POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

RECORDER.

We are authorized to announce that W. Francis Speer, of Bellefonte, is a candidate for the nomination for Recorder by the Democratic party; subject to the primaries on September 30th.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY

We are authorized to announce that S. Kluge Woodring, of Bellefonte, will be a candidate for District Attorney, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters of the county at the primaries to be held September 30th.

To the Democratic Voters of Centre County.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters as expressed at the primaries September 30, 1911. Howard township has not had a county official, for thirty-five years and as a life long Democrat, I ask kindly support in securing representation on the Democratic ticket for this end of the county. If elected I will do the best I can for every taxpayer in the county.
BURDINE BUTLER.

LOCALS

Kerlins are paying 25¢ per dozen for white eggs; must be white, clean, good size and strictly fresh.

D. Paul Fortney has always been a worker for the success of the Democratic party, and is now asking its support. Vote for him for district attorney.

R. H. Goodhart and wife, of Altoona, visited Mr. and Mrs. G. Bruce Goodhart, in Orangeville, Illinois. The former Mr. Goodhart is a son of Mrs. Mary J. Goodhart, and the latter a son of G. L. Goodhart, both of this place.

The excessive rains during the first weeks of September coupled with the enforced late sowing of wheat will no doubt greatly reduce the ravishes of the Hessian fly, and next year's crop may be practically free from the injury of the pest.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Markle, of near Linden Hall, take comfort in the fact that they are not obliged to move every Spring. For eighteen years they have been living on the Markle homestead, and are not now planning a flitting.

Theory may be perfect, but the road known as "practice" is a safer one to travel on to secure economy and impartiality in an office such as the district attorney's; you will therefore win by voting for the winner—J. Kennedy Johnston, the practical candidate for the nomination for district attorney.

Although there are a number of other orchards in the same vicinity, John A. Fortney, of Boalsburg, appears to be the only peach grower who can sport a crop in Harris township this year. He attributes his success to having fertilized his trees, as was directed by Demonstrator Foster, and now is giving the orchard better attention than ever.

There is little or no demand for fall apples in any of the local centres within access of the local shippers. The Centre Hall Evaporating Company had purchased over a hundred bushels of hand picked fall apples, and were not able to dispose of them at any price. To avoid a total loss the apples were taken to the evaporating plant and there disposed of the same as though they had been wind-falls.

Beginning of this week, Rev. E. O. Minnigh, of Tidoute, Warren county, was the guest of his cousin, Miss Lizzie Runkle. He came here from Dubois, where he attended the sessions of the Erie Conference of the Methodist church. This is his first trip to Penns Valley, but he had heard so many references to the valley by his parents and grandparents that he decided to see it for himself. He and Miss Runkle visited many points where the elder Minnighs and Runkles held forth.

More than fifty years ago, William Homan left Potter township and a few years later located in Bedford county, in the vicinity of Saxton. He engaged in farming and the mercantile business, and every few years comes to Centre Hall to renew his acquaintance with old friends and relatives, and on this occasion was the guest of his cousin, Miss Annie Bible. The father, John Homan, and grandfather, Jacob Homan, of this gentleman, were prominent among the early settlers in Penns Valley. The elder Homan farmed above Centre Hall for the Lyons, who improved the Hoffer farms, immediately west of here, and Jacob Homan lived on the Van Valzsch farm, which at that time was a well-known tavern, accommodating travelers between Lewistown and Bellefonte. This was before the building of the pike from Centre Hall to the junction point, at the base of the first mountain on the northern slope.

S. S. Field Worker at Tusseyville.

Miss Robinson, one of the state Sabbath-school Association field workers, appeared in the United Evangelical church at Tusseyville, on Monday evening, and gave a highly interesting and instructive talk on Sunday-school work. A particular effort is being made to bring Centre county into the "Front Line" class in Sunday-school work. Great in many other respects, Centre county, up to within a few weeks ago, has been in the rear in this work. The County Association officers have felt the stigma of these conditions and are endeavoring to bring old Centre up to the "Front Line" column.

Miss Robinson explained both the methods of conducting the cradle roll, the home department and the teacher training class, and the benefits derived from these divisions of work. The superintendents of the Sunday-schools present gave the speaker assurance that they would bring the question before the schools and use their influence in organizing these three departments in time to be re-organized at the next state convention in October.
