

CENTRE HALL, PA., THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1911.

FORESTRY RESERVE IN SEVEN MTS.

Brief Account of Work Being Done Locally Fiftleth Anniversary of Institution-All Ludwig

It may not be generally known and ing on the southern part of the counenemy of our forests in Pennsylvania of the Tennessee Soldiers' home. and destroys in a few hours the growth of as many years.

of this Reserve contains many fessions and as a rule have been sucabandoned farm fields. These are cessful. All of the survivors of the unfit for agriculture and are being class of 1861 will be present during the planted up with White Pine ( Pinus Strobus) as rapidly as possible. In Friday, June 9. 1910 there were planted 99,400-2 yearold seedlings and this spring (1911) Florida, who was a member of State there were planted 306,600 seedlings. faculty in 1861, will be an honored These seedlings ranged from six to fifteen inches long and were obtained ferred upon J. H. Isett, of Isett, who from the State Nursery at Greenwood left college in 1861 to join General Furnace, Huntingdon county. They Sherman's bodyguard two months bewere spaced 4x4 feet, making about fore his graduation. A degree will be 2700 trees to the acre. In all, about 114 acres of abandoned farm fields lady, at one time a student of the colwere so treated. The operations lege, as of the class of 1868. covered a period of about three weeks, beginning with the latter part of Ap.il and ending about the middle of May. Besides the celebrated " Bear Meadows, " known to every Centre- which members from all the classes countian, received some attention, from 1861 to 1910, will take part. their having been planted 2000 willow cuttings in the swamp as an the week will be the presence of noted the latter place they were the guests experiment in the reclamation of it.

This Reserve also contains some Chang Yin Tang, the Chinese minis-

COMMENCEMENT AT STATE.

The Centre

by the State Department by Forester | Survivors of Class of '61 Will be Present.

Great preparations are being made Hagen carpenter force. by the trustees, faculty and alumni of appreciated by the people of Centre the Pennsylvania State College for the county, but it is a fact nevertheless, observance of the fiftieth anniversary that the State Forest Reserve border- of the first graduating class, of which seven members survive. The record ty is one of the best in the state. It is a remarkable one, as there were but comprises about 23,000 acres and con- eleven members in the class of 1861. tains some of the best 'second-growth The seven survivors are A. C. Church, timber to be found anywhere. No Luzerne county ; M. S. Lytle, Philafires of any extent have occurred for delphia ; E. P. McCormick, German- Hall, on June 1st. eight or ten years and the possibilities town ; J. W. Eckman, Pulaski, Virof second-growth timber are here ad- ginia; C. A. Smith, Chicago, and C. mirably shown. Fire is the arch E. Troutman, who is now an inmate Company to rebuild the saw mill at

At that time agriculture was the only branch taught at the institution, The extreme south-western part but the graduates entered other proweek's exercises, which will begin Dr. L. R. Baker, of Rawlins College, guest. A bachelor degree will be conconferred upon Judge George B. Or-

It is the purpose of President Sparks and the board of trustees, of which Gen. James A. Beaver is president, to hold a general alumni reunion, in diplomats, chief among whom will be of their aunt Mrs. T. S. Stein.

areas of Scrub Oak which present a ter to the United States, and his difficult problem in forest manage- household. The envoy will spend the ment. The best known of these is week at State College, completing ar-" Bald Knob" lying south of Boals- rangements for the reception of a burg and reputed to be the highest number of Chinese students who will point in Centre county. The only enter State next fall. The Chinese way to determine how to treat such embassy will in a measure be transareas is to make experimental planta- ferred to State College during the week tions of different species under the and will be located in the building of "Bald Kuob," one of Honey Lo- J. B. Van Sciver company, of Cam-

Mrs. A. P. Zimmerman, of Penns Cave, has been ill.

