"Tom and Mary" was the title of the lecture given in Grange Arcadia on Tuesday evening by Dr. Dan McGurk, of Dayton, Ohio. The audience was highly pleased with the lecturer and his lecture, which treated of the development of the young. what they have a right to know, and what they do know. His olea was for Tom more than Mary, not that he (Tom) is entitled to more attention than his sister but because the average parent gives him less thought in his development. Dr. McGurk is fearless. He made expressions on the platform concerning local conditions observed by him during his few hours' Centre stay here that ought to arouse to action the authorities, and if that is done Dr. McGurk will prove a godsend to this community.
