LOCALS.

James S. Rish and P. H. Meyer are having extensive improvements made to their homes in Centre Hall.
William M. Swabb, of Linden Hall, is giving part of his time to the care of his uncle, Henry Swabb, in Centre Hall, who is sick.
Mrs. Peter Boal, an aged lady, is afflicted with erysipelas. William Reiber is also confined to the house on account of an attack of neuralgia. Both are residents of near Colyer.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilliland are the proud parents of a baby boy born recently at their home at State College. Mrs. Gilliland is better known in Centre Hall by her maiden name, Margaret Stuart.
Rev. H. A. Benfer, the new presiding elder of the United Evangelical church, held services in that church in Centre Hall, several evenings, and also preached at Egg Hill and Tusseyville. The quarterly conference was held Saturday afternoon, at which the regular conference business was transacted.
The primaries have been postponed, by an act of the legislature and signed by the governor, until the last Saturday in September. At these primaries all borough, and township as well as county officers will be nominated. The candidate for borough and township offices will be obliged to file petitions the same as candidates for county offices. This will mean expense to join in the chase for a thank you office.
The latter part of last week, E. P. Shook, of Spring Mills, started for Birdsburg, Pennsylvania, Wilmington, Delaware, and other points, looking for Guernsey bulls and other stock. Ralph Shook, of the same place, is also out on a cattle deal, having gone to Wisconsin some time ago. It is the young man's intention to ship the stock he purchases there to West Virginia.

Harris township

R. B. Harrison made a trip to Altoona the early part of this week.
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wagner, of Altoona, made a short visit to Boalsburg last week.
Mrs. L. Mothersbaugh is enjoying part of this week with relatives at Williamsport.
Ralph Rishel, who is teaching a class in instrumental music, gave the first lessons last week.
Prof. E. H. Myers, of Newark, N. J., is spending his Easter vacation with his family at Boalsburg.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Milward, with their little son Gerald, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday at Boalsburg.
The holy communion will be administered in the Lutheran church on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.
William Stamm and brother Charles, of the Mountain City, attended the funeral of their cousin, Benjamin Stamm, last Thursday.
Mrs. Charles Kuhn was at the F. W. Weber home, at Hecla Park, for some time while Mrs. Weber was laid up with rheumatism.
The Easter service "He Hath Triumphed" will be rendered by the Reformed, Sunday-school on Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.
Charles Bricker, of Elmira, New York, and sister, Mrs. Ada Gray, of Bellefonte, were guests at the Bricker home over Sunday. Boalsburg was their birthplace.
There was another snow Saturday night—a regular "sapling bender." The view Sunday morning resembled a midwinter scene, but by Monday evening the snow had all disappeared excepting on the mountain.
W. D. Port, of the State Board of health from Pine Grove Mills, was around among the farmers investigating the stables and inquiring about the cows, the milking pails and stools, the separators and cream cans.
Mrs. Alfred Oman, of Altoona, who enjoyed a visit with relatives at Harrisburg, Selinsgrove and different places in Union and Snyder counties, on her homeward way tarried for a few days with some of her associates, in this, her former place of residence.
Benjamin Stamm, who died on the Stamm homestead, was born July 17, 1850. His parents were Benjamin and Elizabeth Stamm, both deceased. He was weak minded, yet befriended by many. The father made ample provision for the unfortunate man, and since the senior Stamm's death he was well cared for by his stepmother. A stepbrother Calvin Stamm, and a half-sister, Mrs. George Fortney, survive. Until late years, the deceased was a regular attendant at church. He died of dropsy, the same disease that caused the death of his mother, and the disease he always dreaded and hoped he would never become afflicted with. The interment was made Thursday of last week, and the services were held by Rev. C. S. Stover, pastor of the Reformed church.

LOCALS.

Adam Harter, of Millheim, is seriously ill, having suffered two strokes of apoplexy within the last few days.
Edward Foreman, of Youngstown, accompanied by his son, attended the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Sarah Foreman, Wednesday morning.
J. H. Detwiler advertises the stallion Heart of Oak, with a track record of 2:17. He will also have two other stallions at his stables, east of Old Fort.
The Democratic congress is planning to pass the reciprocity measure, increase the free list and reduce the tariff on a large number of articles used by the farmers.
Invitations have been issued by Congressman and Mrs. Charles E. Patton, of Curwensville, for the wedding of their daughter, Emma Margurite, to William Kennedy Ewing on the evening of Thursday, the twenty-seventh of April, at the Curwensville Methodist Episcopal church. A reception will follow the ceremony.
Dr. George P. Bible was in Centre Hall for a day or two during the latter part of last week. He just returned from a lecturing tour through the west, and in a short time will return to that section again. During the time he will not be engaged at Chautauquas, it is Dr. Bible's intention to spend on his farm below Centre Hall.
Phillipsburg has 'em, because the Ledger's edition caused this notice to be printed: Merchants who use government printed envelopes are inconsistent when they protest against shoppers patronizing mail order houses. 'Keep the money circulating at home,' is a suitable slogan for all interested in building up their home town.
The Superior double-row corn planter is one of the superior machines—the name describes its quality. The Superior corn planter has both the edge and ring drop, disc or runner furrow opener, and can also be had with or without the fertilizing attachment. It is an ideal machine, its correct dropping being, of course, its strong feature. The disc furrow opener appeal to some on trashy land; it also makes your machine run lighter, and wears longer than the runner opener, but you can have the latter if you wish them.—R. D. Foreman, Centre Hall.

