

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Allen began housekeeping at Centre Hill, last week.

Miss Esther Oaman, of State College, was the guest of Miss Bessie Breen, in Centre Hall, for several days.

Mrs. Rebecca Scholl, after having spent the winter with her son, John O. Scholl, in Altoona, is back to Centre Hall, her old home.

Very little plowing has been done prior to this week in this community. Martin Keller and Daniel Calihah were the only ones who risked turning the ground last week.

Dr. W. H. Schuyler and Elder George L. Goodhart are attending the sessions of the Huntingdon Presbytery in Lewistown. Before returning Dr. Schuyler will visit other points in adjoining counties.

The justices of the peace, whose terms under the old law would have expired in May, will serve until January, 1912, as provided in a recent enactment. Their old commissions will serve them until the date named.

Mrs. S. M. Goodhart, of Johnstown, accompanied by her little daughter, arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durst, in Centre Hall, last week, and will remain for a short time. On her return she will take with her her little son, Franklin, who had been entertained at the home of his grandparents for some weeks.

Miss Elizabeth St. Clair, the second daughter of Mrs. Bruce S. Lingle, of Cherokee, Iowa, and Charles Henry Wilcox, were married at the home of the bride's mother. There were about seventy-five guests present. In speaking of the wedding, one of the Cherokee papers states that a number of the handsome presents came from friends in Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox began farming on a large farm, near Cherokee.

Jeremiah P. Heckman, of Spring Mills, was in Centre Hall on Saturday. He is one of the Gregg township overseers of the poor, and came up to attend to a bit of business pertaining to his office. Mr. Heckman's associate overseer is Henry Mark, and while they are trying to do the best they can for the unfortunate ones for whom the township provides, these officers are also striving to do the best they can for the taxpayers' interest.

Tusseyville.

Wilber Runkle is going to school at Centre Hall and is a faithful student.

The select school opened Monday morning at Tusseyville with a very good attendance.

Charles Horner went to a business college at Lancaster last week where he will remain for several months.

William Heckman who is a student at Franklin and Marshall college at Lancaster came home on Saturday to spend his Easter vacation.

Domer Ishler and Elmer Miller entered the State Normal School at Lock Haven to be students during the spring term.

Mrs. John Diehl, of Linden Hall, spent a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Floray, owing to the illness of her mother.

Miss Jennie Bottorf and Edna Ishler returned home after spending a few weeks at State College and Lemont.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Messinger and little son went to Altoona on Saturday where they will visit the former's sister and other relatives.

Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, preached a very able sermon in the Lutheran and Reformed church at this place on Sunday evening. His text was on the power of faith and the difference between saying our prayers and praying. The church was comfortably filled with an attentive and appreciative audience.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Susan Rote is under the care of the doctor at present.

Mrs. Nannie Herman, of State College, was the welcome guest of her brother, A. S. Stover, last week.

Harry Diehl, formerly of this place, but now of Milesburg, was in town for a few days last week.

Mrs. Blanche Wert and Mrs. Ellis Haines with their children spent a few days with the latter lady's father, Cyrus Ziegler.

Charles Stover and family took advantage of the weather conditions and paid a visit to Mr. Stover's cousin, Mr. Smeltzer, at Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. H. F. Braucht and friend, Mrs. George Wolfe, of Spring Mills, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gulsewite.

The Stambaugh home was not sold on Saturday. This residence is well located and would make a fine home for any farmer who desires to live in town.

Misses Verna and Media Bower accompanied their grandmother, Mrs. Amanda Weaver, to Millheim last Saturday where they spent the day at the home of Robert Stover.

Mrs. Swabb, who has been living here with her children, all of whom are now married, moved to her farm near Tusseyville last week. Her many friends and neighbors were sorry to see her leave town.

Rebersburg.

William Bair quite recently bought a team of mules.

Jerry Walker is at present confined to his bed with sickness.

Miss Sadie Bower, of Linden Hall, is spending this week at the home of Lloyd Lose and other relatives.

Herbert Beck and Lester Hoosterman left for Illinois, where they will work on farms.

Our public schools closed this past week and the scholars will enjoy a few months vacation.

This week J. N. Meyer had several men employed at planting peach trees on his mountain farm south of this place.

Mrs. Joseph K. Moyer is at present having the carpenters at work at remodeling the dwelling house which she recently bought from C. O. Mallory.

Lester Minnich, wife and son Stover, of Aaronsburg, spent last Sunday and Monday visiting Mrs. Minnich's parents at this place.

C. L. Beck and several other carpenters from this place will leave for Altoona in the near future, where they will work at their trade.

H. G. Krape, our hustling medicine man, who has been unable to speak above a whisper for several months is again regaining his natural speech.

Thomas Royer, who has been on the sick list the past winter, we are glad to note, is again able to walk up town and shake hands with his many friends.

Irvin Schreckengast, of Tylersville, who is in the poultry business, was at this place on last Friday and got some pointers from our poultry man, Scott Stover.

Royal Union Mutual Life Ins. Co., Des Moines.

Dear Sirs: Enclosed find receipt for $17.96, being the dividend on my policy No. 775, $3000 paid up.

It may be of interest to you for me to say that I hold a $5000 paid up policy with the New York Life Insurance Co., taken out within three months of the time I took out my policy with your company, and that the dividends of my New York Life policy amount to about $2 per thousand per year; in other words you are paying me nearly three times as much in dividends as I get from the New York Life. I might also state that in the 20-year settlement with your company I got 20 per cent. more in cash dividends than I got from the New York Life. Prospective insurance buyers would do well to profit by my experience.

Very truly yours, Wm. C. Harbach
