LOCALS

P. S. Ishler, of Boalsburg, was in town between trains on Monday afternoon.

Constable C. D. Frazier offers his home, near Colyer, for sale or rent. See his adv. in this issue.

William B. Eon, who for some time was employed in the Auman flouring mill, at Millheim, is now in Akron, Ohio.

Russell Slack, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Slack, east of Centre Hall, has just recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia.

R. Hayes Stuart, of Lock Haven, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Potter, in Centre Hall. He came to Centre county to attend the funeral of Mr. Warfield.

Samuel Kliefelder, who for some years has lived on the farm owned by Cyrus Brungart located near Tusseyville, will move onto the John R. Lee farm, at Colyer.

Edwin E. Sparks, president of Pennsylvania State College, and General Edward Morrell, of Philadelphia, have been appointed members of the college and university council by Governor Teter.

While chopping wood at C. W. Slack's on Tuesday, Frank Armagost cut a gash into his forehead above the right eye. It appears the axe he was using hit a hard knot and rebounded, striking him with the above noted result.

Henry Stoner, of Centre Hall, has been under the care of Dr. Ruhl, in Sugar Valley, and is not getting along as well as his friends would like. He is suffering from a growth of a cancerous nature on his back. He has been in Sugar Valley for some weeks.

While visiting her daughter of State College, Mrs. Charles Weaver, of near Linden Hall, somewhere on the streets of that town, lost her eye glasses and case, a handkerchief and some small change. She requests the finder to leave same with Mrs. Foster D. Walker, 529 College Avenue.

On Monday Miss Grace Crawford accompanied her father, F. M. Crawford, to Centre Hall and while he motored to the south side of Potter township to call on the Potter-Hoy Hardware Company customers, she spent the time with her many young girl friends all of whom were truly delighted to meet her.

W. M. Grove, of Spring Mills, is one of the surveyors who are running the lines for the new penitentiary site in Bender township. Mr. Grove has been doing a great deal of work for the state, and there is no surveyor in the county who will take a more decided stand for his work on the blue-print sheet than he, and that is what the state wants.

From Bowbells, North Dakota, John H. Mersinger, formerly of Tusseyville, writes the Reporter that he is only too glad that the cold weather is apparently over, or rather that the section has moderated. On the coldest day in his locality the thermometer registered forty-six degrees below zero, and that is cold enough, Mr. Mersinger thinks.

Remember it is the De Laval that skims the cleanest, wears the longest, runs the lightest. The first cost of the machine is not the lowest on the market, but after the first year's use it will have turned into the cream jar a great deal more than the difference, besides there is much less expense in the matter of repairs.—D. W. Bradford, Centre Hall.

A fifteen per cent. reduction sale is in progress at the general store of W. H. Stuart, in Boalsburg. This means that all goods in the store, groceries excepted, are being offered at fifteen per cent. less than their former price. At the same time a special sacrifice sale is going on in the Stuart store, and in this sale goods are marked down ridiculously low, considerably below their market value. The sale is advertised in this issue.

LETTERS FROM SUBSCRIBERS.

Reporter Subscribers Correspondent Column—New Department.

On January 16th, Charles P. Swint, who lives in Los Angeles, and is foreman of the mechanical department of the Pacific Electric Railway Company, at Redondo, formerly a resident of Potter township, writes the Reporter thus:
Enclosed please find postage money order for three ($3) dollars. Kindly advance date on label to April, 1915, and I hope the next time I will be able to pay you in person, when you visit our exposition. The Canal will be completed by that time, and I have promised my wife to show her "Old Penny" when we could go back through the Canal, and may be able to pay you in your office.

It is hard to believe the papers' statements of weather conditions in the east, as we are having ideal summer (not winter) weather out here. The papers claim that over one hundred thousand people visited the Beaches, Sunday the 14th inst., and January 1st, was a splendid day for our "Tournament of Roses" day at Pasadena. Our company had eighty-three three-car trains, capacity 240 passengers to a train, in continuous service on their four track right-of-way, and as it is only eight miles between city limits, you can see the service they gave, besides two steam roads, and their service. As long as I can stay in a country like this I refuse to shovel snow.

