CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Presbyterian—Centre Hall, morning.
Reformed—Tusseyville, morning; Centre Hall, afternoon.
Lutheran—Georges Valley, morning; Union, afternoon; Centre Hall, evening.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Representative in the General Assembly of Pennsylvania subject to the decision of the Democratic voters of Centre county at the primaries to be held Saturday, April 13th, 1912.
GEORGE A. BEEZER,
Bellefonte, Pa.

For County Chairman.

We are authorized to announce that Arthur B. Kimpfort, of Bellefonte, is a candidate for re-election for the position of Chairman of the Democratic party of Centre County.

We are authorized to announce that W. Harrison Walker, of Bellefonte, is a candidate for the position of Chairman of the Democratic party of Centre County at the primary election to be held April 13th.

For State Delegate.

LEMONT, Pa., March 2, 1912.
The Centre Reporter,
Centre Hall, Pa.

GENTLEMEN: I authorize you to announce my name as a candidate for delegate to the State Convention, subject to the will of the Democratic voters at the primaries on April 13th, 1912.

Very truly,
L. J. BEEZER.

We are authorized to announce that Abraham Weber, of Howard Borough, is a candidate for delegate to the Democratic State Convention, subject to the decision of the primary election, April 13th, 1912.

For National Delegate.

To the Democratic voters of the 21st Congressional district, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for delegate to the Democratic National Convention in Baltimore, June 24th, 1912.

To the voters of my home county of McKean, no explanation as to my brand of Democracy is necessary, but to the citizens of Cameron, Clearfield and Centre counties a statement is due.

I stand for that type of democracy represented by William Jennings Bryan, Champ Clark, Woodrow Wilson, and other progressive leaders, and believe with them, that the rights of men take precedence over the rights of money, and in the welfare of the masses, above that of the special interests dominating commerce and finance.

I favor the nomination of Woodrow Wilson for President, not that he is any better than many other democratic leaders, but first, because he is especially available.

I favor the nomination for Vice President of some equally good democrat, preferably a western man, such as Champ Clark, or Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, Ollie James, of Kentucky, or Chamberlain, of Oregon.

I am unalterably opposed to the nomination of Harmon, of Ohio, or Underwood, of Alabama, as I consider them the representatives of that reactionary element that seeks to "Aldrichize" the Democratic Party.

I favor the reorganization of the Democratic Party in Pennsylvania by the elimination of the Guffey-Hall-Donnelly dominance, which can no longer attract the independent citizen, and has lost the respect and confidence of the vast majority of the rank and file.

If I am chosen as a delegate I shall work for the foregoing program.

I am not now, never have been, and do not expect to be, a candidate for any office. I do want to see the Democratic party remain true to its principles in the nation, and purge and purify itself in the state.

On the foregoing basis I submit my name for the action of the voters at the April primaries.

ASHER R. JOHNSON,
Bradford, Pa., Jan. 22, 1912.

We are authorized to announce that F. Gray Meek, of Bellefonte, will be a candidate for delegate to the Democratic National Convention, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters of the twenty-first Congressional District, as expressed at the primaries, April 13th.

Repeats, 'Not a Candidate.'

Mr. Roosevelt on August 18 last wrote to A. P. Moore, publisher of the Pittsburg Leader, asking him to cease advocating the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt. The letter follows:

"Dear Mr. Moore:
"I very greatly appreciate your kind and friendly feelings, but I am sure you will understand me when I say that I must ask not only you, but every friend I have, to see to it that no movement whatever is made to bring me forward for the nomination in 1912.

"I feel that I have a right to ask all my friends, if necessary, actively to work to prevent any such movement. I should esteem it a genuine calamity if such a movement were undertaken.

"Again thanking you for what you have said, and, moreover, thanking you in advance for following my wishes in this matter, as I know you will do, I am, very sincerely,
"THEODORE ROOSEVELT"

Tusseyville.

Those who attended the funeral of Charles A. Ishler last Tuesday were: Mrs. F. S. Musser and daughter, Mrs. Hattie Lorenz and Lloyd and Glean, Mrs. John Bitner and daughter Laura, and Adam Martz. F. S. Musser, F. R. Woodward and Thomas Donnelly accompanied the body to Centre Hall, the former remaining until the following day. The floral tributes were pink and white carnations by the mother, sister and aunt; white carnations and ferns by the Musser family; a wheel by the railroad men, and a tomahawk by the order of Red Men. The pall bearers were Lloyd Musser, Mr. Decker and Mr. Lytle, of Altoona; Elmer Miller, Domer Ishler and Bruce Ishler. Rev. Barry was the officiating minister.

