

OTTUMWA WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ottumwa, Iowa.—"For years I was almost a constant sufferer from female trouble in all its dreadful forms; shooting pains all over my body, sick headache, spinal weakness, dizziness, depression, and everything that was horrid. I tried many doctors in different parts of the United States, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than all the doctors. I feel it my duty to tell you these facts. My heart is full of gratitude to you for my cure."—Mrs. HARRIET E. WAMPLER, 624 S. Ransom Street, Ottumwa, Iowa.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

Baseball soothsayers are predicting big things for the Cincinnati Reds.

President Murphy of the Chicago Cubs is said to favor a new ball for use in the major leagues.

Kansas City, too, has taboed the handicap wrestling match as the wind-up of a big show.

Christy Mathewson says Johnny Evers is one of the best ever at "getting the other team's nerve."

Dr. Roller says the world's wrestling championship lies among "Hackenschmidt, Zhyzco and myself."

Some clever eastern statistician has figured that Abe Attell makes about $40,000 a year taking on numerous short battles.

Tony Biddle says the real gentlemen who take in boxing matches at high-class clubs should be attired in full evening dress.

Kid Howard's coming star, Mickey Sheridan of Chicago, and Paul Sikora of Detroit, fought ten rounds to a draw near Cleveland.

An inquiring fan wants to know how to become an aviator. He might try "changing his ways" of travel and sprout a pair of wings.

Eddie Collins is cutting his reporter's eye teeth and Ty Cobb is sharpening his editorial material for use in case he fails to make good in 1911.

Michigan university's football eleven is $13,000 to the good. Now some of the other colleges will want to have the rules revised.

It is a difficult task for pitchers to put strikes over on midgets. This is one advantage of being of diminutive stature. Owen Bush of the Detroit Tigers, the smallest player in the American league, received the most bases on balls.

Pitcher Walter Johnson is a knockout as well as a strikeout star. He says Washington must pay him $7,000 for this season's work.

Counting the days until the major league teams start on their spring jaunts seems to be the principal pastime even in St. Louis.

Clark Griffith, manager of the Reds, is out with the statement that the National league race lies between the Reds and the Cubs this year.

Both Coster and Attell, who fought recently, are laid up for repairs. Coster is being operated on for appendicitis and Abe is nursing a fractured shoulder blade.

Eight National league teams will try out approximately 250 players for 1911. How many of these phenoms will even have a chance to warm benches in 1911?

Connie Mack, when he reached Philadelphia from an extended honeymoon across the Atlantic, refused to discuss baseball, but admitted there was no place like home.

"Red" Kelley, who lingered at the South Side just long enough to win the title "former member of the White Sox," will coach the Notre Dame baseball candidates this year.

A medical journal records 19 deaths and 400 injuries due to the football season of 1910. It may be a fine sport, but it is a poor cause to require the sacrifice of so many martyrs.

Weekly Review of Trade and Market Reports.

Bradstreet's says:—

"Trade continues quiet, with considerable irregularity manifested, accordingly as different sections and lines of business and manufacture report. The weather has played a notable part in this respect this week, heavy snows in the North and West being a temporary bar to operations, while at the South unseasonably warm weather has checked retail distribution.

"In wholesale and jobbing lines there are increased numbers of buyers visible in leading Western and Southwestern markets, with a fair increase in sales resulting, but there, as in the leading Eastern markets, conservatism in buying and some disappointment at net results is noted.

"Business failures in the United States for the week were 291, against 290 last week, 249 in the like week of 1910, 211 in 1909, 326 in 1908 and 240 in 1907.

"Wheat (including flour) exports from the United States and Canada for the week aggregate 2,274,291 bushels, against 2,328,470 last week and 2,408,038 this week last year. Corn exports for the week are 2,541,977 bushels, against 3,368,010 last week and 1,135,908 in 1910."

TALE OF MOIR-WELLS FIGHT

New Yorker Declares Battle Between Two Englishmen Was Funniest of His Experience.

"I have seen many prize fights in my time," said a man who has just returned to New York from London, "but the one between Gunner Moir and Bombardier Wells was the funniest in my experience.

"Hugh McIntosh, the Australian, and our own Jimmie Britt are running a high-class fighting exhibition business over there, and the big hall back of the skating rink at the Olympia was packed with fully 6,000 people—lords and dukes and countesses and duchesses and the biggest kind of swells, who had put up at least two guineas ($10.50) a seat, at least the most of them.

Wells was the undefeated champion, so called, and a 20-round contest was scheduled. In the first round Wells jabbed the Gunner one with his left and knocked him down, and he was so long getting up that people began to leave the hall.

In the second round both men were down, with the referee counting, and neither got up on time. Then, in the first minute of the third, Wells was knocked out. The whole battle was over in ten minutes. It would be a good thing if a lot of our prize fighters who are always knocking out each other in the newspapers would go over and do some real work."

RULE ON SCHENECTADY PUTTER

That breach between the United States Golf association and the Royal and Ancients of St. Andrews, Scotland, caused by the edict of the dictators of the golf world against "mallet headed" putters, is far from being closed. Although the meeting in Chicago did not insist upon the enforcement of the Royal and Ancients' new rule, many golfers, especially in the east, are strong for observance of anything emanating from the venerable Scotch organization.

The rule bars a lot of clubs that have been used many years, though it doubtless is aimed against only a few of the extreme type, notably the Schenectady putter.

One definition given of a "mallet headed" putter is as follows: "One that is wider from face to back than it is long from heel to toe."

But this definition is not comprehensive enough, for many putters now tolerated approximate this shape without actually conforming to it.

What the Royal and Ancients are undoubtedly fighting against is the spirit of change with which this country attacks every sport that it takes up. The progressive disposition of Americans extends to their pastimes. Where the Britons are content to let the games of their forefathers remain as they were, the Americans insist on making those they adopt up to date.

The Royal and Ancients cling to the iron putter of their forebears. They do not want the center shafted monster of the mallet headed pretender to dethrone the tools that were good enough for their ancestors, even though Americans think they have proven that the innovations are a lot better than the ancient and obsolete types that existed a century ago.

They have changed the ball already in this hustling, bustling country. The old gutta serena sphere once sufficed, but the American manufacturers have found substitutes that could produce much better results, and now the market is clogged with a variety of balls, all better than the old one.

Americans, for the most part, think that the new clubs are sure to come, sooner or later. In any case, they can't see the sense in clinging to any instrument that can be improved upon.
