While at work in a logging camp in the northern part of the state, Clark Logan, formerly of Ferguson township, was killed by a tree falling on him.

A fine residence is that of Thomas Jodon, at Pleasant Gap. The building has just been completed, the work being done by Kerstetter Brothers, of the same place, at a cost of $5000.

Misses Katharine and Rhea Keller, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Keller, of Ingram, came to Centre Hall on Monday, and for a short time will remain here with relatives and friends.

July did not have all the hot weather during this summer. August is doing its best to keep up its reputation, and Thursday of last week mercury was pumped up to ninety-three.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Woodling, of Louisville, Kentucky, and his sister, Mrs. Harvey W. Burd, of Philadelphia are at present visiting their mother, Mrs. Jonathan Spangler, at Rebersburg.

The autoist who speeds through Centre Hall is reminded of his breaking the laws when he passes over the crossings on Main street. The penalty inflicted is a wrench of the back and a reintroduction to the upholstery of the auto seat.

The will of the late H. Y. Stitzer was probated last week. His entire estate is left to his wife until her death, when it will revert to Mrs. H. A. McKee, of Wilkingsburg, an adopted daughter. The estate is estimated at from $25,000 to $30,000.

This item appeared in the Mifflinburg telegraph: Miss Carrie Bartges, of Centre Hall, and Miss Anns Reasick, of Spring Mills, two attractive young ladies, spent Saturday and Sunday pleasantly with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David W. Igen, on Walnut street.

William Love and family, of Wilkingsburg, came to Linden Hall to spend some time with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Campbell. While there they received word from home that the former's sister, Miss Mary May Love, was seriously ill and had to be taken to a hospital, so they hurried home.

Six dollars and more for timothy seed and twenty dollars for timothy hay has a tendency to make timothy the idol of the farmer. It is a profitable crop just now, but a mighty poor one to build up your farm with. Timothy is not built right for a soil improver, and it is a veritable robber of soil fertility when maturing a crop of seed.

Candidates for county offices are planning to attend the Grange Encampment and Fair. Many of them will have quarters on the ground and live there for the week with their families. It will be a fine place to see and talk to the voters, as every one will be at leisure and will not count button-holing on politics being bored, as they sometimes do when halted in the field, in the shops, in the offices, etc. Every one will be willing to listen to the claim of the candidate during the Encampment and Fair.

The Maryland Lumber Company, at Demmar, Pocahontas county, West Virginia, is a proposition in which Hagerstown (Maryland), Mifflin county and Centre Hall people are the owners, the McNitt-Huyett Lumber Company holding a fifth interest. The mill is equipped with two double band saws, and has a capacity of one hundred thousand feet per day, yet it will require ten years to cut out the timber. Four men with a power loader are able to deliver enough logs each day to keep the mill busy. D. S. McNitt, of Lewistown, is a director in the company.

The successful operation of the electric storage battery car on the railroad between Montandon, Lewisburg and Mifflinburg has displaced the regular runs made by the passenger trains and crews. The evening train from Montandon to Mifflinburg which left Lewisburg at 5:40 was annulled on the first Saturday of this month. The train left Montandon for Mifflinburg and then returned to Montandon, finishing its run to Lewisburg about 7 p. m. The train now completes its run to Montandon from Bellefonte and then returns to Lewisburg with the day's work finished.

The Lock Haven State Normal School has graduated 2300 students. A large percent of them have followed the profession of teaching but some are in business and otherwise engaged. Wherever they have gone, they have carried with them the high ideals and progressive aims of this great home school. Parents can feel absolutely safe concerning their children when they become Lock Haven students. The sympathetic discipline about the institution is inspiring and helpful to students. This is one of the reasons why careful parents are selecting this school. It has a modern equipment, fine faculty, and the location is healthful and attractive. Write for its illustrated catalog.

POOR CROP RECORD.

General Crop Failure Throughout Pennsylvania Due to Drought of Spring and Early Summer.

Pennsylvania will establish the record of having a general crop failure in all lines for the year 1911, according to reports which reach the state department of agriculture. This does not, however mean a complete failure, though most of the crops are not better than fifty per. cent of normal.

Corn will be about the best crop of all that the Keystone state raises, and its yield will be but sixty per. cent of normal. Even at that, it is not advisable to brag too heavily of the quality. The wheat crop was poor and the oats and rye and other grains are all far below par. Alfalfa yields have been good, but alfalfa growing in Pennsylvania is new, and the state has no standard of comparison. Unfavorable conditions prevented this crop from being what it should be, at that. The yields of hay have been only fair.

Apples will be harvested in fair quantity and quality. Peaches will be only about one-third quantity and the quality, except from orchards that specialize on fancy grades, will not be exceptional. Other fruits are in the same class.

Generally unfavorable weather conditions are responsible for such a pessimistic summary. Late frosts did not occur to nip the fruit blossoms last spring but one or two chilly nights came that may have blighted the tender peach blossoms without actually frost biting them.

The rainless weeks of the spring and early summer got in their work, however, and when the rains finally began to fall copiously a few weeks ago the relief came too late to do much good in many quarters. Moreover, when the rains did come they came with such a vengeance in many localities that some crops were washed out.

The Williams Reunion.

The Williams reunion event of upper Bald Eagle Valley will be held in John Q. Miles grove, near Marthas, on Saturday. It will be bigger and better than ever. All trains, except the fast train east in the afternoon, will stop at the grounds. The Port Matilda Band will be in attendance, a "merry-ground" for the children, two games of ball and other athletic events. Col. H. S. Taylor, of Bellefonte, and Rev. Gordon A. Williams will address the assembly and their reputation as entertainers is sufficient for that part of the program.

While this is the "Williams Reunion" a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this annual outing.

Woodward.

Miss Maude Weaver spent last week with relatives in Coburn.

L. L. Weaver and family were Coburn visitors on Sunday.

Miss Minnie Rhinehart spent the greater part of two weeks with her brother in Harlan, Iowa.

Miss Bertha Hosterman is spending her vacation in Philadelphia, Atlantic City and New York City.

Robert Barner, Earl Motz and Ray Orndorf attended the festival at Paradise on Saturday evening.

Miss Anna VonNeida, of Hartleton, was a visitor at the home of Abraham Treasurer for a few days last week.

After having spent two weeks in town Lawrence Miller returned to Buffalo, New York, where he is employed in Hosterman's Bakery.

Mrs. J. F. Motz and children, of Pittsburgh, and her mother, Mrs. Brubaker, of Mifflinburg, spent a week at the Woodward House.

James VonNeida, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Besie, and Miss Mabel Wolfe spent the Sabbath at the home of Charles Wolfe at Aaronsburg.

Spring Mills

D. A. Dietrich, of Hubersburg, democratic candidate for Recorder, spent Thursday in this place.

Mrs. John Myers and Mrs. S. L. Condo last week returned from a week's trip to Bellwood.

A. S. Dornblaser, of Hagerstown, Maryland, spent a few days in town last week tuning pianos.

Farmers report the potato crop a failure. From present indications tubers will sell at fancy prices.

Quite a number of people from town took advantage of the excursion to Gettysburg on Sunday and report having had a delightful trip.

A camping party composed of Rev. J. Max Lantz and family, C. E. Zaigler and family, of this place, W. L. Campbell and family, of Coburn, and William Baker, of York, are at present enjoying a ten days' outing at "Camp Emmanon," ten miles down the L. & T. Railroad, along the banks of Penns Creek.
