The pastors of Centre Hall have arranged to have the usual union Thanksgiving service this year in the United Evangelical church, on Wednesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The sermon will be by Rev. Fred W. Barry, pastor of the Lutheran church. The offering of the evening will go to the Centre Hall Hospital Aid Society for the Bellefonte Hospital.

LOCALS

The Webers are advertising sleighs, bob sleds, buggies, etc. Call at their business places and examine their stock.

Mrs. James Mathers and son Master Laird Mathers, of Muncy, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Reiss, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Lucy Ray, Mrs. J. E. Lenker, and daughter Sarah, visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Snyder on Tuesday.

Dr. G. W. Hosterman, of Centre Hall was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. C. F. Shaw, at State College, for several days.

Mrs. Kate Saunders and daughter Elizabeth are visiting Mrs. Henry Dale, at Boalsburg, and John Rupp, at State College.

Miss Nina Snyder, although not a school teacher, is attending the institute at Bellefonte, and while in the county seat will be the guest of Miss Madge Gherett.

Besides General and Mrs. James A. Beaver and son Thomas, of Bellefonte, Foster White, of State College; William Thompson, Jr., and wife, of Lemont, attended the funeral of Mrs. Mary White, at Milroy.

Rev. H. W. Buck, of Milroy, beginning of this week came to Centre Hall, and was the guest of his sister, Mrs. F. P. Geary. He is the successor of Rev. J. F. Shultz, who retired from active ministerial work and is now living in Northumberland.

Bob sleds, faultless in construction—a car load of them—at the J. H. and S. E. Weber business places at Centre Hall and Oak Hall Station. Their sleds have great strength and are light running. They are braced just where a brace is needed; handsomely painted, and in every way are first-class.

T. Edward Halfpenny, prothonotary in Union county, died on Sunday. About the same time a telegram announced that his brother, Mack Halfpenny, had been seriously wounded by a policeman in Houston, Texas. He was the leading man in the "Madam Sherry" company, his stage name being Neal McWay.

At all times, day or night, the cry of "fire" should be avoided unless the occasion demands it. On the streets late one night last week, children gave the alarm of fire, and it is because no harm was meant that they should be impressed with the fact that to cry fire is unfitting when in a hilarious mood.

Irvin J. Shirk, of Glen Iron, is a corn farmer of some account, and just completed harvesting a crop of 258 bushels of corn ears from two acres. The quality was also first-class, and much of it will be sold for seed. Mr. Shirk is interested in Centre county because his wife, nee Marjorie Sweetwood, hails from Georges Valley.

Yesterday (Wednesday) was the day set for the brothers in the lodge of Old Fellows to assemble in the corn field of Charles Burris, who on account of an accident was disabled, and husk his corn. The same thing was done by the Woodmen, at Millheim, for Samuel R. Lingie, whose work was interfered with by the sickness and subsequent death of his wife.

The members of the Methodist church in Penna Valley will reg et to learn of the death of Gerald M. Faus, the sixteen-year-old son of Rev. G. W. Faus, pastor of the Chestnut Street Altoona Methodist church, formerly presiding elder of this district. The young man was run down by a street car while riding a bicycle, on a state road crossing. He was taken to the Altoona hospital, where he died shortly thereafter.

Edw. D. J. Crosby—December 14.

The Centre Hall lecture course committee for some months has been corresponding with the United States Department of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., to secure one of its trained men to give a lecture especially adapted to rural sections, and the Reporter is pleased to say that its desire has been accomplished, and that Hon. D. J. Crosby, a specialist in agricultural education, will appear in Grange Arcadia, Thursday evening, December 14th. The subject Mr. Crosby lectures on is the "Rural School." The lecture will be illustrated by using a lantern and screen.

The Department of Agriculture sends its men to various sections where the people are willing to meet the expenses incurred. The expenses cover car fare, board and lodging, hall rental, printing, etc. To secure funds to meet these expenses some one will lift the voluntary admission given at the door.

Mr. Crosby was at State College some months ago, and his lecture is highly spoken of by every one who heard him.

Good Bird Hunting.

The first report of good success in bird hunting this season comes from Potters Mills, where a party of five captured twenty pheasants. They camped at Heckador's Gap, above Nevil's. The party was out three days and was made up of the following persons: F. A. Carson, J. H. Bitner, A. L. Bubb, Max Harshberger, and Harry Harshberger. Six rabbits and one gray squirrel were also killed.

The Milk Condensing Plant.

Assurances continue to come from Spring Mills that a milk condensing plant will be built at that place. The organization of the corporation may be formed this week.

The Mill Hall plant was inspected by Messrs. W. M. Allison, Archie Allison, W. O. Gramley, Jacob C. Lee, and Franklin Allison, last week. They were favorably impressed with what they saw, and were also assured by the patrons of the concern that a good price was paid for the milk purchased.

The injuries consisted of a broken bone in one of his arms, and another in the hand, and also received bruises of a rather serious nature. About two years ago Mr. Shook was badly injured by a fall from a ladder. He is now at the home of his nephew, Ralph Shook, east of town.

J. H. and S. E. Weber just received a car load of sleighs and bob sleds, which may be seen at their business places at Centre Hall and Oak Hall Station. The sleighs are exceptionally handsome, neatly constructed, yet built with a view of strength and comfort. The bob sleds are exceptionally well built, the builder also having in mind the correct principle of draft in shaping the runners. You are invited to look these sleighs and sleds over, examine them carefully and compare quality and prices with any other dealers.

The Centre County Pomona Grange is in session today (Thursday.)

ON THE STREET

As you walk down the street you occasionally see some young man whose appearance is unusual and his carriage as he walks along impresses you strongly. It is probable that his clothes are not custom made, for the number of men who wear ready to put on garments increases daily.

Our garments are designed particularly to give a young man a distinguished appearance.

Come in and let us show you how to make the most of your figure, remembering that in this world "appearances count."
