

THE CENTRE REPORTER.
ISSUED WEEKLY.

S. W. SMITH, . . . Editor and Proprietor.

Entered at the Post Office in Centre Hall as Second Class mail matter.

CENTRE HALL, . . . PENN'A.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1911

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Methodist—Centre Hall, morning; Spruce town, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening. Harvest home services at all the appointments.

Lutheran—Union, morning; Georges Valley, afternoon; Centre Hall, evening.

United Evangelical—Dr. J. P. Patch, Superintendent of Altoona District State Anti-Saloon League, will speak at the following appointments at times designated: Egg Hill, morning; Tusseyville, afternoon; Centre Hall, evening. Everybody invited.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Sheriff: A. B. LEE
Prothonotary: D. E. FOREMAN
Treasurer: JOHN D. MILLER
Register: J. FRANK SMITH
Recorder: W. FRANCIS SPEER
Commissioners: WILLIAM H. NOLL
DANIEL A. GROVE
District Attorney: D. PAUL FORTNEY
Coroner: PHILIP S. FISHER
Auditors: JEREMIAH BRUNGART
S. H. HOY
Surveyor: J. H. WETZEL

What would happen if the State Penitentiary would be located in Centre county? The Lewisburg & Tyrone Railroad would be extended to its original terminal—Tyrone.

This is the first sentence of an advertisement that appeared in the Phillipsburg Daily Journal:

"Harry Diehl, Republican candidate for Prothonotary, won his nomination in a straight forward canvass."

The little notice is very timely, as there are a lot of Republican voters in the county who do not believe that Harry Diehl won his nomination in a straight forward canvass, and they will not believe it after they read his advertisement.

In the calculations made by the Democratic Watchman and the Centre Reporter in summing up the value of the payments made on the county bonds for thirty years, there appears to be a discrepancy of between seven and eight thousand dollars, the Watchman making the sum total $128,496, while the Reporter finds it to be $135,000. The Watchman figured on the basis of paying $2200 at the close of each year, while the Reporter made its calculations on the basis of the payments being made every six months, as the bonds stipulate.

The question of qualification cannot be raised in discussing J. Frank Smith as a candidate for register. That office requires a man of sound judgment, Mr. Smith has it; it requires a man with clerical ability, he has that too. He will not need to acquire courtesy, because he is courteous in his everyday affairs. He is a man particularly and peculiarly fitted for the office.

No one will dare connect A. B. Lee with the authorship or any knowledge of the letter complained of by D. J. Gingery. There was no occasion for such a letter emanating from any Democratic source. When the real truth is made known its authorship will be credited to some other source than any one connected with the Democratic organization. There is little doubt but that the circular letter, if such it was, was sent out not with the idea of injuring the opportunities of Mr. Gingery, but to arouse the enmity of Mr. Gingery against the present candidate, Mr. Lee. The reference to Mr. Stover was made to hide the real purpose of the forger.

David J. Gingery, of Martha Furnace, is up in arms, and threatens to become an independent candidate for sheriff. He was a candidate for that office at the primaries and received seven hundred and fifty-five votes against two thousand and sixty-two for A. B. Lee, the present nominee.

Mr. Gingery is evidently laboring under a mistaken impression, and accuses A. B. Kimpfort, the Democratic county committee chairman, with circulating a campaign letter that reflected on his character and ability, and the same letter, Mr. Gingery claims, mentioned incapacity on the part of Mr. Stover, one of the candidates for commissioner, the purpose of the letter being to aid certain candidates and discredit others.

Chairman Kimpfort denies all responsibility for the appearance of the letter, and had no knowledge of it. He further states that no letters were sent out by him as chairman or otherwise favoring one candidate and discrediting another, and offers a reward of $500 for any letter or circular bearing his signature containing such matter. That such a letter, if it really existed, came from Chairman Kimpfort, is unbelievable. If such campaign literature was sent out, and the name of the Democratic chairman attached without his permission, Mr. Kimpfort should and no doubt will make every effort to discover who committed the forgery, and see that he is punished.

Call a Reformed Pastor.

The members of the Centre Hall Reformed church were very favorably impressed with Rev. Raymond Jones, of Saegerstown, who filled the appointments on the charge last Sunday. After each of the services a congregational meeting was held, which resulted in an almost unanimous vote being recorded in favor of the minister becoming the regular pastor. It is understood the consistory at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon prepared a call, in which the salary stipulated is $850. It is believed the call will be accepted, and that Rev. Jones will assume active charge by the first of December.

