The interior of the residence of H. G. Strohmeier, the granite dealer, has been extensively remodeled. An open stairway has been built and other changes for convenience and appearance made. The remodeling necessitated repainting, which was also done.

Improvements on East Church street are continuing, the last to begin to improve his property being J. H. Lambert, who will build an addition to his house and also erect a large porch. When completed the dwelling house will be materially enlarged and decidedly improved in general appearance.

Rev. S. A. Snyder announces a special sermon to the boys and girls, on Sunday evening. If the weather is fair, the services will be held on the lawn in front of the church. Music will be furnished by the boys and girls. Chairs will be arranged for the accommodation of all. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The New Idea manure spreader is an ideal implement. Two horses can handle it. It spreads evenly; runs light; always ready for business. The machine is just heavy enough to do the work. It is the lightest manure spreader made, but because of its proper construction it stands up to the work better than those overburdened with weight—J. H. and S. E. Weber, Centre Hall and Oak Hill Station.

J. G. Heberling, of Pine Grove Mills, a soldier of the civil war, answered the last roll call on the 2nd instance, after a long illness of heart trouble. He was past seventy-two years of age, and is survived by a widow and one daughter, Estella, and two sons, J. B. and Prof. M. E. Heberling, also four brothers and three sisters. He was a charter member of No. 278 I. O. O. F., also of Post No. 272. He served over four years in the war and for a time was a prisoner in the Lutheran church and served for eleven years as postmaster at Pine Grove Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, of New York City, were the welcome guests of their mother, Mrs. Mayes. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce left for their home in their automobile on Tuesday.

The Sabbath.

The people of nearly all nations have a special regard for one day in each week. Christians observe Sunday; the Greeks, Monday; the Persians, Tuesday; the Assyrians, Wednesday; the Egyptians, Thursday; the Turks, Friday; and the Jews, Saturday. Thus every day in the week is a Sabbath in some country, and it would be well for all to remember that "it is right to do good on the Sabbath-day."

The Fourth.

Penns Valley celebrated the Fourth at Spring Mills, and had a joyful time. The occasion was an anniversary celebration of the local order of Odd Fellows, and a festival in the evening by the Rebekahs. Addresses were made by Capt. H. S. Taylor and Dr. S. E. Gobble. The gathering was a success in every way, and demonstrates that Spring Mills can do things.

struck by lightning.

The Lutheran church spire at Madisonburg was struck by lightning during a thunder storm on July 4th. The spire was damaged to some extent, but the main edifice was not injured. About ten years ago the spire was struck by lightning and about the same amount of damages was done at that time.
