.

Fire of incendiary origin entirely destroyed the large brick warehouse of the Whitman, Schwartz Company, wholesale grocers, in Lewistown, early Monday morning. The building was of brick and used for the storage of sugars, syrups, salt and other heavy and valuable goods. The loss is $35,000, covered by insurance.

There will be services in the Reformed church on Sunday evening, at 7:30. The regular midwinter service will commence on Thursday evening of next week, and will continue to the end of the week, closing with the holy communion, on Sunday morning at 10:30.

Prof. E. H. Meyer, of Boalsburg, who has been teaching in McKeesport for the last three years, has been offered a position as teacher of mathematics in the Barringer High School, in Newark, New Jersey. The position carries quite a nice salary and Mr. Meyer is to be congratulated upon receiving such an important position. To receive an appointment in this school applicants must take a written and an oral examination, and the one receiving the highest average is appointed. Prof. Meyer will take up his work in Newark, about February 6th.

Tusseyville.

Owing to the poor health of her father, Mrs. A. F. Heckman spent part of Friday and Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hosterman, at Penn Hall.

Little Mary Wert, who had been critically ill with diphtheria for the past week, is now out of danger, and is improving right along. The little girl is but seven years old, and her fight with the dreaded disease was indeed a trying ordeal. Her young friends are patiently waiting for the day when she may again mingle with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wert are the proud parents of a baby boy, who came to their home one day last week. The young chap is the first boy in the family, and no doubt will soon start in attending to the many duties of his father on the farm.

Colyer.

Clyde Nevel left for Mifflin county, where he will be employed the remainder of the winter.

KERLINS Grand View Poultry Farm CENTRE HALL PENN.

COCKERELS AND COLONY HOUSES.

The Largest Poultry Plant in Central Pennsylvania
VISITORS WELCOME EVERY DAY BUT SUNDAY.

YES, the price of eggs has taken quite a drop—caused by the cold storage packers placing a large amount of storage goods on the market at a heavy loss to them. Having lost a large amount of money they will not store so many this spring, which will cause a more healthy market for the fresh eggs and high prices again this year.

Our orders for day-old chicks, eggs for hatching, feed, incubators and brooders, are the largest by far of any season since we have been in the business.

We are receiving orders almost every day for the New Chas. A. Cyphers Buffalo Incubator and Brooder. The 1911 Chas. A. Cyphers New Buffalo Incubator and Brooder is, without a question, the finest on the market and the price is the very lowest (quality considered). Come and see them and be convinced of the many good features not found in other makes.

It is a pleasure for us to sell these goods when we know how satisfactory they are to the user of them. The Colony Brooder is quite an improvement over last year's make, having done away with the wood floor. The Brooder is "SELF REGULATING" AND IS CONSIDERED PERFECT.

- 180-Egg Chas. A. Cyphers New Buffalo INCUBATORS, $12.00
- 240-Egg " " " " " " " " $16.00
- 360-Egg " " " " " " " " $20.00
- 100-Chick Out-door Colony BROODER . . . $12.00
- Chas. A. Cyphers In-door Brooders . . . $ 5.00

The above is fully guaranteed and delivered to your freight station by us. We will help you pay for them by paying you the highest cash price for your eggs. We will pay for GOOD SIZE, FRESH, WHITE EGGS, 22c per doz. This price on eggs holds good until Sat. night, Feb. 4th.