The members of the consistory who were present at the meeting on Tuesday are these:

Prof. C. R. Neff, H. F. Bitner, W. F. Bradford, A. P. Krape, W. F. Keller, W. Gross Mingle, W. F. Rockey, Ralph Rickard, James Raymond, Philip Durst, Paul Swabb, Robert Smith.

Governor Glenn's Subject.

Governor Glenn, of North Carolina, who will appear in Grauge Arcadia, Saturday evening, has a string of lectures at his command, and the committee has not yet decided which one it will ask him to give, the lecture, however, will be on one of the following subjects:

- "Our country; its dangers and possibilities."
- "Character building."
- "Sowing and reaping."
- "The South, its problems and its future."
- "Are our boys safe, and what more can we do for them."
- "Our country's need of sterling men and women."

Rebersburg.

Kline Royer is visiting under the parental roof.

Harry Hoy and family, of Spring Mills, spent Sunday among friends at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Stover spent last Sunday at Woodward with the family of Prof. E. S. Stover.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gramley and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Haines spent part of last week at Pittsburg.

Allen Royer, who had been working for Samuel Mowery, left for his home in Madisonburg. Henry Vonada has taken his place.

Mrs. Whitman, wife of Rev. N. A. Whitman, pastor of the Lutheran church, received a slight paralytic stroke one day last week.

Some of our farmers are erecting additional corn cribs in order that they will be able to store the enormous corn crop now being harvested.

Dwight Wolf, who was a patient in the Williamsport hospital suffering from typhoid fever, is now at the home of J. W. Harter, where he is recuperating.

Daniel Gramley, who left this section twenty years ago for the far west, returned for the first time on last Friday. He is accompanied by his wife, and they are now shaking hands with old acquaintances and relatives.

Colyer.

Mrs. Mary Long spent a day last week at the home of J. H. Moyer.

Mrs. Emma Jordan and Mrs. Mahala Nevel transacted business in Lewis town last week.

Misses Grace Ishler and Blanche Moyer spent Sunday at the home of William Bitner.

Frank Beaver and friend, of State College, spent Sunday at the home of William Moyer.

Mrs. Elmira Moyer, of Tusseyville, is spending a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Neff.

John Bitner is ill with typhoid fever. Mrs. Maria Jordan, Mrs. Steward Jordan and Mrs. Kizzie Swabb are also ill.

Mrs. William Seanson and daughter Mary, of near Lemont, returned home after spending some time at the home of Edward Bubb and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bedyon accompanied by the former's mother Mrs. Rebecca Bedyon, of Mifflin county, spent Sunday with friends in this place.

Earnest Treaster and Clara Reiber spent Sunday at the home of Milton Kline in Centre Hall. They were accompanied home by the latter's sister Miss Blanche Reiber.

Frank J. Smith is better qualified for the office of register than any candidate in either of the political parties who aspired to the office in a number of years. He is a good penman, a man of good judgment, methodical. He knows human nature, and will be capable of transacting official business without offending. Outside of office hours Mr. Smith will be found a whole man, and considerate of the rights and opinions of others.

John D. Miller has been a farmer all his life; he has a reputation for rugged honesty. He is now a candidate for county treasurer, and this gives his fellow farmers an opportunity to elevate one of their number. There will be no misplacing of confidence if Mr. Miller receives your vote.

Trespass notices, suitable for all purposes, may be had at this office.

Harris township.

Mrs. Laura Bricker visited at Tyrone last week.

H. M. Hosterman and family spent Saturday at Bellefonte.

Hon. Cyrus Woods, of Greensburg, was a recent visitor at Boalsburg.

C. Carl W. baled twenty-one tons of hay in eight hours for Austin Dale, at Oak Hall, last Thursday.

W. C. Meyer, of State College, attended to business in Boalsburg on Saturday.

Daniel Mothersbaugh, who spent the summer near Geneva, New York, returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barr visited for a week with Mrs. Barr's sister, Mrs. G. H. Widder, in Harrisburg.

Mrs. George Mothersbaugh with her children spent a few days at her former home at Linden Hall.

Mrs. Garver and Mrs. W. R. Ham; with her child, of State College, spent Thursday afternoon at Boalsburg.

The new hall built by the "Knights of Malta" at Boalsburg will be dedicated on the evening of the 27th.

Charles Mothersbaugh departed on Monday for Derry, where he will be employed in the store house of a glass company.

Cyrus Confer and family moved from Boalsburg to Mrs. Confer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Horner, near Walnut Grove.

Mrs. Frank Fisher and children, of Altoona, and Charles Fisher and family, of Danville, were guests of Mrs. Emma Fisher over Sunday.