LOCALS

Sidney Reish has been added to the Perry H. Breon is building the foundation for a stable on his lot in Centre Hall. Mrs. D. A. Boozer and son Shannon will visit Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Park, at Nelson.

A daughter was born to Mr. and gram : Mrs. Albert Meyer, west of Centre

The Hagen carpenters have been en- does not look to be as rich as our soil gaged by the McNitt-Huyett Lumber in Penns Valley. Waddles.

Miss Edith Boozer, youngest daughter of D. A. Boozer, will be home for her summer vacation from Mt. Airy cows, consisting of Short-horn, Holwithin a few days.

The Potter township auditors met the school board on Monday and audited their accounts. The meeting was held at the Old Fort hotel.

Mrs. B. H. Arney, accompanied her daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Arney, to Millheim, and for several days was the guest of the latter's parents.

Mrs. M. P. Kent, of Hop Bottom, they gave very fine concerts. Susquehanna county, returned to her home after a few weeks visit to her brothers and sisters in this vicinity. The members of the United Evan- it, a family of 205, and all taking part gelical church, at Spring Mills, will in the program on "Visitors' Day !" hold a festival on the lawn at their church, Saturday evening, 17th inst. Misses Mary Love Campbell, of Lin- concert ; drill by fourteen girls, which den Hall, and Sara Gilliland, of Oak Hall Station, returned on Thursday Boys' Military Drill.

from a very pleasant visit to Harris-One of the main attractions during burg, Letanon, and Annville. At ing room, as were also refreshments

Mrs. Dunkle, of Mt. Eagle, sister of mental plantations on the south slope has been entirely refurnished by the over the local branch to Gettysburg, Little Mother." Bo-Peep and Boy-

Visitors' Day at Institution June 1st-Brief

TRESSLER ORPHAN HOME.

Mrs. Nancy Jane Walizer, widow of Account by a Visitor. the late Andrew J. Walizer, of June 1st was visitors' day at Tress-Howard, died at the home of her son ler Orphan Home, at Loysville, an Charles in that place, on Monday of institution owned by the Lutheran last week, following a brief illness church. Among the visitors were Rev. with pleuro-oneumonia. She had

B. F. Bieber and John E. Rishel, both been in failing health for the past year of Centre Hall. The latter gives the or more. Deceased was a daughter of Reporter readers the following brief John and Sarah Wooden and was born account of the Home and the pro- at Blairsville, Indiana county, June 14, 1847, being aged sixty-three years,

The Home farm, which consists of eleven months and fifteen days. Her 125 acres, is of the red shale type, and marriage to Andrew Walizer took place on January 11, 1864, while he was home from the army on a fur-

The equipment of farm machinery lough. From the close of the war unused is about the same as is used here. til 1882 they resided at Cedar Springs They have at present seven head of and since that time she has been a horses, twenty-two head of milch resident of Howard. stein and Jerseys, and are in fine con-children : Samuel and Charles A., of dition ; quite a lew hogs of different Howard ; Eber J., of Houtzdale : ages, and poultry of different varieties. Mrs. I. K. James, of Ireland, West The new hospital and the new home Virginia; J. Emery, Jersey City for the superintendent add greatly to Mrs. Orlando Smith, Altoona, and the appearance of the buildings.

Mrs. D. M. Noll, of Turtle Creek. The band boys lately received new One brother, William Wooden, of uniforms; have had their instra-Berwick, slso survives. ments plated and are having a very The funeral took place two days afgood instructor. Throughout the day

The number of boys and girls in the Home at present is 205, and all are enjoying the best of health. Think of The program for the day was as follows: In the forenoon, the band was certainly erjoyed by all, and the Dinner was served in the large din-on the campus. Afternoon-Selection by the band, Hymn, "Love Divine, All Love Excelling." 121st Psalm, repeated by the been suffering from cataracts on both a Boy Can Do." Rainbow Drill by made his home with his daughter. eyes. The growth from one eye was the nursery children, seventeen in He was a German, and shortly after the Centre County Association of

The Pennsylvania Railroad Com- well. Song-" Busy Little Workers," located in Gregg township. Scrub Oak. There are two experi- formerly occupied by J. P. Welsh. It pany is planning to run an excursion by a chorus of girls. Recitation-"A Five children survive the deceased,

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS,

NO. 23.

