

Meyorter,

MEMORIAL DAY.

is Penns Valley.

VOL. LXXXIV.

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1911.

NO. 21.

CENTRE COUNTY COURT HOUSE

FRIDAY'S RAIN.

monies-Attendance Large.

Didicated Friday With Appropriate Gere. Much Damages Done to Cultivated Lands Distinguished Personages to Appear on -Roads Almost Impassable.

Centre county's remodeled and en-Friday evening at about five o'clock larged court house was formally dedi- Centre Hall and vicinity experienced Pennsylvania State College open Fricated Friday forenoon with appropri- the heaviest rain in ten years or more, day, June 9. The class is the largest ate ceremonies, in the presence of a the precipitation being two and three- that ever graduated from that institularge concourse of people, including fourths inches, during a period of tion, and the program is the most jurists and members of the bar from about one hour. The rain came in elaborate ever prepared. Distinguished many different points in the state. torrents, and was accompanied by a personages will appear on the rostrum. The weather was ideal and the pro- high wind. The first intimation of a The program appears in full. gram of exercises, beginning at 10.30 storm was experienced in the teleo'clock, was carried out to the letter. phone exchanges, the disturbance Judge Ellis L. Orvis presided, and being on the Bellefonte lines first, and made the opening address. The ad- then on the Lewistown circuits. It dress on behalf of the citizens was appears a shower passed over the upmade by Dr. Edwin E. Sparks, presi- per portion of the valley, came down dent of State College, and an historical along the south side, and then backed address was made by General James toward Centre Hall. About the same A. Beaver, representing the superior time a rain came over Nittany Mouncourt. David Fortney, Esq., spoke on tain, east of this point, and returned, behalf of the bar of Centre county and the two rains meeting here-and addresses were also made by Judge H. something dropped. M. McClure, of Lewisburg; Judge The streets soon became rivers of Thomas J. Baldridge, of Blair county ; water, in some sections being covered W. H. Keller, Esq, of Lancaster, for- from walk to walk. Church street merly of Bellefonte, and others. At led off, draining everything from the intervals the Coburn band rendered summit on the west and the slope to some of its choicest selections, the mountain. Gutters three feet deep which lent inspiration to the occasion. were washed on Main Street on the A souvenir booklet, published by E. side at the foot of the mountain, but J. Williams, commissioners' clerk, the main driveway was not disturbed. and containing interior and exterior The station portion of the town had views of the handsome temple of jus- the appearance of a lake, and the flat tice with pictures of Judge Oryis and at Krise properties was covered with a county officials and containing an his- foot or more of water.

torical sketch of the building, was Corn fields in the vicinity of Centre distributed free. Several thousand per- Hall were badly washed, as were also sons inspected the beautiful court the fields sown to oats. The oats house during the day and all were crop is badly damaged, and some corn highly pleased with the improve- fields have since been cultivated and ments.

Legislature Adjourns.

were spent in passing the several hundred appropriation bills, the sum total of which represented pretty nearly thirty-five millions of dollars.

Important bills passed were those providing for the changing of the Boalsburg, Wednesday morning of time for holding the primary elections, last week, when their daughter, Miss the increase of the salary of judges | Mary, was united in marriage to Ezra and court officers, increase of the Breon, a native of Rebersburg, but salaries of the members of the legisla- now located in Philadelphia. Rev. J. ture, and many other officers, the

The commencement exercises at FRIDAY, JUNE 9 3.00 p. m.-Baseball-Sophomore vs. Freshman

Beaver Field 8.00 p. m.-The Pharsonians-Auditorium

COMMENCEMENT AT STATE.

Rostrum-Program in Full.

SATUSDAY, JUNE 10

0.00 a. m .- Review of the Regiment of College Cadets-Beaver Field.

