The borough auditors in Bellefonte and the council of that borough were at odds some months because the auditors wanted to audit and the councilmen wanted the auditing postponed until fall. All sorts of excuses were put forward to postpone the matter, and it was not until the auditors employed Attorney D. W. Zerby, who prepared a mandamus and was about to serve it, that the councilmen capitulated and turned the books over for examination.

This item taken from the Orangeville (Illinois) Courier, refers to a former native of Gregg township, who located in Illinois many years ago: The condition of Daniel Musser is quite critical. He has been confined to his bed for more than a week and he is gradually growing weaker. His daughter Mrs. (Dr.) P. W. Vogt, of Pittsburg, came to Centre Hall to bid farewell to her mother, Mrs. Lillie Alexander, and other friends before leaving for California with her husband and little son. DEATHS.

Monday morning one of Rebersburg prominent citizens was laid to rest. Reference is made to Luther B. Frank, a life-long resident, except for the short time spent in Millheim, of the village in which he died. He was a son of the late Judge Samuel Frank, prominently connected with the early history of Rebersburg and Brush Valley, and died on the 4th inst. He was a druggist, and devoted his whole life to that business in connection with the general merchandise business, either as clerk or proprietor. He was an active member of the Lutheran church, and deeply interested in Sunday-school work, being a teacher of a class and treasurer. He was held in high regard by all his acquaintances, in and out of the church.

The wife, who survives, before her marriage was Miss Mary Wolf, daughter of the late Commissioner John Wolf. There were no children. There also survive two brothers, Dr. George S. Frank, Millheim; James P. Frank, Harrisburg, and Mrs. Reuben D. Bierly, Rebersburg, a sister.

Interment was made Monday morning, at Rebersburg, Rev. N. A. Whitman, pastor of the Lutheran church officiating, assisted by Rev. J. M. Bearick, of Salona, and Rev. Aurand, of Millinburg. The services at the church were largely attended.

The age of the deceased was fifty-four years, and seven months.

Jeremiah Walker, an old resident of Brush Valley, died at his home a short distance northwest of Rebersburg, Friday night, of dropsy. His health had been failing for some months, but it was not until a few weeks ago that his condition was thought to be of a serious nature.

The deceased was born east of Wolfs Store, and during the greater part of his life was engaged in the milling business, but the latter years were given to farming. He was united in marriage to a Miss Brungart, of Sugar Valley, and four daughters and one son were the result of the union. The son was accidentally wounded by a gun shot several years ago and has never fully recovered. One daughter, Mrs. Bierly, is deceased, the mother and remaining daughters and son referred to, survive.

Mr. Walker was a member of the Lutheran church, at Rebersburg, and was buried from that church by his pastor, Rev. N. A. Whitman, Tuesday morning.

At the age of forty-four years and ten months Mrs. Maggie Neese, wife of Samuel Neese, died of dropsy at her home at Penn Hall, early Monday morning of last week. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Heckman, being one of nine children. In 1899 she was married to Mr. Neese, and to this union was born one son, John, who with the husband survives, as do also the following brothers and sisters: Adam F. Heckman, Tusseyville; Oscar E. Heckman, who recently moved from Millheim to Lena, Illinois; Mrs. William Neese, near Penn Hall; Mrs. Robert Metz and Mrs. William Miller, Lena, Illinois. Three sisters—Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. George Smith and Annie—predeceased her to the grave.

Burial was made in the Heckman cemetery, near Penn Hall, Wednesday morning following her death. Services were conducted by Rev. W. D. Donat, pastor of the Reformed church of which the deceased was a member.

Mrs. Mary A. Rider, widow of Samuel Rider and one of the oldest residents of Centre county, died at her home near State College, Wednesday evening of last week after an illness of three weeks, due to the infirmities of old age. Mrs. Rider was born in the county of Lancashire, England, February 23, 1821, and came to this country with her parents when she was twelve years old. She resided in Centre county, near the place where she died, during the balance of her long life. She became the wife of Samuel Rider in 1841, he dying twenty-seven years ago. She is survived by three sons and three daughters.

Charlotte C. Beshm, wife of Jacob Beshm, died at her home at Aaronsburg of a complication of diseases, Wednesday morning of last week, aged forty-eight years. She leaves to survive a husband, one son and three brothers: Ezra Burd, of Coburn; Elijah Burd, of Howard, and Charles Burd, of Lock Haven. Funeral services were held Saturday forenoon, conducted by Rev. M. D. Geesey, and interment made in the Lutheran cemetery at Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Martha Shope, widow of the late William Shope, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Zimmerman, in Milesburg, at the age of eighty-one years, ten months and fourteen days.

in what is done, are generally also interested in how it is done. We are going to tell you. Interest rates in the West have always been higher than in the East. For many years to come, they will be from 1-2 to 2 per cent. higher. Look at these figures:

$1 invested annually for 20 years at 4 per cent., $30.97.

Difference in favor of 6 per cent. on $1 per year, $8.02.
