

OUT FOR DEER.

Seven Mountains, From Bear Meadows to Paddy Mountain Tunnel, Full of Hunting Camps.

Hundreds of hunters are camping in the Seven Mountains between the Bear Meadows and Paddy Mountain Tunnel, and every day many local parties from the country, hamlets and towns on both sides the mountain, go there for a day's sport.

The hunter rises early, and traps, tramps, tramps all day long—up the mountain and down, through the ravines and thickets, always watching for the prong of a buck. Such exercise develops almost abnormal appetites, and to satisfy this ample provision is made, for the hunter eats only the hearts and livers of the bears and deer he kills.

The camp is visited almost daily by some one from home, and this gives an opportunity to replenish when the stock runs low, the consumption during the two weeks being considerably more than the first lay-in of supplies.

The local hunting parties in the mountains are mentioned below.

This does not include the campers from the Millin county side of the Seven Mountains, nor the many who came by train to Paddy Mountain and Coburn, and tramped to their quarters from those points.

The Pleasant Gap hunters went to the Seven Mountains on Tuesday morning to Camp between the first and second mountains, at Price's. The names of the nineties are: Ammon Kerstetter, William Kerstetter, George Horner, Kline Grenoble, Frank Yearick, William Peters, George Gettig, Edward Mulfinger, Edward Noll, Walter Dunkleberger.

The Auman party, made up of hunters from Georges Valley, Spring Mills and Centre Hall, are camping on the "Summit" in Poe Valley. The club is composed of the following persons: P. A. Auman, George Fredericks, R. E. Sweetwood, B. F. Kennely, Emanuel Confer, Charles Hackenberg, D. W. Sweetwood, Casper Wagner, William M. Grove, Edward Sweetwood.

Joseph Gilliland, of New Bloomfield; H. F. Muser, of Centre Hill, Rev. W. W. Rhoads and several others whose names could not be learned, are also in the Seven Mountains. W. O. Reasick, who for some years was a member of their club, will not be with them this year, owing to the fact that he is lumbering in Kentucky.

William Rossman, Richard Brooks, Charles B. Neff, John Eckley, Frank Walker made up a Manor Hill party who went to Tussey Mountain Wednesday morning. Last year Mr. Rossman captured a deer on Tussey. He is an exceptionally good hunter, killed many deer, and never missed one in his life.

The "Modoc" and "Riley" hunters from Harris township, are among the oldest hunters on the south side of the county. They are, as a rule, successful in capturing game of all kinds. The former are located on Stone Creek and the latter in the Bear Meadows.

B. F. Reish, Elias Yearick, Ward S. Gramley, and Kussel Yearick joined a party located in the ecotic region, near Henovo. They will be out for the whole season.

C. W. Slack, George Slack, Fred Slack, Wm. Colyer, Roy Reasick, and Clayton Homan Wednesday morning went to the Bear Meadows for a day's hunting.

A. P. Krape and William Homan, of Centre Hall, joined the Curtin Twp. hunters and pitched their tents on Baker Run in the Allegheny mountains.

The Deckers and others who hunt with them, are in Poe Valley and have quarters in one of the Dan Decker houses.

The Penn Hall hunting club is camping in Poe Valley and will remain for the season.

The Potters Mills Regulars are at Pat Garrity's, their old camping place.

The Beech hunters, James Foust and others, are at Taylor's Mill.

Last week M. M. Condo shipped a car load of apples to the Pittsburgh district.

DEATHS.

Edward B. Way, one of the most prominent citizens of Half Moon Valley, died at his home at Stormstown last Thursday, aged about forty-five years. He was a member of the Friends' church, and Mr. R. P. Kester, of Gramplan, and Mr. Borden, of New Jersey, spoke at the funeral. Interment was made in the Friends' burying ground, about three miles west of Stormstown.

Mr. Way's ancestors came from Lebanon county, and were among the first of the Friends to locate in Half Moon Valley. He was a farmer by occupation, and lived on one of the best equipped farms in that section. His wife, who survives, before marriage was Martha Way, and is a native of Clearfield. Seven children survive, the eldest being fifteen years old and the youngest two years old. One sister, Miss Lydia Way, also survives.

During the illness of Mr. Way four of his children lay sick, the eldest suffering from pleuro pneumonia and is now critically ill, and three with typhoid pneumonia, the same disease which caused the father's death.

Mr. Way was held in high esteem by his acquaintances, and faithfully performed his religious vows. He was a member of the Lodge of Odd Fellows and Half Moon Grange and was an active worker in both organizations.