1.00 p. m .- Dual Track Meet-Colgate Universit; vs. State-Beaver Field 2.30 p. m.-Baseball-Bucknell vs. State-Beave

Field 8.00 p. m .- Concert-College Musical Clubs-

Auditorium 0.06 p. m.-Campus Singing-Senior Class-Sen ior Benches

SUNDAY, JUNE 11

10.30 a. m.-Baccalaureate Sermon, Dean Herbert home. L. Willett, Ph. D., University of Chicago,

Chicago-Auditorium 4.00 p. m .- Sacred Concert-College Cadet Band -Front Campus

6.30 p. m.-Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Meeting -Front Campus

8.00 p. m.-Sacred Concert-Auditorium

10.00 s. m.-Annual Concert-College Cadet Band

11.00 a. m .- Soccer Football-Sophomore Freshman-Beaver Field

1911-Front Campus

State-Beaver Field

Trustees-Carnegie Library

toriun 9.30 p. m.-Philochorean Reception-McAllister

TUESDAY, JUNE 13

9.00-10.00 a. m .- Alumni Business Meeting-Old Chapel 0.00-11 00 p. m.-Class Reunions-Old Main

Kappa Phi Honor Fraternity-Auditorium Foyer

Auditorium

3.00 p. m.-Alumni Parade-Old Main to Beave Field

Beaver Field

After a continuous illness of several Time of Exercises at Various Cemsteries weeks, Mrs. Samuel Klinefelter, aged fifty-three years, died Wednesday Next Tuesday is May 30th, Memorning of last week at her home on morial Day, the day set apart by the the Brungart farm, near Tusseyville. national government to do honor to Deceased's maiden name was Louiss the departed heroes in the several J. Wingart, and was a daughter of wars engaged in by the United Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wingart, who States. Memorial Day will have always lived in the vicinity of Tussey. special significance this year, for it is ville. About eight years ago Mrs. just fifty years ago-the semi-centen- appearance of his home in Centre Hall Klinefelter was thrown from a spring nial-of the breaking out of the war. wagon when the horses became un- Fifty years ago the war had already controllable and ran off. She received begun. The soldiers were making injuries from which she never fully ready to go to the front ; " tramp, was creeping paralysis. She leaves to north and south, the seriousness of the magazine. survive her husband, one brother, situation was apparent to all ; Confour sisters and four children. The gress and President Lincoln were trybrother and sisters are : John and ing to maintain order and to finance Dora Wingart, Colyer; Mrs. Roy the war. Memorial Day in 1911 calls Miller, Tusseyville; Mrs. Alvin for special observance.

DEATHS.

The times for these services in Penns Bloom, Milesburg. The children are : Valley are appended, as well as the Centre Hall, 6 P. M., Rev. J. Max Lantz. Spring Mills, 6 P. M., Rev. H. A. Snook. Millheim, 1.30 P. M., General James A. Beaver Rebersburg, 6 P. M., Col. Hugh S. Taylor. Madisonburg, 3 P. M., Samuel Gettig, Esq. Pleasant Gap, 9 A. M., Col. Hugh S, Taylor Potters Mills, 2 00 P. M., Rev. J. Max Lantz. Bellefonte, 4 P. M., Rev. Dr. E. H. Yocum. Boalsburg, 6 P. M., J. L. Holmes.

Who Will Contribute Flowers?

As is the custom of the employes of The Centre Reporter office, the graves of a number of Revolutionary soldiers in the vicinity of Centre Hall will be decorated on Memorial Day. These graves are in isolated sections, and in times past were not visited on Memor-flags. Who will contribute just a few flowers for this purpose? Any one feeling disposed to do so, will kindly ten a. m., on Memorial Day. Revolu- to old Pennsylvania for the winter. tionary flags will be furnished by Mrs. Revolution.

This information is also wanted : the latter was buried near Centre Hall.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS,

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS.

The heavlest rain in ten years fell Friday, the precipitation for the day having been two and three-fourth inches.

James Alexander is improving the by having his dwelling house repainted.

The Ladies World for June has a most attractive cover and the contents recovered. The cause of her death tramp, tramp" was heard all over the are quite up to the standard of this

> The school code passed both houses and after the governor appends his signature, which he will do, the measure becomes a law.

Andrew McNitt, of the Huyett-Mc-Nitt lumber firm, is the owner of an automobile, having recently purchased a 36-horse power Parry runabout.