Fred Weber and sisters Margaret and Katharine, of State College, enjoyed a drive to their former home at Boalsburg, on Sunday afternoon.

A number of young people from this place enjoyed a dance in the Ball hall in this place on Friday evening. Fine refreshments were served.

Miss Myra Kimpfort, of State College, with the help of Misses Wills Waite and Rhoda Harrison, had a display of fine fall hats at the Harrison store at Boalsburg on Tuesday afternoon.

When George Mothersbaugh went to his barn on Monday morning he found his best horse dead. It is supposed the ailment was colic, although no symptoms were noticeable on Sunday evening.

The ladies aid society of the Reformed church at State College served a chicken and waffle supper at the home of the Misses Kaup on Thursday evening at which $80 were realized. Rev. and Mrs. S. C. Stover were among the guests.

Spring Mills.

Samuel L. Condo's coach shop is almost completed.

Dr. H. S. Braucht made a professional call in Centre Hall on Sunday.

A valuable horse belonging to Thomas Decker died a few days ago.

Harry Kreamer, of Elizabethville, spent Sunday with his parents at Penn Hall.

R. G. Kennelly expects to go to Mifflinburg where he will work at the carpenter trade.

Mrs. William Meyers, who has been afflicted with rheumatism for some time, is not improving.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCoy, of Bellefonte, were guests of Hon. W. M. Allison, on Sunday.

Homer Decker, a clerk in the county commissioners' office, spent Sunday with Merchant John Rishel.

D. H. Shlegal, paper hanger and decorator, did work of that character in Centre Hall beginning of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fink, of Line Lexington, Bucks county, are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. Jasper Wagner.

At least a few residents of Spring Mills have secured tickets for the Centre Hall lecture course and they and others expect to hear former Governor Glenn, on Saturday evening.

Rev. B. Raymond Jones, of Saegerstown, preached an interesting sermon on Sunday morning in the Reformed church, and after the services gave his unanimous vote to become the pastor of the charge of which the congregation is a part.

The public school teachers in Gregg township have organized an association for mutual benefit, and will hold their first regular meeting this (Thursday) evening. The plan is a most commendable one, and cannot result otherwise than to greatly aid in securing more efficient work on the part of the teachers who enter into the association work with spirit.

Services in the Lutheran church at Spring Mills were held for the first time by Rev. Fred W. Barry, who just became pastor of the charge, last Sunday afternoon. His congregation was highly pleased with his sermon and manner both on and off the pulpit. He will hold services next Sunday at the Union and Georges Valley, on Sunday morning and afternoon, respectively.

FALLS ONLY TO RISE.

An Experiment Which Shows a Cort of Perpetual Motion Effect.

A novel experiment in the demonstration of perpetual motion is to be performed simply. A glass beaker about six inches high and four inches in diameter is filled with water to the height of about four and a half inches, and two and one-half to three ounces of commercial aniline are added, which will sink to the bottom of the vessel.

The temperature of the beaker and its contents is now raised to 170 or 175 degrees Fahrenheit by means of a burner, when it will be observed that the aniline will rise to the surface of the water, from which it will hang in a mass of curved outline. Almost immediately the suspended aniline commences to alter in shape, and gradually a large drop an inch or more in diameter detaches itself from the mass and falls through the water.

And now, the detached drop having fallen to the bottom of the beaker, comes the surprising part of the experiment. The fallen drop is seen gradually to rise to the surface, where it joins the mass from which it previously broke away. At once another drop commences to form and, having become detached, falls and rises in the same manner as the previous drop.

So long as the temperature of the water is maintained at 170 degrees Fahrenheit or over this procedure continues indefinitely. — Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Worked Both Ends.

Queens at their best are but women. Said Mary of Modena once in her days of exile, "It took all the jewels that all the goldsmiths could procure to decorate my crown." She was "powdered" with gems, which Fountain-hall says "made her shine like an angel."

And Queen Caroline, too, the wife of George II., used to allude to Lord Hervey's rather personal remark that her crowning dress "was as fine as the accumulated riches of the city and suburbs could make it, for, besides her own jewels, she had on her head and shoulders all the pearls she could borrow of the ladies of quality at one end of the town, and on her petticoat all the diamonds she could hire of the jewelers at the other."

The Polar Bear.

The polar bear is a pretty formidable brute. A specimen of this species has been killed weighing 1,000 pounds and measuring nearly thirteen feet from nose to tail. The strength of the polar bear is beyond belief. One was seen feeding on the body of a white whale fifteen feet long and weighing at least three tons. The whale had been dragged by the bear out of the water on to the ice.