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS.

The onion beds are smelling stronger than ever.

The pasture fields are looking their best these June days.

Clayton Wagner offers for sale a bull calf and hogs. Same are advertised in this issue.

The Maysains extended into June, the first few days of the month being decidedly showery.

The borough council publishes a notice cautioning all persons not to remove sod or earth from Hoffer street.

Six and one-tenth inches of rain fell during the month of May. In locali-Surviving her are the following ties nearby the fall was not nearly as great.

> A young horse belonging to George Heckman was stricken with szoturia, one day last week. The animal has since recovered.

Miss Annie Bible contemplates the erection of an addition to the dwelling house she purchased in the spring ter her death from the home of her and now occupies.

Mr and Mrs. Witmer Smith, of the services. Burial was made in the Bellefonte, were guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Maggie Smith, in Centre Hall, over Sunday.

The Regal auto owned by W. A. Henney, proprietor of the West End his daughter, Mrs. John Rachau, at livery, is for hire, and will always be Murray's school house in Brush Val- at the service of the public. Rates are reasonable.

Miss Freda Bailey left Centre Hall

Unclaimed letters in Centre Hall post office, June 1st, 1911 : Mrs. Ber-

The eighth annual basket picnic of removed, and the lady is now able to number, ranging in age from two to his marriage came to America with Philadelphia, will be held at Belmont eix years; each one filled its part the Armbruster brothers, and finally Mansion, Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, Saturday afternoon, 24th inst.

about the middle of July. It will be a Blue March, by a number of boys and Mille; Mrs. Mary Rachau, with Friday and continue for a week. His Excellency, Chang Tin Fang, min-R. C. Yoder sold twenty-six horses at the last horse sale held at Millheim John Stover, a brief mention of by him. The horses sold at an averwhose death was made last week, died age of $223.31, which indicates that taining former high prices. The Howard rolling mill, tool factory and the valuable water power which is a part of the plant, was rehood of $15,000. During a storm recently, an old chestnut tree on the Huyett farm. west of Centre Hall, was blown over, killing two sheep for P. H. Luse. A ground. The ewe was pretty badly hurt, but the lamb was as frisky as ever after it was released.

son, Rev. M. J. Snyder conducting Howard cemetery.

John Rote, aged seventy-six years and four months, died at the home of ley, Tuesday, May 23rd, and interment was made at the Union cemetery, Farmers Mills, the following on Saturday for New York City Friday, the officiating minister being where she will visit an uncle and aunt toe pastor of the deceased, Rev. Snook, and two brothers. She will be gone assisted by Rev. Bingaman, the latter several weeks.

of Madisonburg. Mr. Rote for many years lived in Mrs. Eliza Stump, of near Centre Hall, school. Song, "Try to Carry Sun- Gregg township, in the vicinity of tha Hanna, Rev. Samuel L. Boston, recently had an operation performed shine," by the school. Greeting Song Farmers Mills, but after the death of Rev. J. E. Boal, G. S. Boone, J. N. at the Wills Eye Hospital. She had by the school. Recitation-" What his wife, about nine years ago, he Seltzar, Forester.

separter,

DEATHS

cust and the other of White Pine. den, New Jersey, for the occasion. Next year, it is hoped to make ad. ditional plantations.

and the carrying out of some experimental work.

gaged in a work for the people and ing the entire week. therefore, desires the general public to know more about Pennsylvania's Forest Policy. The Forester for this Reserve is located at Boalsburg and policies of this department.

WALTER D. LUDWIG.

Forester. thool Board Re-organizes.

