

DEATHS.

After a general decline dating back for more than a year Jonathan Shaffer died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. W. Swope, in Lock Haven, on Tuesday morning of last week. He was a native of Centre county, having been born near Madisonburg, March 22d, 1830, so that he was past eighty-one years old. His early life was spent on a farm in Brush valley and later he engaged in the mercantile business in Madisonburg. About thirty years ago he moved to Lock Haven and opened up a flour and feed store. He conducted the same a number of years then sold out and became a salesman for Mosher's bottling works. Six years ago he retired and since that time made his home with his children, of whom the following survive: Mrs. H. W. Swope and Mrs. John Loss, of Lock Haven; Mrs. H. D. Cornell, Camden, N. J.; Mrs. Charles Sorber, East Germantown, Ind.; Phares Shaffer, Mackeyville; Albert Shaffer, Sarcoxie, Missouri. Two brothers, Samuel, of Rebersburg, and William, of Zion, also survive. The remains were taken to Rebersburg for burial.

Ralph Waliza, of Smulton, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Waliza, died Saturday after an illness of some duration. Interment was made at Rebersburg, Monday forenoon, Rev. J. M. Lantz, officiating. The young man was aged sixteen years, and had always been in delicate health. He grew abnormally rapid, and in one year his stature was increased as much as three inches. He was a well behaved boy; a member of the Rebersburg Grammar school, and always applied himself to the extent of his physical strength.

Mrs. Susanna Fry, a widow of John Fry, who died seventeen years ago, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dugan, in Bellefonte, Thursday of last week. Interment was made at Tusseyville, Saturday forenoon, Rev. Martin, of Spring Mills, officiating. There survive eight of her ten children, three sons and five daughters, namely, Mrs. John Weaver, Mrs. David Weaver and Mrs. Jerre Weaver, William, Edward, Roland, Mrs. Dugan and Miss Grace. The age of the deceased was sixty-nine years.

Mrs. Salina Montgomery, aged seventy-four years, died in the Bellefonte hospital. She was the mother of J. Theodore Cherry, her first husband having been Samuel Cherry.

Woodward.

Mr. Slier went to Lewisburg the beginning of the week. Mrs. E. H. Musser is suffering from a very sore eye. Miss Maud Ard spent a few days last week at Port Trevorton. L. L. Weaver and family were to Coburn on Sunday. Mr. Long and family, of Spring Mills, spent a few days this week at the home of William Glantz. Dale Walter returned to his home in Lewisburg on Monday after spending a few months with Joe Ard. Among those on the sick list are Mrs. Grenoble, N. W. Eby and George Miller. Rev. Caris, pastor of the Evangelical Association church was a visitor in this place on Monday. The Easter service held in the Evangelical Association church was largely attended. Mrs. Wesley Hosterman and daughter, Amber, of Johnstown, spent several days at the Woodward House last week. Mrs. Edgar Stover and daughter Grace, of McKeesport, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hosterman. Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Mingle and daughter Phyllis, are spending some time with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Mingle. Roy Musser, a young man from this place, left last week for Lancaster at which place he is going to school, taking a business course.

This item is from the Millheim Journal: C. H. Breen & Co. delivered another new Ford car to State College this week. This makes eight new Fords sold by this firm since March 1st. These men claim that the remarkable success and low cost of up keep of this car over our hills sells itself. The Ford Motor Co., of Detroit, claims that every fifth car in use today is a Ford, they having sold over 10,000 cars since January 1st, 1911.

Constipation brings many ailments in its train and is the primary cause of much sickness. Keep your bowels regular, madam, and you will escape many ailments to which women are subject. Constipation is a very simple thing, but like many simple things, it may lead to serious consequences. Nature often needs a little assistance and when Chamberlain's Tablets are given at the first indication, much distress and suffering may be avoided. Sold by all dealers.

LOCALS.

George Breen had a Bell telephone installed in his residence in Centre Hall.

Col. William J. Bryan is billed to lecture in Lewistown, Monday, May 29th.

Improvements are being made to the Centre Hall hotel, among them being the removal of the bar from a front to a rear room.

