DEATHS

Monday afternoon of last week William Poorman, a carpenter by trade, died at his home in Bellefonte, of heart failure. He had been engaged in shingling a roof during the day, and about four o'clock complained of feeling faint. A few minutes after entering the house he expired. Deceased leaves to survive his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Etta Huffman, at home, and Mrs. Fannie Goxoble, of Kansas. Two brothers and three sisters also survive, namely, Fleming, of Yarnell; Daniel, of Runville; Mrs. Jane Lucas, of Runville; Mrs. Alice Fetzer, of Yarnell, and Mrs. Minnie Williams, of Williamsport.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday morning by Rev. J. F. Hower, pastor of the United Evangelical church, of which the deceased was a member. Interment was made in the Advent cemetery at Milesburg.

Mrs. Catherine Swartz, widow of the late Henry E. Swartz, died Sunday evening of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Kupes at Beech Creek, aged seventy-nine years, five months and seventeen days. Her maiden name was Catherine Confer and was born near Howard. When quite young her father died and she went to live with the family of Rev. Nathan J. Mitchell, a pioneer Disciple preacher in that section of the state. When seventeen years of age she joined the Disciple church and since that time lived a sincere christian life. She was a lady widely known in the vicinity of Howard, Esleville and Beech Creek. Her husband was a soldier of the civil war, and died in 1888. The funeral took place the following Wednesday morning.

H. A. Meyer, a well known citizen of Booneville, died at his home in that place Sunday afternoon of last week from stomach trouble, aged about sixty-one years. Mr. Meyer was a farmer by occupation and prominent throughout Sugar Valley. He was a director in the National Bank at Loganton. Deceased is survived by the following children, his wife having preceded him to the grave two years ago: George, Harry, Reuben, Sarah, and Mary, all at home. Three brothers and two sisters also survive. Funeral services were conducted in the Reformed church at Greenburr Thursday morning and interment was made in the Greenburr cemetery.

Yesterday (Wednesday) was Flag Day.

LOCALS

Seven of the first ten days in June were rainy days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Duck attended the commencement exercises of Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove. Their grandson, W. N. Duck, was a member of the graduating class.

Ammon Burkholder came from Phillipsburg, New Jersey, on Saturday and for a few days was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Strohm, in Centre Hall, where Mrs. Burkholder is staying.

Saturday and Sunday evenings severe electrical storms passed over Penns Valley. Two showers came in close succession on both days, and on Sunday night a gentle rain of several hours duration followed the showers. Messrs. W. O. Gramley and J. A. Wagner, of Spring Mills, were callers at the Reporter office last week in the interest of the I. O. O. F. celebration on the next anniversary of the nation's independence. The gentlemen are both rural mail carriers, and the patrons of Uncle Sam's very important branch of business along routes one and two from Spring Mills are fortunate to have such genteel and obliging carriers to deal with.

In this issue will be found an advertisement for machinery sold by J. H. and S. E. Weber, Centre Hall and Oak Hall station. They have on hand, in their several warehouses owned or leased by them, such a large assortment of machinery and tools, that it will be of interest to the average farmer to go to them on a tour of inspection. There is some advantage of seeing and handling a tool or implement you may wish to buy. The Webers buy most of their implements in car load lots, which saves freights and also gives them advantages in prices with the manufacturer. This saving of freight charges and advantages in price on account of purchasing in large quantities, is divided with the customer. If you are in need of anything in the way of tools or implements on the farms, see Webers before making your purchase.
