Mrs. Edgar Stover and daughter Grace, of McKeesport, and Mrs. W. Hosterman and daughter Amber, of Johnstown, spent Wednesday of last week at the home of Scott Stover.

Mrs. Stauffer, wife of Rev. A. G. Stauffer, was called to Harrisburg last week, on account of an accident which happened to her brother and sister. While on a boat fishing the boat capsized and both occupants were plunged into deep water; the brother came near drowning before he was rescued, and is in a very critical condition.

You can get from us any kind of an implement to cultivate the soil. We have it in stock; you can look it over. Seeing the implement is better than a description. Our ware houses are full to the overflow. Plows, harrows, cultivators, rollers—not one of each, not only one make or style, but many call on us before buying.—J. H. and S. E. Weber, Centre Hall and Oak Hall Station.

In case of rheumatism relief from pain makes sleep and rest possible. This may be obtained by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.

LOCALS.

DEATHS.

George W. Keichline died at his home in Pine Grove Mills, Sunday morning, aged about seventy-one years. Interment was made Wednesday morning. Rev. C. S. Stover, pastor of the Reformed church, being the minister in charge. Mr. Keichline for many years lived in Ferguson township, and followed the occupation of farming. On retiring a few years ago, the family moved to Pine Grove Mills. There survive four daughters—Mrs. Sarah Felding, Brooklyn; Mrs. Laura Dreibleis, Mrs. Maggie Howersox and Miss Gertrude, Pine Grove Mills. Mrs. Keichline died several years ago. John M. Keichline and Peter Keichline, of Bellefonte, are brothers, and one or more sisters also survive.

Mrs. Philip Saul died at the Bellefonte hospital, Friday. Last November she was operated on for cancer, and the greater part of the time after that she was at the hospital, but she could not be benefited. Her maiden name was Susan Michael. She is survived by a husband and these children, Emma, Mary, Nancy, George, Sylvester, Robert, Claude, Elizabeth and Lottie, the first three being married. Her mother, Mrs. Nancy Michael, also survives, as do also a brother and several sisters. Interment was made at Shiloh, services being conducted by her pastor, Dr. W. H. Schuyler, of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. W. K. Harnish.

William F. Stover, one of the leading citizens in the vicinity of Feldier during his active years, died at the old homestead, Friday of last week. Interment was made at St. Pauls, on Wednesday. Rev. D. M. Geesey, pastor of the Lutheran church officiating. Mrs. Stover died about five years ago, but there survives one daughter, Mrs. Ammon Stover, who lives on the homestead. The deceased was a member of the Lutheran church, and was active in church work. His age was seventy-one years, two months, three days.

Miss Henrietta Kline, who with her sister, Miss Sarah Kline, the only surviving member of the family, lived in Aaronsburg, died Friday of last week. Her age was almost seventy-nine years. Interment was made at Aaronsburg, Rev. D. M. Geesey, pastor of the Lutheran church of which the deceased was a member, officiating.