LOCALS

Congressman Patton has been made a member of the commerce and labor committee.
Harvey Brian, of near Centre Hall, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital beginning of this week.
Easter cards, fifteen cents per dozen, postage paid at this end. Send stamps or coins to the Reporter.
Mrs. Domer Emerick and little daughter, of Spring Mills, for several days were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Emerick, in Centre Hall.
Congressman Focht is opposed to reciprocity with Canada. He is in an agricultural district and believes the farmer should have an equal show with the manufacturer.
Miss Gertrude Keiffer, of Youngwood, is the guest of Miss Cora Brungart. She is employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company as a telephone operator.
It is announced that Miss Thamazim H., daughter of James H. Potter, of Bellefonte, and H. Laird Curtin, of Curtin, will be married some time during the coming summer.
The Reporter is asked to announce that the entertainment to be given in Grange Arcadia, Friday evening, 21st instant, is free to all. The doors will be open to all comers. The cards being distributed by the members of the Modern Woodmen, who are giving the entertainment, are for another purpose than for admission. Both ladies and gentlemen are invited to the entertainment, which will be highly pleasing.
W. H. Blauser, of Potters Mills, made a trip to Harrisburg last week, and this week was busily engaged in hauling the household effects of his daughter, Mrs. J. R. Hannah from the Centre Hall railroad station to Potters Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Hannah, and their four children have been afflicted with sickness at Wells Tannery, Fulton county, and they came to Centre county to find better conditions. Mr. Hannah, however, will not be with the family much at the present time, but will continue as foreman on a large lumber job in Fulton county.
The "clean-up" societies in many of the smaller towns and cities are agitating that the work of cleaning up be done at once. Such a society in Centre Hall is not needed, as it is the rarest exception that the property owner does not conduct a "clean-up" society, himself being the president, secretary, treasurer and the active working force. Last fall snow came before the general cleaning up was done, which accounts for an occasional not too slightly corner just at this time, but the clean-up spirit has now taken hold, and ere long Centre Hall will be the prettiest, the cleanest and therefore the healthiest spot on earth. And that is not putting it too strong.
John Jackson, of Lemont, was arrested charged with having robbed Ward Snook, who works for the McNitt-Hayett Lumber Company, of some forty dollars. The two had been drinking, in Bellefonte, and when Snook got back his senses he was shy his money. Jackson was searched, and but a few dollars were found on his person, which he proved to be his own. Irvin Dreese became Jackson's bondsman, and to make sure that Snook and Policeman Duke-man had examined Snook's pockets carefully, Dreese went through Snook's pockets, and to the surprise of Snook and the policeman found a bunch of money, about half the original amount Snook claimed he had. There was so much mystery in the whole affair that Burgess Bower held Jackson for a further hearing on Saturday.

Potatoes.

If you have potatoes to sell, call on or write W. GROSS MINGLE, Centre Hall, Pa.

Both Affected.
"Whenever she gets to thinking how much they're in debt it affects her nerves."
"Huh! The way it affects her husband is singular."
"How singular?"
"Just singular; it affects his 'nerve.' He tried to borrow a hundred from me today."—Catholic Standard and Times.
The Language of Love.
"Has he proposed yet?"
"Not in so many words."
"That's no answer. Proposals never do come in words. They consist of sighs, 'em, haws and gurgles."—Cleveland Leader.
His Wife's Mother, of Course.
"Mabel—if your grandma has lost all her teeth, how does she eat? Willie—I heard pa say she had a biting tongue."—Boston Transcript.
Education begins the gentleman, but reading, good company and reflection must finish him.—Locke.
He is a friend who in dubious circumstances aids in deeds when deeds are necessary.—Plautus.

State Grows Most Eye.

In the crop growing pennant race of 1910, Iowa wrested from Illinois first place in the production of barley, and New York secured the hay growing title from Iowa, according to announcement just made by the Department of Agriculture. Pennsylvania led in rye growing, producing 19.6 per cent of the country's crop. It was second to New York on buckwheat, and second to New York also in hay.

Heart of Oak Stallion.

J. H. Detwiler, east of Old Fort, has leased the noted pacing stallion, Heart of Oak, with a track record of 2:17, and will stand him at his stable, where any one having good roadsters can have his services; fee $20.00 for living colt. This horse will be here during the entire season. He is a Wilkes horse, well made and handsome.