As has been the custom for the past few years all the stores in Spring Mills will be closed from twelve o'clock noon until 8 p. m. on Decoration Day. After eight o'clock the stores will again be open to customers.

D. K. Geiss, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Geiss and children came to Centre Hall on Thursday of last week to spend a day with Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Goodhart, also drove to the Goodhart farm, where Mr. and Mrs. James C. Goodhart live.

Aaron P. Zerby, of Bellefonte, ial Day and decked with flowers and father of Attorney W. D. Zarby, and formerly of Penn township, is in Illinois, making Big Rock his headquarters. He will remain in Illinois with relatives and friends until the send the flowers to this office prior to frosts come, when he will come back

As a result of injuries sustained by a Harry C. Valentine, of Bellefonte, fall Mrs. James A. Noonan filed suit representing the Daughters of the in common pleas court against Bellefonte borough, claiming $5000 damages. Last November Mrs. The location of the graves of Michael Noonan was walking on Allegheny Stiver and Frederick Ream, Revolu- street and fell into a hole which had tionary soldiers. Linn's history states been excavated to receive a telegraph replanted. One mile west of Centre Hall, the washing was not as severe, nor was there much damage done at

The legislature which assembled Spring Mills. On the south side of January 3rd, adjourned today, (Thurs- the valley, the rain was heavy, but day). The last few days of the session damage by washing comparatively light.

Breon-Lee.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lee, at I. Stonecypher performed the cere

MONDAY, JUNE 12 -Front Campus

1.30 p. m.-Class Day Exercises

3.30 p. m.-Baseball-University of 7.30 p. m .- Annual Meeting of the Board of

8.00 p. m .- Junior Oratorical Contest-Audi-

Hall

11 00 a.m.-Annual Business Meeting of the Phi

1.00 s. m .- Public Welcome to the Class of '61-

2.00 p. m .- Trustee Elections-Delegates, Old

Chapel: Alumni, Room 114 Main

3 30 p. m.-Baseball-Alumni vs.

Stump, Earlystown, and Mrs. Della Mary, wife of Robert Glasgow, near speakers : Tusseyville ; Ids, Dora and Fred, at Interment was made at Tusseyville, Saturday morning, the services being conducted by Rev. S. C. Stover, of Boalsburg. The funeral was one of the largest attended in that community for some time. Following an operation at the Bellefonte hospital, Mrs. Jack McClellan, a sister of Mrs. J. L. Spangler, died Tuesday morning of last week. Deceased, before her mairiage, was Miss Emma L. Wagner, a daughter, of David and Elvira Johnston Wagner, and was born in Bellefonte. On April 26 1876, she was married to Jack McClellan, who was engaged with the late W. T. Speer. During the last three years Mrs. McClellan had made her home with her sister, in Bellefonte. Surviving are a husband, one daughter, Mrs. George Gaches, of Butler, and two sons, Jack and Frank. Two sisters also survive, Mrs. J. L. Spangler and Mrs. Rachel Harris. Funeral services were held the following Thursday afternoon with Rev. Dr. E. H. Yocum officiating. Interment was made at Union cemetery.

school code, the Sproul road bill.

unpopular with the powers that be.

The Governor has thirty days in tends congratulations. which to approve or disapprove the measures passed by the one hundred The Hooven Mercantile Co., Dividend and nineteenth general assembly of Pennsylvania. The bills not acted on during the next thirty days will become laws by lapse of time.

On Monday a resolution was adopted providing for an amendment of the constitution, covering the extension of the terms of judges. If the amendwill be mailed. ment is accepted by the next legislature, it will come before the people in the fall of 1914, and in 1915 laws can be enacted under its provision. This will come too late to cover the conditions in " Centre county, since the term of Judge Orvis expires in 1914. Grove, both of Spring Mills, were but will avoid the necessity of the united in marriage by Rev. J. Max governor filling vacancies caused by Lantz. the amendment ratified by the people a few years ago, after the meeting of the legislature in 1915.

