

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

THURSDAY, APRIL 6, 1911.

LOCALS

Centre Hall continues on the map, although it was predicted a year ago that nothing good would be in it by this time.

W. C. Farner, of Colyer, was among the Reporter's callers on April 1st. He has been a resident of Potter township for many years, and is quite contented with his lot.

A pair of gold rimmed spectacles were picked up on the Brush Valley road between Centre Hall and the Huyett farm by Joseph Lutz. Same may be had by calling on him.

Mrs. Susan Saul is back to the Bellefonte hospital again. She had been there for some months, but several weeks ago she was taken to her home at Pennsylvania Furnace, to which place the family had just moved.

The Lindsey farm, near Colyer, is offered at private sale by J. E. Lindsey, the owner. The price at which the property is offered ought to attract a buyer. See adv. in another column.

Mrs. J. A. Aiken, of Bellefonte, last week, attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. John H. Thomas, in Chicago. Deceased was a daughter of Isaac Odenkirk, of Huntingdon county.

Conrad Lingle, of Colyer, is in very delicate health. He is about eighty-seven years of age, and for some years has been a sufferer from cancer. Mrs. Lingle, who is also quite aged, is sick much of the time.

Mrs. James Wagner, of Herndon, recently underwent an operation in a hospital in Philadelphia. Mrs. Wagner is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleisher, of Colyer, and is well known among many of the Reporter readers.

The bill providing for the removal of the Western Penitentiary to a new site has become a law. The new site is to be in the western part of Pennsylvania, and is to contain 1500 acres, and well adapted to farming. A limit of $1,250,000 has been placed on the cost of the site and buildings.

A New Jersey judge by name of Cross stakes his reputation in a decision that as long as a bad egg doesn't stink it isn't rotten and is, therefore, fit for human food. The decision is rank enough to smell and it ought to make Judge Cross very popular in Pennsylvania where such judicial hair splitting is appreciated.

Bair-Runkle.

Married at Centre Mills, April 2nd, by Rev. J. Max Lantz, J. W. Bair and Josie P. Runkle, both of Brush Valley. The marriage was consummated in the furnished home of the pair, on the Moyer farm, now owned by J. A. Kline, which farm the couple will conduct.

Aaronsburg.

Thomas Meyers and son, of Coburn, visited C. Stover at the home of George Weaver.

Rev. Geesey, the new pastor of the Lutheran church, delivered a very pleasing sermon Sunday morning.

T. C. Bower purchased a town lot from George Weaver. The price paid was one hundred and eighty-five dollars.

On the 24th of March the stork left a fine baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rupp. Mother and baby are getting along nicely.

On Tuesday Mrs. W. C. Wyle, daughter, Miss Sarah, and son, James, left for Akron, Ohio, where they will expect to make their future home.

The schools of this place closed Friday of last week. Prof. C. Kremer will open a select school of eight weeks in the near future. This will be a good school to attend for those who desire to become teachers.

Here are some movings that have taken place in Aaronsburg: Ira Gramley from this burg to Millheim; T. C. Bower from his father's farm, at Fielder, to his own home in town, Mr. Decker of Farmers Mills, occupying that farm; T. C. Weaver from the Dr. Bowersox farm, at Wolfe Chapel, into the house of Ernest Stover, Irvin Wane moving onto the Bowersox place; W. C. Wyle from this place to Akron, Ohio; Arthur Weaver from his father's farm to Mackeyville, Clinton county; Irvin Weaver from here to Solons; B. F. Edmunds from the Frank home to Texas; Emmanuel Guisewite from Mrs. Sarah Leitze's home to J. W. Weaver's home; Archie King from John Targer's home to Mrs. Hinds' house, Krider Frank vacating that place and moving to Millin county; Rev. Geesey, pastor of the Lutheran church at Orrstown, from that place to his new field of labor here.

Constipation brings many ailments in its train and is the primary cause of much sickness. Keep your bowels regular, madam, and you will escape many ailments to which women are subject. Constipation is a very simple thing, but like many simple things, it may lead to serious consequences. Nature often needs a little assistance and when Chamberlain's Tablets are given at the first indication, much distress and suffering may be avoided. Sold by all dealers.

Spring Mills.

Shem Hackenberg and family spent Sunday at Smulton.

H. F. McManaway, the hardware man, last week, delivered two new ranges in town.

John L. Weaver, of Altoona, was a Spring Mills visitor for a few days last week.

Miss Miriam Long will become a student in the Lock Haven State Normal School this spring.

Prof. Windom Morris, of Bellevue, was a guest at the home of John Meyers last Thursday.

Miss Mary Bartges, one of the popular young school teachers of this place, will attend the spring term of school at Aaronsburg.

L. G. Reरिक, funeral director and furniture dealer, of Centre Hall, delivered some fine furniture in town last week.

Rev. D. C. Carls moved to Madisonburg last week. Rev. Carls had many friends here who were very sorry to see him leave.

Prof. M. T. Zuber will open a spring term of school on the 1-10th of this month for the benefit of the first and second grade pupils.

S. L. Condo, besides devoting his time to the buggy and harness business, is now turning his attention to the sale of the Sharpless Cream Separator.

Rev. O. E. Martin, the newly appointed Evangelical preacher, took possession of the parsonage last Thursday. Rev. Martin moved here from Milroy.

Quite a number of people from this place attended the horse sale at Millheim last Thursday. Hon. William M. Allison and Matthias Wesigley each purchased a fine horse.

The Lady Violet Rebekah Lodge last Tuesday evening at a regular session, took in five new members. After the meeting a fine lunch was served.

Royal Union Mutual Life Ins. Co., Des Moines.

Dear Sirs: Enclosed find receipt for $17.96, being the dividend on my policy No. 775, $3000 paid up.

It may be of interest to you for me to say that I hold a $5000 paid up policy with the New York Life Insurance Co., taken out within three months of the time I took out my policy with your company, and that the dividends of my New York Life policy amount to about $2 per thousand per year; in other words you are paying me nearly three times as much in dividends as I get from the New York Life. I might also state that in the 20-year settlement with your company I got 20 per cent. more in cash dividends than I got from the New York Life. Prospective insurance buyers would do well to profit by my experience.

Very truly yours, Wm. C. Harbach
