A car load of barrel salt at $1 35 per barrel.—C. P. Long & Co.

Miss Gertrude Spangler is in Philadelphia where she expects to remain for several weeks.

Clayton Homan, painter and decorator, was in Altoona over Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Homan.

"Our Starry Flag," a new national flag song, words and music, has just been published by Dr. Alfred Bierly, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Furey, of Bellefonte, were in Centre Hall on Monday, and were entertained by the latter's sister, Mrs. J. G. King.

Mrs. Sarah Kerlin, of Centre Hall, on Tuesday went to Lewisburg, and until the holidays will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ocker.

Unclaimed letters in the Centre Hall post office November 1st, 1911: Miss Margaret Fleming, Mr. George Reish, Mr. Harres Fromm, Saverie Barre.

W. C. Booser went to Altoona on Saturday and returned Monday, bringing back with him Miss Bertha McCormick, whose escort on many occasions he is.

Claude K. Stahl, of Altoona, was the guest of his parents over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Bartholomew, of the same place, were also in Centre Hall over Sunday.

The President's Thanksgiving proclamation has been issued naming Thursday, November 30, as the day for a nation of free people to return thanks for the many blessings received during the year.

"I am pleased to recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as the best thing I know of and safest remedy for coughs, colds and bronchial trouble," writes Mrs. L. B. Arnold, of Denver, Colorado. "We have used it repeatedly and it has never failed to give relief." For sale by all dealers.

Harry M. Barrick writes the Reporter from Belleville that business at the Farmers Roller Mills is brisk. He is associated in business with Joseph H. Eostetter and manufactures high grade flour and mill feeds. Mr. Barrick, it will be recalled, was head miller at the Centre Hall roller mills prior to locating at Belleville.

Rev. W. D. E. Scott, one of the ministers who officiated at the installation of Rev. Fred W. Barry, on Sunday, was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett. Rev. Scott was profuse in his compliments on Centre Hall. He had not been here since the Central Pennsylvania Synod met here in September of 1890, and although that is a long time ago he had little thought that the town had grown to its present proportions and importance.

Miss Minnie Adamson, of Trinidad, Colorado, is visiting Mrs. A. P. Luse and the Dursts in and about Centre Hall, of whom she is a relative. She is a niece of David Musser, of Penn Hall, being a daughter of his sister, Hannah, now deceased, who with her husband for many years lived in Kansas. Miss Adams was born in the west, and this is her first visit to the hills and fertile valleys in Pennsylvania. She is a school teacher by profession, but gave up her work for a year to see the east.

One of the wide awake lodges of Odd Fellows in Penns Valley is that at Pine Grove Mills, and Tuesday evening a number of new members were admitted. To witness this ceremony a number of the members of the Centre Hall lodge attended the session. The trip was made in the auto cars of Messrs. Wilbur Henney, W. H. Mayer and J. I. Fetterolf, and the Odd Fellows were these: Robert Bloom, William Walker, John D. Lucas, William F. Keller, M. L. Emerick, Joseph L. Lutz, John H. Knarr, John Rowe, William Homan, H. H. Mark, Byron Garis, Reuben Garis.

MALTA TEMPLE DEDICATED

Bear Meadow Commandery Has Membership of 87—Gala Day in Boalsburg.

Friday of last week was a red letter day in the history of the Bear Meadow Commandery, in Boalsburg, for on that day the Malta temple was dedicated and a class of forty-six were given the ten degrees.

The Commandery was organized January 7th, 1909, and now has a membership of eighty-seven.

The temple dedicated is two story, the lower floors being devoted to dining rooms, kitchen, etc., and the whole of the upper floor to lodge purposes. All told the commandery expended about $3000 to build and equip the temple.

The banquet was attended by one hundred and ninety, and was an enjoyable feature. The dedicatory ser-

LOCALS.

Potatoes, apples and onions wanted—The Howard Creamery Corp.

George Breen had the misfortune to have a large fat hog die for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodhart, of Altoona, were guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Goodhart, in Centre Hall, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Geary and daughter Agnes were at Newport, the home of Mr. Geary's parents, having gone there last week and returned Tuesday.

James L. P. Gregg was one of the Tyrons team who gave the several degrees to the class admitted to Odd Fellowship at Pine Grove Mills on Monday evening.

Three hundred and fifty bushels of Dooley potatoes were raised from two acres of ground by Farmer William Colyer, east of Old Fort. It took somewhat of an effort to raise the tubers on account of the scarcity of help, but he is not at all sorry that the yield was so good.

Elmer Hettinger and Ralph R. Ziegler, of near Centre Hill, were callers on Tuesday evening. Mr. Hettinger is very much concerned about the weather, and is anxious that the ground does not freeze until he has his potato crop lifted. He has between ten and twelve acres planted to potatoes, and has enough lifted to satisfy him that the yield will be large and the quality first class.