The bill providing for Pennsylvania's participation in the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco in 1915 passed finally. The bill provides for a commission of twenty members, $1000, of which the Governor shall be president, and appropriates $100,000 for a state building and other expenses.

Second Victory Over State.

The Centre Hall base ball club trounced State College Saturday afternoon at the latter place by the score of 17 to 6. It was the second victory in fonte. $1. as many games over the State boys. The game was featured by numerous accidents, and at each time it was a home player that was the victim. Baird, Paul Bradford and Allison all delayed the game to some extent by requiring attention after they had been hurt in various ways. Smith, who pitched a good game up until the in Benner twp. $4000. seventh inning, had to retire on account of wrenching his back. Meyer took his place in the box and partorm- twp. $14.32. ed in a creditable manner.

On the evening of Memorial Day, Progress Grange will hold a festival Weaver, May 4, 1907, tract of land in shops such as were conducted in in Grange Arcadia. Keep this in Gregg twp. $1000. . mind, and give the order your patronage, and thereby assist in liquidating Morningstar, April 24, 1911, tract of the crushing out of the small manuthe indebtedness on the hall. Ice land in Rush twp. $700. cream, cake, strawberries, fruit, etc., George H. Emerick et ux to An- bending establishments like those will be served.

held at the Ga man House, Bellefonte, land in Philipsburg. $700. Saturday, June 3rd, at ten o'clock m.

mony in the presence of about fifty A large number of bills were defeat- witnesses. The groom is employed by 9.00 p. m.-Alumni Reception-McAllister Hall ed in the house or senate by vote, and the Pure Oil Company at Philadela large number smothered in com- phis, having been connected with that mittee, and another batch was killed concern for the past three or four off by absentees on last Friday. years. On the afternoon of the day of 10.00 a. m .- Comme Some of these measures deserved their the wedding the young couple left for fate, and others were deserving, but the city, where Mr. Breon has a home already furnished. The Reporter ex-

No. 62.

The directors of The Hooven Mercantile Co. have declared the regular quarterly dividend of one and onehalf per cent. on the preferred stock and one per cent. on the common stock payable on June 1st to stockholders of record May 18th. Checks

Albright-Grove.

Last Saturday evening at the Methodist parsonage in Spring Mills, Frank Albright and Miss Grace B.

Transfers of Real Estate.

Budd Thompson to Jacob S. Williams, March 16, 1911, tract of land in Worth twp. $200.

Adam Simcox to Hannah Simcox, May 9, 1911, tract of land in Rush twp.

Helen M. Walbridge et al to Harriet Glover, May 6, 1911 tract of land in Philipsburg. $1800.

Charles King et ux to Toner A Hugg, May 10, 1911, tract of land in Milesburg. $700. John P. Lyon to Eleanor M. Lyon,

May 10, 1911, tract of land in Belle-Catherine Reagen to Minnie M.

Snow Shoe twp. $600.

in Rush twp. $1736, W. L. Woodcock et ux to E. O. Shade, February 14, 1911, tract of land ships most aged and respected citizens, April 3, 1909, tract of land in Haines vicinity of Penns Cave, where, when

W. L. Foster et al to Martha M. land in College twp. $550

C. F. Fryberger et ux. to Mary C.

Rural Telephone Company will be W. Bigelow, April 15, 1911, tract of business life until after he had ac-

Read the Reporter.

8.00 p. m .- "The Climatologers ; by the Thespians-Auditorium

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14 a. m.-Comm ment Propession-Carnegie Library cement Exercises-Auditor

Address-His Excellency, Chang Yin Tang, Washington, D. C., Chinese Minister to the consciousness. All five wives are United States, "America's Part in the Rejuvenation of China."

2.00 p. m .- Y. M. C. A. Benefit-" The Colleg Widow," College students-Front Campus 5.00-6.00 p. m .- Reception to Commencem Guests-President's Lawn, West Campus

8.00 p. m .- Junior Farewell Reception to Se iors -Armory ever offered at the Reporter office. One of the twin colts born to the brood mare belonging to Samuel Klinefelter, near Tusseyville, died last lar and estimable citizen, who fol- Winkleblech lumber job. Thursday.