Louella Elmira Houser died last week at Houserville, aged twelve years, five months and nine days. She was a girl greatly admired and had many friends. It is sad to see one so young taken away so soon. It was God's will that her end should come and she has gone to her eternal reward. Funeral services were largely attended and conducted by Rev. S. C. Stover, of Boalsburg. Interment was made at Houserville.

Mrs. Walter Mann, of Reedsville, died in a Philadelphia Hospital, and was buried from her home. Her maiden name was Mary Cleveland, and she was aged about forty-four years. Her husband and two children survive.

"I am pleased to recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as the best thing I know of and safest remedy for coughs, colds and bronchial trouble," writes Mrs. L. E. Arnold, of Denver, Colorado. "We have used it repeatedly and it has never failed to give relief." For sale by all dealers.

All stock, except the staple groceries, are offered at knock-down prices at the general store of J. Frank Smith, at Centre Hall. It will pay you to go there and get some of the bargains. The stock must be reduced, and if the goods cannot be sold in bulk, they will go in small lots. Now is your chance.

If you are thinking of purchasing a sleigh examine the stock—a car load—at the Centre Hall and Oak Hall Station business places of J. H. and S. E. Weber. There is much satisfaction in seeing and handling the article you buy, and this you can do if you deal with the Webers. Even a sleigh has an individuality.

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and grip and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by all dealers.

LIKE FINDING MONEY.

Murray & Bitner Offers Popular Medicine at Half-Price. Murray & Bitner the popular druggists are making an offer that is just like finding money for they are selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated and dyspepsia at half price. In addition to this large discount they agree to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is quite unusual to be able to buy fifty-cent pieces for a quarter, but that is what this offer really means, for it is only recently through the solicitation of druggists Murray & Bitner that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents. They urged the proprietors to allow them to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified their good judgment for the sale has been some-thing remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eye, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all the troubles. But if by any chance it should not, Murray & Bitner will return your money.

LOCALS. There will be a regular meeting of Progress Grange Saturday afternoon. James H. Smetzler, the railroad track boss, is laid up with poison on his face.

Mrs. Mary Shoop is back from Penn Brook, where she visited her son for several months. Wm. F. Keller, the mail carrier on the rural route from Centre Hall, is taking his vacation. His brother, Christ D. Keller, is acting in his stead.

George B. Stover, Jr., a Pennsylvania railroad operator, and son of George B. Stover, of Millinburg, formerly agent at Coburn station, was promoted from Lock Haven to Northumberland.

Miss Sarah J. Keller, of Boalsburg, was in Centre Hall Tuesday and Wednesday. In a week or ten days she will go to Wilmington, Delaware, for the winter, and while there will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Hall.

Saturday William Bailey went to State College and until Tuesday was entertained by Miss Ethel Grieb, his school teacher, and her little brother, Sidney. The Blue Goose restaurant is conducted by Miss Grieb's parents.

A full line of general merchandise is offered for sale at knock-down prices by J. Frank Smith, at Centre Hall station. Big bargains are offered every day, but no one can tell how long they will last, as the goods are offered for sale in bulk. Do not delay, but make your purchases at once.

Why cough? Stop it! Stop coughing! Coughing rasps and tears. Stop it! Coughing prepares the throat and lungs for more trouble. Stop it! There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing. Stop it! Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a medicine for coughs and colds, a regular doctor's medicine. Sold for seventy years. Use it! Ask your doctor if this is not good advice.

Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia. We wish you would ask your doctor about correcting your constipation by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. Made by the J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

THERE IS NO PLOW SUPERIOR TO THE SYRACUSE RIDING PLOW

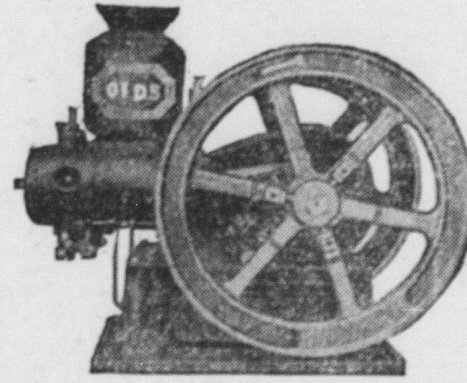

It plows the same depth the whole day long; sticks to the ground in stormy soil; can be well handled on rocky hillsides. It leaves no dead furrows to wash; will throw the soil up hill better than any other plow made; it is strong enough to do its work, yet not clumsy. It is made for two or three horses.

NEW IDEA MANURE SPREADER Does its Work To Perfection

There are many of them in use, and every machine is giving satisfaction. The draft is light, yet no other spreader will do the work as well. The wear and tear has been reduced to the minimum in the New Idea.

THE "OLDS" GASOLINE ENGINES
