The announcements for family reunions are being made. The Shaffer-Hazel reunion will be held at Hecla Park, June 15th.

There will be action at Misses' store, at Colyer, Saturday evening. Every one in that community knows just what that announcement means, and will be on hand.

Mildred Wieland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wieland, and Mamie Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cunningham, of Linden Hall, are ill with scarlet fever.

John H. Bitner, who recently started in the milk business in Altoona, writes the Reporter that he is getting along nicely. The milk is shipped to him from several stations along the Henrietta branch of the P. R. R.

District Attorney W. G. Runkle has been seriously ill during the past few days. His illness began with grip a week or more ago, later other complications followed and on Monday and Tuesday his condition was somewhat alarming.

On Sunday evening, Rev. A. A. Black preached the sermon at the baccalaureate service held in the First Presbyterian church at Derry, for the Derry schools, of which Prof. J. C. Bryson is principal. Both Rev. Black and Principal Bryson were formerly of Boalsburg.

Calvin Smith and Miss Nellie Smith, son and daughter of J. Frank Smith for several days were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sechrist, at Bellwood. Their main object in going there was to attend the graduation exercises of the Bellwood High School, Miss Ethel Sechrist being a member of the class.

Mrs. J. W. Keller and son Harry, a student at State College, and Misses Ruth Wieland and Ruth Ross, all of Linden Hall, on Tuesday evening came to Centre Hall in the former's Ford machine, and while here Mr. Keller took some of the associates of the young ladies a spin up and down the country.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Floray, next Monday, will go to Williamsport, and while there will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Metzler, cousins of Mrs. Floray. Mr. Floray's main object in going to the thriving inland city is to attend the sessions of Grand Castle of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, which meets there on the 9th, 10th and 11th inst., being the delegate from the local lodge at Centre Hall.

C. E. Royer, of Spring Mills, president of the eleventh district Sunday-school association, appointed Miss Helen Bartholomew, of Centre Hall, superintendent of the Home Department, and Miss Orpha Gramley, superintendent of the Cradle Roll Department, for the district. The work of these superintendents will be to induce the Sunday-schools in district, covering Centre Hall borough, Potter and Gregg townships, to organize these departments.

Under the proper head will be found the political announcements of Messrs. Zimmerman and Woodring, the present county commissioners, for re-nomination; and also that of Mr. Williams, the present commissioners' clerk, who announces for the office of register. They are all Republicans, and are therefore appealing to the Republican readers of the Centre Reporter, who can call for and vote the Republican ballot at the September primaries, for their support.

The illness of District Attorney W. G. Runkle will make it impossible to try the commonwealth cases that would have come before the May term of court. Although he no doubt will recover before the opening of court, it will not be possible for him to prepare the cases. It may be that the grand jurors will be adjourned on Monday, after they report, or, it may be, they will be notified not to appear, provided it is found that the court can do so under the law.

The storm Monday afternoon did damage in various parts of the county. West of Centre Hall a tall chimney was blown from the farm house on the J. T. Potter farm, fences in that neighborhood were also blown down. In parts of Brush Valley damage to fences, timber and orchards is also reported. On the Hale farm, tenanted by Calvin Cori, two miles northeast of Bellefonte, a portion of the barn was unroofed, and on the adjoining farm, owned by Mrs. John Kline, a large barn was blown three feet from its foundation.

Two of the most recent sales were made by Sidney Poorman, east of Centre Hall, tenant on the Keller farm, and Foster Frazier, at Tusseyville, tenant on the Swartz farm. The former sold a mare to Bruce W. Ripka for $275, and the latter a driving horse for $220 to Harry Groves, of Pleasant Gap.

The demonstrations in pruning, spraying and general care of orchards given in various sections in Centre county by the state agricultural department, division of zoology, of which division Dr. H. A. Surface is the head, has induced the planting of fruit trees to a much larger extent than in previous years. The instruction received also induced many orchard owners to prune neglected trees, spray for the scale, and give the orchard more attention and hold it of greater value than to be used for a hog lot, about the best use many orchards were put to in the past. The results will be seen in the near future, which will give a further stimulus to fruit growing in Centre county.