Monday evening and re-organized by cember.

Prof. C. R. Neff was re-elected prin- drink as a beverage. " cipal of the High School, and Ross The county superintendent has the Jersey, has also returned and is with from Newport arrived in the morn-Bushman and Miss Helen Bartholo- blank certificates. They can be got- her brother at the Manse. mew teachers of the intermediate and ten from him. primary grades.

Aaronsburg.

Israel Frank, of Loganton, visited at the home of Clayton Bower.

Mrs. (Rev.) A. J. Irey is visiting her brother, Dr. C. S. Musser. Mrs. B. H. Arney, of Centre Hall, was in town one day last week. Tammie spent the Sabbath with friends at Coburn.

aunt, Mrs. Coburn.

Niagara Falls, spent a few days _____ prevent the ravages of the worm, but relatives and friends here.

John Detwiler and family, of near Centre Hall, were guests of Warren Winkleblech one day last week.

Merchant James Lenker and family, Mrs. D. H. Lenker.

bed with a severe attack of rheuma- der of tism. Her many friends hope she will 0.jun.22. soon be able to be out again.

Rev. W. D. Donat and family, accompanied by Mrs. Miller, of Jonestown, were entertained by Mr. Evans, in Georges Valley, on Tuesday.

delightful trip.

Never has there been a time when so much interest was manifested in a Improvement work for the coming commencement season by the alumni summer include the building of a and fraternities as there is this year. road thru the Reserve, the improve- Great effort has been made to have a Teacher's Health Certificate.

Section 1320 of the School Code says No teachers certificate shall be will be glad to answer inquiries and to granted to any person who has not addition to the several one hundred explain to anyone interested in the submitted upon a blank furnished by dollar borough bonds redeemed in the diction. Belection by the band. the Superintendent of Public Instruc- spring and which appeared in the tion, a certificate from a physician le- borough statement. The council is three years old. The average cost of mains were brought to Millheim

The Centre Hall school board met tally nor physically disqualified by reasonable figure. reason of tuberculosis, or any other re-electing the old officers, namely, chronic or acute defect from successful John H. Puff, president; H. F. Bit. performance of the duties of a teacher; ner, secretary, and H. G. Stohmeier, nor to any person who has not a good her eyes has returned to Centre Hall treasurer. The board, under the school moral character, or who is in the hab- very much improved, and is with her code, will again be re-organized in De- it of using opium or other narcotic brother at the Presbyterian Manse. drugs in any form, or any intoxicating Miss Elizabeth M. Schuyler, who

Worm Damaging Corn.

This account of a new pest appeared in the Lewistown Democrat and Sentinel:

A new worm unknown to farmers is committing considerable bad work in the newly planted corn fields, through this section. The worm at-George M. Stover and daughter tacks the seed in the ground, eating out the heart of the kernel and then attacks the stalk, which quickly dies.

Mrs. Harvey Musser, of Akron, A number of farmers have been com-Ohio, is spending some time with her pelled to practically replant their entire fields. Some have soaked the Mrs. Miles Arney and children, of seed corn in poison, hoping thus to with no success.

Public Notice

tioning persons not to remove sod or of Lemont, returned to their home earth from any portion of Hoffer after having spent a few days with street, as no permission to remove such material will be given by the Mrs. Foster Bower is confined to her body controlling this street. By or-

The Pink Label.

The Pink Label appears this week.

Wilmer Stover and family took a paid in advance, just consider that the is survived by her parents and two trip in an auto to Sugar Valley to visit editor is pleased as much as you are, brothers, Ralph and Miles. The pall the spot where Mr. Wolfe was killed and if it indicates that your subscrip- bearers were Misses Mary and Florence Orphan Home, we would give as we in an auto accident. They came home tion is in arrears, call around to see us, Guisewite, Lida Hosterman and Mabei never gave before. One of the speak via Nittany and report having had a or send a dollar by mail. A dollar in Boob. Burial was made in Aaronea newspaper office works wonders. burg.

one day affair, and at the rate of about girle. Song-" Happy Childhood, a cent a mile, or something like $2.50 by the school. "The Little Sparsows," would no doubt be popular.

