CRATES
KNOCKED DOWN crates may be secured from the undersigned. These crates are made from good oak and chestnut lumber, the corner posts and sills being oak and slats chestnut. All material is sawed accurately, making construction easy, and general appearance of the crate neat. The posts are three-cornered, doing away with the objectionable sharp edge. Crates when built will be light, and hold one bushel when level full. Now is your time to buy and be ready for the season. We have several thousand on hand, but they will not supply the demand. Buy while they last. Will be shipped F. O. B. Centre Hall at

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 4, 1911.

Royal Union Mutual Life Ins. Co., Des Moines.

Dear Sirs: Enclosed find receipt for $17.96, being the dividend on my policy No. 775, $3000 paid up.

It may be of interest to you for me to say that I hold a $5000 paid up policy with the New York Life Insurance Co., taken out within three months of the time I took out my policy with your company, and that the dividends of my New York Life policy amount to about $2 per thousand per year; in other words you are paying me nearly three times as much in dividends as I get from the New York Life. I might also state that in the 20-year settlement with your company I got 20 per cent. more in cash dividends than I got from the New York Life. Prospective insurance buyers would do well to profit by my experience.

Very truly yours,
Wm. C. Harbach

LOCALS.

Mrs. Nancy Benner is preparing to build a concrete walk in front of her home in Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fortney moved from near Tusseyville to the Charles Snyder farm, along the Branch, above Boalsburg.

J. O. Kerstetter is back to Laurelton again, after having lived in New Berlin for two years where he was landlord at the Union hotel.

W. C. Lauek, who recently moved from the Brockerhoff farm, east of Old Fort, to Runville, has now located in Clinton county, his address being Mill Hall.

Harry Harvey, of State College, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Harvey, and a member of the Junior class at Penn. State, was taken to the hospital for a second operation.

After living with Prof. C. R. Neff for two years or more, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Krape, this week, moved to Altoona where Mr. Krape will follow the carpenter trade.

An energetic State College lady, Miss Maud Johnston, while cutting kindling severed the thumb on her left hand. That's too bad, but then it might have been worse. An axe in a woman's hands is a dangerous thing.

A child two years old, son of Mrs. Clyde Martin, of Blanchard, fell into a tub of boiling water and was so badly scalded that death followed the next day. The mother was doing the family washing, and was in another part of the room when the tot plunged into the tub.

Charles Decker and family moved from State College to Lionville, Chester county, where Mr. Decker will conduct a butcher shop. Mrs. Decker and her mother, Mrs. Catherine Musselman, and the former's son Roy, were in Centre Hall at the home of J. W. Whiteman for several days before leaving for their new eastern home.

The parlor, library, and dining room of the Presbyterian Manse have been thoroughly renovated. Beautiful paper of excellent quality and late patterns, with a picture rail in parlor and dining room, adorns the walls. The woodwork has received two coats of white paint and one of white enamel. The whole effect is most inviting. The pastor is highly gratified by this evidence of a desire to minister to his comfort.

Aaronsburg.
James Corman and wife, of Rebersburg, were welcome guests at the home of James Wert on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Duck spent a day last week in this burg calling on their many friends.

Mrs. Ira Gramley and daughter, Miss Jennie, of Millheim, visited among friends in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Condo and Harry Roush spent Sunday at the home of James Condo, at Spring Mills.

Mrs. Ralph Hinds and daughter, of Fielder, visited at the home of E. P. Weaver Saturday evening.

Mrs. Henry Heaver and daughter, Miss Belva, circulated among their many friends in this place Saturday.

The heirs of Rev. Stambaugh will make sale of a good house and fine lot on the eighth of April.

Mrs. W. B. Mingle, nee Yearick, and Mrs. Gross Mingle, of Centre Hall, spent a day very pleasantly with their friend, Miss Mzie Foster.

Ex-sheriff Condo, wife and granddaughter, Miss Lucretia Freedy, of York, were guests at the home of Mrs. Bowersox.

Mrs. Charles Stover and son Edgar returned from a very pleasant visit to the former's aged mother, Mrs. G. Deminger, at Hughesville.

Mrs. C. W. Wyle will make sale of all her furniture on the first of April. She intends to move to Akron, Ohio, where her husband is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stover and daughter, Miss Beulah, of Coburn, were entertained over Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Stover.

James Roush, the jovial blacksmith of this place, bought some land from Dr. C. S. Musser. The price paid was fifteen hundred dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Crouse and children, Ruth and Harry, took a week off and spent the time with the lady's aged mother, Mrs. McClintic, at Lock Haven.

Editor Harter and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meusch and two children, of Bellefonte, spent the Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Meusch, in this place.

Misses Jane Decker and Emma Wert spent one day last week a Wolf's chapel with the former lady's sister, Mrs. Charles Wolfe, who is in poor health.

It is with regret that mention is here made of the fact that Enoch Bower came home suffering with great pain in his eyes. At this writing he is improving.

Tusseyville.
Mrs. Elmira Showers, of Avis, visited friends in this vicinity last week.
Cleveland Brungart moved his family to the Meringer home now owned by M. F. Rossmann.
Misses Ruth and Lena Bower, of Potters Mills, spent Saturday afternoon at the home of their friends, Misses Myra and Margaretta Rocky.
Baby Mildred Swabb spent Wednesday at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lee, at Tusseyville.
An effort is being made to secure a school teacher from Lancaster to open a school at Tusseyville, the term to begin about the middle of April.
Mrs. William Martz, Mrs. Foster Frazier and Miss Gertrude E. Ishier were royally entertained at the home of William Bitner and family on Wednesday of last week.
The funeral of Mrs. John Spangler, which was held on Monday morning, was one of the largest held in this community for many years; the church was filled and some were obliged to remain outside. One hundred and three took dinner at the house after services.