About the middle of July the creamery plant, at Dewart, belonging to Charles Sheffer, was destroyed by fire the loss being quite large to the owner. He at once set to work to rebuild, and now has in operation his new plant. The main structure is 40x90 feet, and is built of Watsonville brick and concrete. A boiler of 65 horse power capacity furnishes the steam with which the plant is run. Mr. Sheffer now enjoys the patronage of five hundred farmers. The Reporter and Mr. Sheffer's friends here will be glad to know that he is again on the way to greater things in the creamery business.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Lettina K. Lingle, wife of Samuel R. Lingle, died at her home in Penn township, near Coburn, on Friday, aged forty-two years and twenty-six days. She was a twin daughter of Christian and Sarah V. Alexander. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, one daughter, Florence, her father, five sisters and one brother, namely, Mrs. W. J. Harter, Mrs. J. W. Kerstetter, Miss Nora Alexander, and A. A. Alexander, of Coburn; Mrs. D. H. Shook, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. C. C. Kerstetter, of Altoona.

Mrs. Lingle was born, reared and died on the same farm, formerly the Amos Alexander homestead, now owned by Daniel Meyer, of Coburn. She was a consistent member of the Paradise United Evangelical church, in Penn township. Funeral services were held on Monday, and were conducted by Rev. J. W. Die and Rev. H. A. Snook. The services were attended by a large concourse of people. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery, at Millheim. Her birth, marriage and death occurred in the month of October.

Dr. T. C. Conser died at his home in Sunbury, aged fifty-one years. He was the son of Thomas Conser and was born in Logan ton. He began the practice of medicine in Logan ton, later he moved to Slona then to Lock Haven from there to Sunbury. Several years were also spent in California.

He is survived by his wife, who resides in Philadelphia, one daughter Miss Dorothy, who lived with her father, one brother, Prof. H. N. Conser, who holds the biology, in the State University at Orono Me., and by the following named half-brothers and sisters:

James Bright, of the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md; Mrs. Minnie Stam, Vilas; Mrs. Annie Walton; Gleason; Mrs. Mary Miller, Kansas; Mrs. Jennie Hunter, Mill Hall; Mrs. George W. Bell, Missouri; Mrs. P. L. Reynolds, Topeka, Kan; C. W. Conser, Logan ton; C. C. Conser, Ridgeway; Mrs. Lucretia Yehelmer and Mrs. John Marshall both of Lock Haven.

Mary Rosella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Dale, of State College, R. D., passed out of this life Saturday morning, October 21st, at the age of thirteen years, two months and eight days.

Two weeks previous she was taken to the hospital at Bellefonte where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. At first but slight hopes were entertained for her recovery, but after a few days her condition became a little more promising and hopes revived. But the disease was not conquered. Everything known to medical skill was tried to bring back her health, but all was in vain.

Rosella was a child; yet she seemed to be living beyond her years. Her manners seemed to indicate the young woman rather than the child. Her sweet, cheerful disposition, thoughtfulness of others, fidelity in the home, in the school, and in the church of which she had already become a communicant member; her patience in suffering; her complete resignation to the will of the all wise Heavenly Father; and her readiness to depart; all speak to us in evidence of the Christian life she lived. She is gone, but not forgotten. Her memory is enshrined in the hearts of all who learned to know her. Besides her parents, three brothers and a little sister, she leaves a large host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

Funeral services were conducted in the Lutheran church, Boalsburg, on Tuesday morning, October 24th, by her pastor, Rev. J. I. Stonecypher, assisted by Rev. W. K. Harshbarger. We laid her body to rest in the cemetery at Boalsburg awaiting the resurrection of the just. "She is not dead, but sleeping."

850-bushel Potato Crop.

Lucky is the farmer who this year has a good potato crop. In this class may be found F. A. Carson, Esq., at Potters Mills, who just finished raising eight acres planted to potatoes, and after running them over a two inch screen found he had eight hundred and thirty bushels of marketable tubers. The potatoes were all stored, and next winter as the demands arise they will be sold in small lots in the Lewis town district.

The fact that Mr. Carson last year had over a thousand bushels of potatoes on the same plot, makes the yield this year all the more remarkable. The tubers this year are of better quality and more of uniform size than last season.

ON THE STREET

As you walk down the street you occasionally see some young man whose appearance is unusual and his carriage as he walks along impresses you strongly. It is probable that his clothes are not custom made, for the number of men who wear ready to put on garments increases daily.

Our garments are designed particularly to give a young man a distinguished appearance.

Come in and let us show you how to make the most of your figure, remembering that in this world "appearances count."