Mrs. J. H. Ross and daughter, Miss Irene Ross, of Linden Hall, and Miss Anna Sweeney, of Boalsburg, were in Centre Hall on Friday.

The murderer will be hanged, in Pennsylvania in the future as in the past. The senate defeated the measure substituting the electric chair for the gallows.

William Homan, farmer east of Centre Hall, for two weeks nursed a three hundred dollar brood mare afflicted with lung fever. The animal has now pretty well recovered.

Miss Elsie Barr, of Tyrone, is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Stiver, in Centre Hall, and before returning home will also spend some time with other relatives in Centre Hall and vicinity.

Ralph Zeigler, of near Centre Hill, Sunday evening, between his home and that of Peter Smith, found a purse containing several dollars in cash. The purse and cash will be turned over to the owner, if it can be properly identified.

The May Woman's Home Companion is the big spring story number. A special point has been made of the fiction, without sacrificing the other features that help to make every number of this magazine a complete and well-rounded whole.

The bill to exempt parsonages from taxation was vetoed by Governor Tener, because of its unconstitutionality, the supreme court having decided that a parsonage is not a place of religious worship within the meaning of Article 14, section 1 of the state constitution.

Mrs. W. O. Rearick and daughters Elsie and Mary were guests of relatives and friends in Centre Hall and vicinity. They expect to go to Lunenburg, Kentucky, within a week, where Mr. Rearick is interested in the lumber business, and to which place he went a few weeks ago.

Lawrence S. Bitner, son of Dr. H. F. Bitner, is located at Cordovan, Alaska, and is employed by the Morgan-Guggenheim Company. He is much pleased with the country. In that section of Alaska, the lowest temperature during 1910 was four below zero, and the hottest, seventy-one above.

The home-owner in Centre Hall has become infected with the improvement germ, and everywhere you look improvements are in progress or the owner is preparing for it. Last season there were so many homes remodeled, repainted, and generally reconstructed, that it was thought little was left to be done for this year, but quite the contrary is true.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Potter, of near Lemont, on Sunday visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Potter, on the Brockerhoff farm beyond the Old Fort, and found the landlord was making numerous improvements on the place. The interior of the house is receiving attention, the cistern has been rebuilt, and other improvements are on the way.

Mrs. Eliza Anna Fesenden, aged sixty-four years, of Millmont, Union county, was recently married to Frederick Althof, aged eighty-two years, of Loran, Illinois. The bride, for a year previous, had been keeping house for the groom, who is quite wealthy. He owned twelve hundred acres of land, which was distributed among his children prior to the marriage there being sufficient other funds to care for the young-old couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Moore arrived in Centre Hall last Thursday from Philadelphia, and are now located in the Murray property purchased by them. They were delayed in leaving Philadelphia on account of the sale of their home in that city. It is Mr. Moore's intention to remodel his property, making the interior more modern; and after his dwelling house is brought nearer to his idea of a country home, Mr. and Mrs. Moore will spend more time in their automobile, seeing Centre county.

THROG OF BUYERS CONTINUE.

Special Half Price Brings Many Patrons to Murray & Bitner.

The people of Centre Hall and vicinity appreciate the great advantage Murray and Bitner obtained for them, in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to allow the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific, for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, to be sold at half price, 25 cents, and have bought hundreds of bottles.

Unlike ordinary medicines for constipation and dyspepsia, the dose of Dr. Howard's specific is reduced after a few day's use, and the cure is soon complete and lasting.

If you have not already taken advantage of this chance to get a month's medical treatment for 25 cents, be sure to call at Murray & Bitner today, for they have only a small amount of the specific on hand.

People Who Are Interested in what is done, are generally also interested in how it is done. We are going to tell you. Interest rates in the West have always been higher than in the East. For many years to come, they will be from 1 1-2 to 2 per cent, higher. Look at these figures:

$1 invested annually for 20 years at 6 per cent, $38.99.

$1 invested annually for 20 years at 4 per cent, $30.97.

Difference in favor of 6 per cent, on $1 per year, $8.02.

If you are investing $100 per year, the difference in favor of western securities would be $802. It is no wonder that the best returns are secured in the