LOCALS

One of the bills passed by the legisschool boards to report school bonds of ground for the planting of potatoes to the state department. These bonds hereafter will be taxed.

Mrs. Rebecca Scholl and granddaughter, Rebecca Kreamer, for a week were guests of Miss Annie Georges Valley.

This from the Millheim Journal On Saturday a freight train on the at Loganton Sunday morning at ten Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad set fire o'clock by Revs. Ralph Smith and J. to the woods west of Coburn, in close H. Rosenberger. proximity to the plant of the Korman Creamery company. The fire soon burned fiercely and only by hard work was the building of the creamery company saved from destruction.

Frank Good, who lives near Columbis, Lancaster county, has a day of last week in a precarious con-egg. The goose is five years old and Cyphart, May 14, 1911, tract of land in in 1910 produced ninety-six eggs, and so far the present season she has pro-Aaron Woodring et al to Christ duced sixty-six eggs. For three days Sharer, January 26, 1905, tract of land in succession this goose worked overtime and each day produced two eggs.

John B. Ream, one of Gregg townwas a caller at the Reporter office Moses Eby et al to C. H. Vonado, Friday. Mr. Ream lives in the a young man, he conducted a prosperous and important industry. He Yearick, December 12, 1908, tract of manufactured woodwork for wagons and buggies, when this material was Angeline C. Weaver to Charles A made up into vehicles in the small eral services were held the same day towns like Centre Hall. With the development of these industries, and facturer by the combination of capitol, worldly needs are concerned.

years, fifth wife of George Johnson, died Sunday evening, 14th inst., at her home at Pine Grove Mills. She Had been out walking in the orchard

Mrs. Johnson, aged fifty-eight the day before and received a paralytic stroke from which she never regained now dead. When united in marrisge to Mr. Johnson, she was a widow, being the mother of a large family of boys and girls, several of whom are now married. Funeral services were held the following Tuesday at the Johnson home, after which the remains were shipped to Marys-Post cards-just a bit the prettiest ville, near Harrisburg, where interhome ment was made the next day.

> Israel Bierly, of Loganton, a populowed blacksmithing at that place for years, died suddenly of heart failure. on the farm of his daughter, Mrs.

team to the barn when he sank to the hay and wheat is anticipated. ground and expired in a few moments.

conducted in the Evangelical church winter.

After having spent several months in Philadelphia taking the electrical treatment, Harris Sourbeck, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sourbeck, of Bellefonte, was brought home Tuesdition. Two days later he died. About four years ago the lad had been out hunting and walked until he was legs became paralyzed and since that last week. time he had practically been without Early Saturday morning of last week, Philip, the eighteen months' old son of Mr. and Mrs Ferdinand Beezer, of Spring Creek, died of scarlet fever. This is the second death from that disease in that family, a sister, Regins, having died several weeks ago. Fun-and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery at Spring Creek.

Pleasant Gap, officiating.

the use of them.

Rebersburg.

ers apply a coat of paint to her dwell- an election will be held to select a ing house.

the sick list during the past month, is improving.

present canvassing this place selling Wheeling, West Virginia. table cloths. Orvis Meyer and Merchant Kerstetter, both of Coburn, were visitors at the Clyde Weber had the misfortune one his foot while peeling bark on the right time.

Mr. and Mrs. Derr, who had been visiting at the Reformed parsonage lature that is now a law, requires Mr. Bierly had been plowing a patch the past few weeks, returned Saturday to their home at Harrisburg.

> The grain and grass fields in this Clara Wagner, at Rosecrans, and hav- vicinity never looked more promising ing completed the work was taking the than at present. A heavy crop of

The addition to the dwelling house He was aged sixty-nine years and of Samuel Shaffer is nearing com-Scholl, at the Harter home, in leaves a wife and family of grown up pletion. Mr. Shafler purchased the children. Funeral services will be property from Mrs. J. W. Weber last Woodward.

Miss Maude Ard left for Philadelphia last Friday.

