POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

RECORDER.

We are authorized to announce that W. Francis Spear, of Bellefonte, is a candidate for the nomination for Recorder by the Democratic party; subject to the primaries on September 30th.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY

We are authorized to announce that S. Kline Woodring, of Bellefonte, will be a candidate for District Attorney, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters of the county at the primaries to be held September 30th.

Stuart-Read.

George J. Stuart and Miss Mary Grace Read were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Carlton Read, at Huntingdon, at 3.30 o'clock, August 16th. The guests numbered between thirty-five and forty persons, among whom were Mrs. Emma Stuart, mother of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. William Stuart, of Boalsburg, David Stuart and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Stuart, of Bellevue. Rev. James Johnston, of Catawissa, an uncle of the bride, was the officiating minister. (Rev. Johnston's boyhood days were spent in Boalsburg). The decorations were in pink and white colors. The bride carried a bouquet of pink roses.

After enjoying a trip to Detroit and the Great Lakes, they returned to Boalsburg by way of Niagara Falls and Buffalo. A reception will be given them this (Thursday) evening at the Stuart home.

Mr. Stuart was formerly from Boalsburg. In 1900 he graduated from the State College mechanical engineering department. He is now chief engineer of the Pittsburgh Valve Foundry and Construction Company. After October 1st Mr. and Mrs. Stuart will be at home at 184 Sprague Ave., Bellevue. May they have a long, prosperous and happy life.

LOCALS.

Mercury was so thoroughly chilled for a few nights this week that it shrank to forty-five.

Dr. J. V. Foster today (Thursday) is in Millinburg, having gone there to attend the funeral of his cousin, Dr. J. C. Steans.

Misses Anna and Maude Rockey, of Zion, were guests of Misses Ruth and Mamie Brooks, daughters of William Brooks, west of Centre Hall.

The Centre Hall evaporating plant opens today (Thursday.) Apples of all kinds are wanted there. The operators will buy cider, evaporating and hand-picked apples.

Wilbur Runkle, of Tusseyville, was a caller on Wednesday. He will begin the profession of teaching school next September at the Cross Lane school in Potter township.

Andrew Gregg, who is connected with the Bell Telephone Company, at Soranton, was in Centre Hall beginning of this week, and also spent a little time at Linden Hall and Boalsburg.

A boy named Crotzer, aged about thirteen years, on Tuesday, fell from a shade tree at the bank building, on which he had climbed, and broke his arm. His parents just moved to town, and are living near the reservoir.

The Orangeville (Illinois) Courier makes note of the fact that Elias Heckman, of that place, who is a brother of former Commissioner Daniel Heckman, of Bellefonte, suffered a paralytic stroke, but that his condition has since much improved.

Among the callers at this office was W. C. Farner, of near Colyer. Some time ago his brother, John T. Farner and wife, of Hydetsown, were his guests, after an absence from the old home surroundings for a period of nineteen years, so long, indeed, that the brothers did not recognize each other. With a view of keeping the Crawford county man in closer touch with the happenings about his home, Mr. Farner subscribed for the Reporter and is having it mailed to him. The Reporter will visit him fifty times each year, and fifty times in the year will the old home news be carried to one interested in it.

The Longs, sons of John D. Long, of Spring Mills, had a reunion at the Long home. On Wednesday of last week Frank A. Long and family, of Cambridge, Ohio, and G. Harry Long and family, of Newark, Ohio, made the trip to Centre county in the former's touring car. At Uniontown, this state, they stopped with their brother, Philip Long, who with his family joined the party in his car across the mountains, the two cars arriving here at the time mentioned. The Longs are all merchants, and, by the way, are making things come their way. They will return to their homes Saturday or Sunday.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Mary E. Bloom, wife of A. G. Bloom, died at her residence, on High street, Lock Haven, Sunday, after an illness of ten days, from kidney trouble. She united with the Penn's Creek Lutheran church in 1868, but later became a member of the Reformed church. She was a christian woman in every sense of the word, always ready to do her full share in church or charitable work. She was a model wife, a loving mother and a kind neighbor, one that will be missed in the neighborhood. She was an active member of the Patrons of Husbandry for thirty-six years. She was also the oldest member of the Rebskah lodge in her home city. Mrs. Bloom is survived by her husband and two children, A. Irvin Bloom, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Thomas P. Bressler, of Flemington; two sisters and six brothers also survive, as follows: Mrs. Sarah Beaty, Mrs. Adaline Musser, Daniel F. Runkle, of Spring Mills; James Runkle, of Centre Hall; Peter I. Runkle, of Woodward; John W., of Middleburg; L. Calvin, of Williamsport and Robert D., of Shamokin. Funeral services were held at the St. Luke's Reformed church, Wednesday at 2.30 p. m. conducted by Rev. W. E. Harr.