Just before one of the recent storms, Brief address by a minister of York, perience will not be repeated.

The borough council redeemed this Commonwealth, setting forth three mills in the tax millage, which that said applicant is neither men- will bring the millage' to quite a

> Mrs. T. W. Simpkins who in March went to Philadelphia to consult a specialist and receive treatment for spent the winter in Camden, New ### Woodward.

Mrs. Emma Nein, of Yeagertown, spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Glantz. Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, of Smullton, visited at the home of Dr. Ard on Sunday. Mrs. Wilson Ard and her two boys, of Aaronsburg, spent the greater part of last week at the home of Dr! Ard. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Corman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, all of Coburn, spent Sun ay at the home of L. L. Weaver.

Atter having spent a week with friends at Pennsylvania Furnace, State College and Linden Hall, Mrs. R. M. Wolfe, returned home on Monday.

Merchant Glantz, wife and children, Earl and Merril, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfe and baby spent the Sabbath at the home of 'dquire Musser. The funeral of George William Wolfe was largely attended on Wednesday. The services were held in the Evangelical church and the officiating minister was Rev. Caris.

The funeral of Helen Geraldine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover, took place Thursday. Bervices were conducted in the Evangeland every subscriber is invited to take ical church by Rev. Caris. She was from Centre Hall. Buch an excursion by nursery children. Pantomime-Yankee Doodle, by five boys.

Frank Wion, of near Bellefonte, had in behalf of the boys and girls of the ment of existing roads and fire trails large re, "esentation present from all finished the construction of an imple- Home, and also an urgent request for of the class. As a result of this ment shed, and after the storm had funds to add to the comfort of the at his home at Painterville of heart man's most faithful animal is mainunited effort a large number of State past away the implement house was Home. Recitation-"The Last Rose failure, aged sixty-seven years. Da-The Department of Forestry is en- men and women will be present dur- almost totally demolished. The of Summer." Recitation-"Shoppin' structure was again rebuilt, and Mr. With Sam." Selection by the band. on the morning of the day of his Wion is living in hopes that the ex- Song-"The Hunter's Life," by a death, and was pursuing his usual

"The Tea Pot," by five girls. Bene-gally qualified to practice medicine in contemplating a reduction of about maintaining the home each day is $65. Thursday afternoon, and funeral ser-It costs on an average about 35 cents a vices were held Friday morning at day to keep each child in the Home. nine o'clock. Interment in Fairview ewe and her lamb were pinned to the This includes care of the buildings, heat, light, food, clothing, salaries and all items of expense.

A visitor to an Orphan Home on touching incidents. I will only name a few of the many that were before my eyes during the short visit at Loys. Nuttall, May 18, 1911, tract of land in ville Home. When the special train Philipsburg. $1500. ing, those little boys and girls were er or mother, brother or sister, or some of the joy in that little heart, who had not seen his or her father or mother for months ! Words cannot express the joy there was there, and how those boys and girls would start for the Home with hands clasped with their loved ones, glad to take them to the Home and entertain them. Another touching scene was to witness a father, from one of our adjoining counties, that has two little girls in the home, meet them on his first visit. Think of the joy there was in store for them. Those little girls ! the first time they met papa after being taken away from their own home.

On the north side of the farm is a plot of ground set a part for the burial Potter twp. $3385. of the children who may be called from this world that have no friends to take care of them. The Home has erected at each mound a suitable marker.

