S. W. SMITH, . . . Editor and Proprietor.

LOCALS.

A child was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Musser at Penns Cave.

Mrs. C. A. Weaver, of Baileyville, is at the home of her mother in Centre Hall.

Andrew Knarr, while working in the woods in Sugar Valley, was badly injured by being struck by a falling tree.

The corn through Penns Valley is in fine condition. The prospects for a good crop resulted from the rain on Sunday night and the two rains during the week previous.

Early Tuesday morning Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dinges and children, Ralph and Mary started for Unionville, making the trip in a carriage. At the place named they visited Mrs. Lizzie Hogan, an aunt of Mrs. Dinges.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm D. Fleming and son, and Mrs. Fleming's mother, of Wheeling, West Virginia, are expected in Centre Hall the latter part of this week. Earl Fleming, of New York, will also be here at the same time.

Miss Minnie Kline will conduct services in Moyer's grove, near Colyer, on Saturday and Sunday evenings, and Sunday morning in the church at Tusseyville. Attention is called to the fact that there will be no service during the day in the Moyer grove.

A booklet telling of the holding and operations of the Monon Coal Company, with its main office in Chicago, was sent to the Reporter by W. E. Spangler, one of the auditors of the company. The concern named does an extensive business, and owns nine mines in Green, Sullivan, Clay and Vigo counties.

Although he became grandfather quite recently, Prof. D. O. Eiters does not feel a bit too old to finish the term of county superintendent of schools to which he was reelected in May. The one that first has the opportunity to "goo, goo" as his grandchild is Katharine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Eiters, of Wilmington, Delaware.

Mrs. Eliza Stump, east of Centre Hall, a soldier's widow, is remodeling her dwelling house, the mechanical work being done by John Luse and crew. Philip A. Leaster, farmer west of town, is also making extensive improvements to his farm buildings, in the way of building sheds and remodeling a portion of the house. Mr. Leister lives on the Alexander farm, purchased by him last winter.

The land-owner feels that there is more profit in tilling the soil now than there was some years ago when landlords were bribing sturdy farmers to sign leases, whereas now the farmer is seeking the landlord and imploring him to lease to him his acres. This will be attested to by Isahn Fiedler, of Philadelphia, who owns a productive farm near Tusseyville, and on account of the death of his tenant, Truman Klinefeiler, is having the experience referred to. Mr. Fiedler was in Centre Hall last week, having come here largely on account of his interest in Potter township real estate.

At the last commencement of the Lock Haven State Normal School a large class graduated and it is interesting to note that the graduates of this high grade Normal school have no difficulty in securing positions as teachers. Several young men were elected to positions as teachers with salaries ranging from eighty to ninety dollars a month. Thirty-two of the graduating class had experience as teachers and they now have lucrative positions for next year. Many improvements are being made during the summer so that when the school opens on September 11th, everything will be in first class shape for the large school that is sure to enroll.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Meyer, and their son Nevin Meyer and wife, all of Boalsburg, on Saturday went to Millheim to attend the reunion of the Reformed charges of that section, held in Frank's Grove. Afterward they visited among a number of friends among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hamley, Mr. and Mrs. James Wert, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bariges and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilman. One thing that pleased them very much was the fine stock kept by the farmers in that section, and especially by Mr. Stover and Mr. Bariges. The latter keeps a herd of nine cows, and as many as forty pounds of butter are churned at one time, the power to do the work being furnished by a gasoline engine, which also turns the separator, washing machine, chop mill, etc.

LOCALS.

Dr. H. F. Bitner is having his residence painted.

Samuel J. Wagner and son Cyrus D., of Boalsburg, were in Centre Hall on Monday, and called on the Reporter.

Sunday night there was a rainfall of just one-half inch. Monday night high winds prevailed, switching much fruit from the trees. Apples, pears, plums and peaches suffered.

The first load of alfalfa ever taken to Ebensburg, Cambria county, was sold in that town last Monday for $30 a ton. It was raised on the farm of Louis E. Kaylor, editor of the Cambria Tribune. That beats the Reporter's efforts as to price on alfalfa.

Col. W. Fred Reynolds, of Bellefonte, has purchased a fine new Flanders runabout for his son, Frederick, who has developed into an enthusiastic autoist and will have the opportunity to drive his own car hereafter. Irvin J. Dreese, of Lemont, has also invested in a Flanders.

A team of mules hitched to a wagon loaded with grain ran away at Madisonburg recently. One of the mules was being ridden by a young son of William Rishel and when the wagon came in contact with a telephone pole, both animal and boy were thrown to the ground, the lad thereby sustaining a broken leg.

The Lewisburg Chronicle is doing good campaign work for Judge McClure, and is doing it gratis. To oppose Judge McClure because it will put him in line to retire on half-pay, should he be re-elected often enough, and live to be seventy, is most foolish. Better judge him by his decision in the bridge case.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith, during the past few days, have been at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Maggie Smith, in Centre Hall. The couple were married in June but most of the time since then has been spent in the south, where Mr. Smith was employed with an electrical company, making this their first visit to Penns Valley.

All the young men along the line between Penns Cave and Lemont gave State College credit for being the home of the large number of the pretty young ladies who have been traveling from the latter place to the former to view the beauties of the cavern, but now it turns out that these young ladies are school teachers attending the summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Keefer and son Harold, of Sunbury, are at the Centre Hall hotel. Mr. Keefer is the senior member of the firm of S. H. Snyder & Co., general merchants, in Sunbury. Tied down to business during practically all of the years, except the short vacation in July, Mr. Keefer, as well as the family, enjoy that time here to its fullest extent.

Misses Eliza Moore and Jennie Bottorf were callers at the Reporter office on Saturday evening. The former states that barring the heat, Mrs. Sarah J. Kerlin was having such a delightful visit with her son Edwin and daughter Miss Nellie, at Haverhill, Massachusetts, that she has not indicated a time for returning although she has been away for six or more weeks.

George W. Condo and family, of Jeannette, came to Centre Hall to spend some time with the "folks at home." Mr. Condo has been engaged in the butchering business ever since leaving Centre Hall. He is a skilled workman in that line, and has been successful otherwise. He was in business for himself, but some months ago sold out, and is now employed with Frank Hiloerer.

Charles E. Allison, son of Hon. W. M. Allison, of Spring Mills, came to Centre Hall from New York, last week, where he was met by his brother Franklin, and after a brief stay with their aunt, Mrs. Lillie Alexander, they went to Spring Mills. Mr. Allison is general manager for the Shipley Construction and Supply Company, who handle the product of the York Refrigerator Company.

Miss Minnie Cooper, of Freeport, Illinois, is a guest of her cousin Miss Gertrude Spangler. Miss Cooper is the daughter of B. G. Cooper, ex-Treasurer of Stephenson county, and served four years as his deputy. On her way east she visited Niagara Falls, Albany, New York, Atlantic City, Philadelphia and Washington. Miss S. S. Harri is also a guest at the Spangler home. Miss Harris is one of the office force of "The Sword of the Spirit," published in Philadelphia, and was a former resident of Shawville, Canada.

The new catalog of the Lock Haven State Normal School is one of the handsomest issued by any secondary school in this state. It contains a great deal of valuable information concerning this splendid Normal School. We note that its faculty is made up of graduates of our leading colleges and universities and has a specially trained expert at the head of its fine Training School and this means much for prospective teachers. It has a fine Gymnasium and Athletic Field, and the school aims to develop its students not only educationally, but morally and physically. Write for a catalog.