Mrs. Caroline Garthoff died at the home of her son, John F. Garthoff, in Bellefonte, on Monday morning. Her age was eighty-two years and seven months. Interment will be made at Zion, this (Thursday) morning, Rev. F. W. Barry officiating.

Mrs. Garthoff was the widow of John H. Garthoff, who died at Bannerville, in 1865. She was left with five children, and shortly after the death of her husband she located near Zion where she reared her family. After the marriage of her son referred to above, she made her home with him at Coburn and later in Bellefonte.

The deceased's maiden name was Caroline Robenold, and was born in Northampton county. The greater part of her youth was spent in Union county.

The following children survive: Joseph S. Jessup, Iowa; James D., Lock Haven; Catharine A. and John F., Bellefonte. One sister, Christiana, wife of Daniel Royer, of Valley Falls, Kansas, also survives.

Dr. J. Charlton Steans, one of Union county's most prominent physicians, died at Clifton Springs, Monday. Interment will be made today (Thursday.) The funeral will be held from his home in Millinburg. His age was almost fifty-nine years.

Dr. Steans was a graduate of Jefferson Medical College, and began to practice at Cowan, but since 1877 he has been located at Millinburg. Mrs. Steans, nee Elsie C. Foster, survives, as do also four children.

Wendell Wald, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wald Herman, of Lemont, peacefully passed away, August 8th, after an illness of only a few days. He was aged two years, four months and nine days, and had not only won the affection of his parents, but also of those who knew him. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of the parents by Rev. S. C. Stover, assisted by Rev. Harnish of the Presbyterian church. Interment was made at Boalsburg.

Mrs. Susan Rote died at her home in Aaronsburg on Monday morning. Interment will be made at that place this (Thursday) forenoon, Rev. W. Donat, her pastor, to officiate.

Mrs. Rote was the daughter of Thomas Cronmiller, and she and Daniel H. Rote, who died some years ago, were married in 1869. An adopted daughter survives, as does also one brother, Noah Cronmiller, of Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Jennie Pierpont, niece of the late ex-Governor A. G. Curtin, and who was born and reared in Bellefonte, died in a sanitarium near Philadelphia, Wednesday, 9th inst. Three children survive, namely, Thomas, William and Reynolds. Interment was made in Bellefonte.

Linden Hall.

Misses Anna and Maud Rockey spent a few days last week at the home of Miss Ruth Brooks.

J. L. Tressler who fell in the barn while threshing and hurt his back is able to be about again.

Miss Grace Carper returned on Tuesday from Clairton where she spent the past month with her sister Mrs. Joseph Brooks.

Robert McClellan and family and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Houser and daughter Anna attended the Business Men's picnic at Hecla Park on Tuesday.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Long, of Washington, D. C., who have been visiting Mrs. Long's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geiss Wagner, left for a month's visit with relatives in Elwood, Illinois.

Miss Myra Kimpfort returned on Tuesday from a short visit among friends in Milton and will spend a few days with her cousin Miss Betty Kimpfort before returning to her home at State College.

LETTERS FROM SUBSCRIBERS.

Reporter Subscribers Correspondent Column—New Department.

Just a short while ago Lot R. Evans wrote the Reporter from Petrel, Adams county, South Dakota, telling of the drought. On the 14th Mr. Evans again favored the Reporter with a note in which he says:

"We are having an abundance of rain during the past two weeks, and everything is taking on a green appearance. The grass is as green as in May. The ground is soaked thirty inches deep, a condition not had in seven years. Vegetables are coming on like in the spring."

Cider Press Notice

in nearly all localities are building their farm improvements of cement

They are investing their money in permanent buildings instead of spending it in repairs. Concrete is the ideal building material on the farm as well as in the towns. Concrete sidewalks, troughs, fences, foundations, floors, porches, steps, stable floors, pig pens, chicken houses and corn cribs are rapidly displacing those made of other materials.

Standard grades of PORTLAND CEMENT and lime stone screenings always in stock.