Words of kindness and good will were in store for superintendent Charles A. Widle, who has an ever watching eye over his family, and who wins the love of every pupil in the Home. Would that every mema look at it. If it indicates that it is aged one year and seven months, and Charge could visit the Home and see day. The buildings are all in good formed and Presbyterian churches" day. The buildings are all in good formed and Presbyterian churches. Sect-whom he made his home ; Mre. Lewis Stover, Coburp ; Mrs. David Von- ister from China to the United States, ada, Farmers Mills; Harvey Rote, will speak on Wednesday. Penns Cave.

(Continued on foot of next column. )

ceased was apparently in good health chorus of girls. Recitation-" The avocations. About nine o'clock he en-Story of a Penny." Motion song by tered his house for a short rest and Howard, from the Murray estate. $500 water bond last week. This is in the nursery children. Operetta- fell over. His wife, hearing the fall, The price paid was in the neighborran into the room and found him dead. Deceased was a brother of Mrs.

The home as an Orphanage is forty- George Uirich, of Millheim. The recemetery.

Transfers of Real Estate.

David M. McMurray et al to of land in Gregg twp. $6900. J. B. Childs et ux to Katherine D.

A. M. Yearick et ux to E. W. Feltz, April 1, 1911, tract of land in Cement walks will be constructed there with eager eyes looking for fath- Haines twp. $80. H. C. Thompson et ux to J. S. Will-

Worth twp. $38 10.

Boggs twp. $1200.

Harry Kessling et ux to R. E. Shank, December 20, 1911, tract of land in Snow Shoe twp. $225.

George McKay et ux to Lydia A Meyer, May 5, 1911, tract of land in Aaronsburg. $1. J. C. Mattern to John Haugh, July 7, 1910, tract of land in Patton twp.

$100. George Lorrah to Julice Senclair, one on each side of papa, think of it, October 1, 1910, tract of land in Snow Shoe twp. $125.

Amelia Royer exrs. to James S.

William Rachau, trustee, to Minnie A. Generich, May 26, 1911, tract of land in Gregg twp. $750.

Centre Reporter $1 a year.

[ Continued from Previous Column, ] them ?"

It was estimated that three thous great credit to the church.

Very truly, JOHN E. RISHEL.

Miss Jennie Stahl is in Philadelphia Visitors' Day " experiences many Wallace N. Ilgen, March 4, 1911, tract visiting her cousin, Mrs. Isaiah Fleisher, and will remain for a week. She was accompanied as far as Harrisburg by Miss Florence Rhone, who for a few days visited her sister, Miss May Rhone, in that city.

along the fronts of the residences of former commissioner James B. Strohm, kind friend whom they knew. Think jams, May 3, 1911, tract of land in Daniel Daup and Mrs. W. A. Boal, and will make a continuous stretch of Sarah M. Yarnell et al to Jacob M. over two hundred feet. The work Heaton, April 9, 1910, tract of land in will be done by Messre. Mingle and Boozar.

> Messrs, W. D; and Oliver Strunk are baling hay for a number of farmers in this locality. It is rather late in the season for work of this kind, but the farmer does not care to leave $20.00 hay lie over until next year, especially when the prospects for crops are so good.

A Regal automobile was purchased recently by Wilbur Henney, proprietor of the West End Livery. The machine was brought from Sunbury Weaver, April 1, 1911, tract of land in on fast time, the auto running like a top for the entire distance. The car is a handsome one, and a duplicate of the Regal owned by former Merchant W. H. Meyer. Mr. Henney is learning to run the critter, and already is well acquainted with its habits.

Rev. Dr. A. M. Schmidt, pastor at Bellefonte, returned from Canton, ers said on visitors day, " Children in Ohio, where he had been attending our care, how are we going to care for- the General Synod of the Reformed church. Dr. Schmidt was elected one of the delegates to represent the Recondition, and everything about the which convenes at Aberdeen, Scothome looks tidy. The institution is a land, June, 1913. He was also made a member of a committee to prepare a new hymnal for the Reformed church in the United States.

Public notice is hereby given cau-

THE COUNCIL.