There are quite a number who go to Mt. Lowe and Mt. Wilson to have snow feasts, but I shoveled enough snow when a boy in Old Penny, and later in Missouri, to last me the rest of my natural life, so I say "never again" and remain

From Orangeville, Illinois, J. H. Jordan writes the Reporter, under the date of January 14th:

We are pretty well settled in our new home, which is a farm-only about two and one-half miles from where we did live. Our address is now Orangeville instead of McConnell.

We moved last Thursday and it was a very cold day. During the recent cold snap mercury stood as much as 18, 25, and 30 below zero. We have some snow but not a great deal. We are all well, regardless of the excessive cold weather.

What are you doing with my brother Franklin Jordan? He has been back east for seven weeks, and must be having a good time. But then that is the place to go to have a delightful visit, for I have had the experience on several occasions in the past and hope to repeat my visits in the future.

The McAllister Scholarship.

The five McAllister Scholarships awarded each year to the Pennsylvania State College to the five counties showing the highest ratio of students to the population of the county have been assigned to the following counties: Cameron, Centre, Dauphin, Mifflin and Wyoming. The scholarships are valid for the Freshman year and give a rebate of room rent and incident fee to the value of $86. The County Superintendent and High School Principals in each county will make the appointments by competitive examination before June 1st.

Suicide by Drowning.

Mrs. Paul Fisher, daughter of Joseph Folk, committed suicide early Sunday morning by drowning in the Phoenix mill dam, at Bellefonte. She was about forty-five years of age. Her husband is dead, and there are no children surviving. No cause for the rash act can be found.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Kate Conley takes this method of returning her thanks to the many friends who during the illness and after the death of her husband, John W. Conley, rendered such material aid and gave such comforting words. p/d

Spring Mills Grange.

Some thirty years ago your correspondent and his wife were made members of Spring Mills Grange, No. 158, P. of H. At that time the meetings were held at the homes of the different members. As the accommodations for doing the work of conferring degrees in a private house was very poor, the writer suggested to the members the necessity of securing a proper meeting place. The members were all agreed, and steps were taken to build a hall. A lot was secured near where the Lutheran church now stands and a commodious two-story building was erected. Some years afterward, owing to the removal of a number of the members, the failure to rent the lower story, and the withdrawal of the Golden Eagles to their newly built hall, the order became unable to pay the interest on the debt and meet other obligations, so the building was sold.

Later the membership in the Grange dwindled down to a few members. These were encouraged by members of Progress Grange to make a strenuous effort to recruit their ranks. The meetings were then being held in the High school room which, like a private house, was much unsuited as a lodge room. A meeting place was then secured in the hotel building. While in these quarters members of Progress Grange paid them another fraternal visit, which stimulated them to make renewed efforts to secure a better place in which to meet.

The question was fully discussed by the members of that Grange with the result that they determined to again own their own home. With this purpose in mind a lot was purchased from Mrs. Huss, also an abandoned Methodist church building located in Aaronburg. With this and new material a large two-story frame structure was erected. The first floor is arranged so that it may be used as a town hall, and the second floor is fitted for the accommodation of the Order.

On last Saturday afternoon about fifty members of Progress Grange, transported on four sleds and several sleighs, again visited the Spring Mills Grange, and found it flourishing and exceptionally well quartered. The visiting members assisted in conferring degrees on a large class. After these exercises were over an excellent lunch was served, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

The Grange has but a small debt, one it can easily cancel. The members are to be congratulated upon their success financially as well as for having sponsored a proper Grange spirit in Gregg township. W. A. K.

Revival in M. E. Church.

The Revival services held in the Methodist Episcopal church is increasing in interest and power. Sunday evening a large congregation listened to an earnest appeal made by the pastor, Rev. J. Max Lutz, taken from I Tim 6:15, "King of kings and Lord of lords". No divine methods are employed in these services. In response to the appeal made two persons came to the altar of prayer.