Rev. Kessler spent a short time in Millheim last week.

Miss Minnie Grenoble, of Bellefonte, spent last week with her parents.

Mrs. Philips, of Madisonburg, visited relatives in this place last week. Miss Elsie Miller, of Mackeyville, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Harry Stover. Mrs. E. S. Stover and daughter tired. Upon reaching his home his Grace went to Buffalo, New York,

> J. F. Kepner and William Herman, of Tamaqua, are spending a week in this place.

Mrs. L. L. Weaver and daughter, ter went west from Centre Hall during Miss Maude, spent the greater part of the seventies, locating at Freeport, last week at Coburn. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Brungard, of

with Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wolfe. Mr. and Mrs. Immel, of Spring

J. H. Bowersox.

The railroad between Lemont and Mrs. Harpster is a native of Freeport, Minnie H. Owens, aged sixteen Bellefonte was pretty badly damaged and, by the way, is acquainted with years, four months and seventeen by the heavy rains of last Friday. the composing stick and rule, having days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will- The work trains from Sunbury and been a compositor on the Freeport geline C. Shearer, April 31, 1911, tract operated by Mr. Ream were obliged to iam N. Owens, died at her home at Lock Haven were called over to put Bulletin before Mr. Harpster exercised quit business. Happily for Mr. Ax Mann, of cerebral meningitis, early the track into condition. The train an influence over her. It is her first A special meeting of the Patrons Martha R. Bigelow et bar to George Ream, this period did not come in his Friday morning of last week. Inter- from the east on Saturday morning trip to the east, and it is needless to ment was made at Bellefonte Sunday was able to reach this point without say that she has concluded that the quired sufficient wealth to make old afternoon, Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Belle- difficulty, but the train from Belle- many references to Centre Hall by her age a time of enjoyment, so far as fon e, and Rev. E. H. Emcler, of fonte could not get through until in the husband in the way of comparison afternoon. and otherwise were warranted.

Next Sunday Dr. W. H. Schuyler will hold services in the Presbyterian Mrs. Chestie Stoner had the paint- church, at Bellefonte, at which time pastor. There are a large number of Miss Kate Moyer, who had been on applicants, but the votes will likely be divided between Dr. Wilson, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. Smily, of Harry Kline, the Jew peddler, is at Camden, N. J., and Dr. Cook, of

The June Woman's Home Companion contains practical and varied suggestions for a celebration of the Fourth Rebersburg poultry yards on Sunday. of July, which put into effect, would Mrs. J. D. Houser and children, of save arms, legs and lives in your com-State College, after spending a week munity on the fourth of next month. here among relatives, have returned And, what is more, the children would have a better time than they have ever had. There is still time to day last week to cut a deep gash in do this-in fact, this is exactly the

J. Paul Rearick, who is doing business at Martinsburg, Blair county, was the guest of his brother L. G. Rearick, in Centre Hall, last week. Mr. Rearick is engaged in the undertaking and furniture business, and flods Martinsburg a brisk town. The surrounding country is a highly developed agricultural district, mostly inhabited by Dunkards, who by the way, to a large extent have cast aside the dress at one time peculiar to them. Dr. George P. Bible was in Centre Hall for a few days last week and while here visited his cousin, Miss Anna Bible. For the next four weeks Dr. Bible will devote his time in teaching pedagogies and psychology in the Dayton Institute, at Dayton, Armstrong county. He expects to return to Centre Hall in July and look after the improvements which will be made to the home recently purchased by Miss Bible. During the months of August and September Dr. Bible of Freeport, Illinois, are at the Centre Hall hotel, where they expect to remain for several weeks. Mr. Harpswhere he has since lived. He first was employed in a carriage manufac-Zion, spent Saturday and Sunday turing establishment, but later engaged in the confectionary business, which proved a successful proposition Mills, spent Saturday and Sunday from a financial standpoint. A few with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. years ago he disposed of his business, estate, in the west and northwest.

and has since been dealing in real will attend chautauquas, after which he will go on a lecture tour. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Harpster,