Day, of Tyrone, will preach on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, also on Saturday at 2 p. m. Please note the change of the latter hour, 2 instead of 2:30. All are cordially invited to all of the services. The usual service at Spring Mills, Sunday, 2:30 p. m.

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs to Decorate.

The local order of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will meet in the Grange Hall Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. They will then go to Tusseyville where they will decorate the graves of deceased members of both orders. At 3:15 o'clock graves will be decorated at Sprucetown, and at 5 o'clock at Centre Hall. Rev. Stuart Engler, of Pleasant Gap, will deliver the address at each place. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

LOCALS

Fine weather this week; no rain since Saturday afternoon.

Miss Jennie Thomas is sewing for Miss Annie Weaver, near Spring Mills. There will be services in the Reformed church on Sunday evening see appointments.

Michael Spicher, of Pleasant Gap, was in town on Wednesday, having been up to the old Spicher homestead which his son now owns.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer, of Centre Hall, and John D. Meyer, of Altoona, were guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meyer in Reedsville.

The telephones on the Colyer No. 2 rural line will be installed within the next ten days. This line begins at Fishers Gap and extends to the Centre Hall exchange.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company is advertising Atlantic City excursions. This is one of the cheapest and most delightful trips offered, and especially so because of the stop over privilege in Philadelphia.

At a recent meeting of the Centre Hall school board the tax rate was fixed at eight mills, six for school and two for building purposes. John A. Wetzel, who last year taught at Pottery Mills, was tendered the position as teacher in the third grade.

R. U. Bitner, of Avis, accompanied by his brother, Joseph K. Bitner, of Farmers Mills, were in Centre Hall last week. The former Mr. Bitner is employed at the Avis shops in the repair department, but the retrenchment policy put him out of work for the time being.

The news of the death of Miss Estie M. Ocker, of Lewisburg, on Saturday morning, was a shock to her friends and acquaintances in this locality. It was known to some that she was ailing in health, but no one suspected her condition to be serious. An account of her death appears in this issue.

Among the Reporter's callers on Monday morning were Station Agent W. F. Bradford, of Centre Hall, Jacob C. Lee, who holds a similar position at Spring Mills; Rev. J. Max Lantz and T. M. Gramley, also of Spring Mills, and W. F. Hopkinson, of Williamsport, the latter the official photographer for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. In another column will be found reference to several photographs of alfalfa plants taken by Mr. Hopkinson.

H. W. Dinges, Mrs. John C. Rossmann, Mrs. W. F. Keller, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Hosterman, Edward Durst, of Centre Hall; Miss Carrie Gentzel, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gramley, of Spring Mills; Miss Mabel Ziegler, of Millheim, Clark Gramley and sons, Prof. and Mrs. C. L. Gramley and the former's mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Haines, Mrs. John Harter, and Jackson Ocker, of Rebersburg; Mrs. Mary Dinges, Centre Hall, attended the funeral of Miss Estie Ocker, at Lewisburg, on Tuesday.

Centre Hall is a busy town these days. The loofer is a loofer by choice. More mechanics have been employed here since the opening of spring than for some years. The Hagens, Thomas, Lucas, Fidler, all of whom employ several men, have been in town during the entire season; and Shigal, the plaster, Garls, the mason, have also been on the spot all the time. Auman, Noll, Detrichs and several others employing painters have been here for long periods. Mingle and Boczer, with their assistants Elmer Runkle and Frank Reish, put down more concrete walks this season than during any previous year. And all this will make Centre Hall prettier than ever.

Camping in Seven Mountains.

A crowd of young people from Milroy, Burnham and Greensburg enjoyed a week's camping at the old Kohler farm, one mile east of Pottery Mills. The camp is also known as "Idlewild." Mrs. W. H. Kohler and "Pink" Bunnell, of Milroy, were the chaperons, and Mrs. Johnson the "French" cook. The party was composed of the following: Sara and Mary Kohler, Ruth and Admiral Mertz, Virginia Taylor, Doras Cottle, Nancy Sheffer, Sydonia Smith, Grace McNitt, Mary Randolph, Izetta Johnson, William Thompson and U. Bunnell.

The visitors for the week at the camp were four boys' scouts from Milroy—Clarence Phillips, Charles Reed, Robert Horner and Clayton Miller; Dr. Kohler, A. L. Sheffer, Mrs. A. S. Harshberger, Mrs. Eugene Heverley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. J. H. Sterrett, Mrs. A. L. Sheffer, Mrs. S. R. Patterson.

Camp broke on Saturday afternoon. Much of the pleasure of the campers was due to the hospitality of "Uncle" Oscar Slover.

Cherries are plentiful; about ten bushels were picked from an ordinary sized tree at the N. W. Meyer home. They are of an extra quality for preserving.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fortney, C. D. Moore and Miss Elizabeth Bloom attended the funeral of Mrs. David Dennis at Pine Grove Mills, on Saturday afternoon.

Joseph Hettinger, one of our veterans, who has a ecay home near the foot of Tussy Mountain, killed a rattlesnake, near his porch on Sunday, which had twelve rattles.

Mrs. Laura Place with her children Edgar and Dorothy, of Marshall, Missouri, joined the family group at the home of Mrs. M. A. Woods where they are having a happy time.

Mrs. Andrew Lytle and daughter Miss Mary, of near State College, spent Sunday at Boalsburg. They were among the large number who were present at the missionary service in the Reformed church. The sermon by Dr. C. E. Schaffar was highly appreciated by all the hearers.

Georges Valley.

C. W. Lingle and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Lingle. Mr. and Mrs. James Foust spent Sunday at the home of their son, E. D. Foust.

J. B. Ripka and family visited at the home of Emmanuel Confer on Sunday evening.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of W. O. Ripka were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lingle and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lingle, of Sober.

D. E. Rearick is having an addition built to his already large barn. On Monday the building was raised. A large crowd congregated to help with the raising and everybody was especially busy at the noon hour.

Monday morning the house of J. C. Barger was discovered to be on fire. The screams of Mrs. Barger brought the neighbors to her aid and through their brave efforts the fire was soon under control without great loss.

If the Democratic party was to nominate a candidate for president today, Governor Woodrow Wilson, the New Jersey man, would be named without opposition.

THE WELD THAT HELD
and why

THESE ARE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD USE THE ONLY ELECTRICALLY WELDED FENCE MADE.

"Pittsburgh Perfect" Fence

FOR FIELD, FARM, RANCH, LAWN AND POULTRY PURPOSES

Scientifically constructed and unlike any other: no wraps, clamps, ties or twists. All wires electrically welded makes our fence as strong at the joint as at any other point, which adds years of life to the fence and it makes it superior to any other. Stay same gauge as intermediate line wires, the point that counts for lasting strength and service.

Made of OPEN HEARTH WIRE, near like old time iron wire, conceded far superior to Bessemer Steel, and galvanized by our own improved process.