Oak Hall.

Mrs. Charles Segner, of Boalsburg was a caller in town on Friday.

George Eiters is recovering from an attack of bronchial pneumonia.

Miss Mary Homan attended the teacher's institute at Centre Hall on Saturday.

Luther Peters and Edward Zeng transacted business at Lemont on Monday.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Edward Sellers is improving, although very slowly.

Philip Dale attended the funeral of S. H. Williams at Bellefonte on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rishel, and son Harold spent last Thursday in Bellefonte.

Miss Rebecca Wisland, of Cedar Creek, spent Thursday night with Lavon Ferres.

Mrs. Ezra Tressler, of Pine Hall, and Miss Hoffer, of State College, were in town on Saturday.

The Grammar school was closed this week on account of the death of Emanuel Musser, of State College, father of the teacher, Luther Musser.

Georges Valley.

A. C. Davis who has been very ill, is improving.

Mrs. E. C. Confer visited Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jamison on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Frank spent Sunday at the home of H. A. Haugh.

Miss Ruth Confer returned home on Monday after spending a week in Reesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ripka, of Colyer visited at the home of John Lingle last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClellan and son Warren, of Spring Mills, visited the former's mother, Mrs. James Foust, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reeder spent Saturday at Farmers Mills at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Foust.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of F. W. Zittle were Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hockman and Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Weaver.

Stammering.

Stammering is due to a peculiarly nervous temperament, and only very sympathetic treatment can effect a cure. Stammering in a child should receive immediate attention, and the first thing to be done is to improve the little one's health by means of plenty of sleep, fresh air and good food. Every day he should take deep breathing exercises in the open air. These deep, steady inspirations strengthen the muscles of the throat and counteract a spasmodic habit of breathing. Notice should be taken of the sounds which the little stammerer has most trouble with, and sentences containing these sounds should be composed for him to repeat each day—very slowly and clearly. He should also be asked to read aloud every day. This exercise should be omitted whenever he seems overexcited or run down in health, and it goes without saying that he should never be scolded or laughed at.—New York Tribune.

The Popular Ten Spot.

Perhaps the average reader would find it difficult if not impossible to state offhand the denomination of the notes which represent a larger proportion of our currency circulation than any other. The outstanding circulation amounts to something more than $2,546,000,000 and consists of notes of eleven denominations, ranging from $1 to $10,000. There are outstanding 154,411,533 one dollar notes. But neither the one dollar notes nor those of $10,000 represent the larger item in the currency circulation. There are 22,100 notes of $10,000 each outstanding—a total of $221,000,000. But the most important is the ten dollar note, of which 6,039,464 are in circulation, representing a total of $60,394,640. So the ten spot is your Uncle Sam's favorite issue.—New York Mail.

A Heat Phenomenon.

A workman in the observatory at Toulouse has invited attention to a singular phenomenon. A bar of iron is taken by one end and the other end is plunged into a fire, heating it highly, but not so much that the hand cannot retain its hold. The heated end is then plunged into a pail of cold water. Immediately the other end becomes so hot that it is impossible to hold it. This phenomenon, familiar to workmen, is ascribed by them to some repellent action they suppose the sudden cold exerts upon the heat contained in the iron, which is thus driven to the opposite extremity.

Management.

"I don't see, Ella, how you manage with your housekeeping money. If I give you a lot you spend a lot, but if I don't give you so much you seem to get along with it."
"Why, that's perfectly simple, Rudolph. When you give me a lot I use it to pay the debts I get into when you don't give me so much."

Women on the Stage.

The earliest mention of actresses was in 1611, when Coryat in his "Cruddites" gave this description of a production at the Theater of Venice, Italy: "I saw women act, a thing I never saw before. They performed with as good a grace, action, gesture, as ever I saw any masculine actor."

The Horizon.

"How clear the horizon is!" remarked a young lady.
"Yes," agreed her humorous companion; "I've just swept it with my eye."
There is a restlessness in inactivity; we must find occupation for kings.—Landon.