LETTERS FROM SUBSCRIBERS

Reporter Subscribers' Correspondent Column—New Department.

HUNTINGDON, March 4, 1912.

Dear Mr. Smith:
Please correct the item in last week's Reporter.

The Junior Band which gave the concert February 22nd is a citizen organization composed of young men of the town. I would not be allowed to give a concert with inmates of the Reformatory. Thanking you for past favors and wishing you and the Reporter success. I remain

Yours truly,
W. A. BROWN.

Wolf-Neff.

Charles V. Wolfe, of Avis, and Miss Maude E. Neff, of Tusseyville, were united in marriage by Rev. R. Raymond Jones, at the Reformed parsonage, Centre Hall, Wednesday afternoon of last week. The young people, both of whom are well known to many of the Reporter readers, have the best wishes of all.

LOCALS.

Cold weather continues.

Eggs dropped to sixteen cents on Monday, yet our city cousins continue to talk about the high cost of living.

Hon. Leonard Rhone is in Harrisburg attending a meeting of the legislative committee of the State Grange.

John C. Bailey, who teaches the Manor Hill public school, was taken ill on Tuesday evening and was obliged to close his school.

The Mill Hall state bank, with a capital stock of $35,000 opened for business Wednesday of this week. Clarence Dunn is the cashier.

Mathias Weigley, of near Spring Mills, is hauling timber to the saw mill with which he intends making improvements about his home.

C. N. Kryder, the senior member of the lumbering firm of Kryder & McElfresh, at Covington, Virginia, has changed his place of residence from that place to White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia.

Rev. O. G. Martin was returned as pastor of the Spring Mills charge and Rev. J. H. Rosenberger to the Sugar Valley charge of the Evangelical church by the conference just adjourned at Allentown.

William Lingle, who for six years has been employed by J. C. Packer, near Sunbury, was in Centre Hall for several days. He is very well pleased with his work in Northumberland county, and purposes continuing there.

Forest Miller, a pupil at Rock Hill school, near Linden Hall, while on his way to school Monday fell on the ice and was rendered unconscious. He remained in that condition for the greater part of the day, but is now able to be about again.

At the Huyett-Luse sale of live stock, west of Centre Hall, eight of the eleven milk cows that will be sold are fresh; and there are twenty-one lambs with the flock of twenty-eight ewes. The horses, young cattle, hogs, and in fact all the stock is choice.

Wallace Geary will move onto the Colyer farm, in the Seven Mountains, purchased sometime ago by his father, David Geary. It is the intention of the owner and his son to make a desperate effort to improve the fertility of the soil, and make the old farm yield its best.

Spring Mills, Penn Hall, Linden Hall, Bysburg, and all sections of Potter township were well represented at the concert. The troupe came here from Petersburg and Wednesday morning went to Bellewood. Harrisburg and Pittsburg are two points they will sing at before going to Oilboma, from which section they just came a short time ago.

It is more than a month yet until you will get an opportunity to cast your vote at the primaries, but in the meantime make it your business to find out just what the candidates stand for. You may have some very dear personal friends among the candidates, but they may represent just the opposite from what you would like to see accomplished. Acquaint yourself early in the campaign with the intention of the candidates.

Wednesday morning Rev. S. A. Snyder, who for three years has been pastor of the United Evangelical charge with residence at Centre Hall, went to Look Haven to attend the annual conference. It is the wish of his parishioners that he be retained, and their request, no doubt, will be granted. Rev. Snyder and family are held in high esteem, by not only the members of the denomination to which he belongs but by all church people.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller gave a dinner to a number of the little friends of their seven-years-old daughter Grace, on Saturday afternoon, the occasion being her birthday. The children who enjoyed the festivities were: Florence Kraps, Hazel Ripks, Margaret Bartholomew, Marlon McCluhan, Mary Miller, Helen Lucas, Steryl Bressler, Tamar Miller, and Paul Miller. The guests presented their little hostess with a number of presents.

Harris township.

Mrs. Sarah Gingerich is visiting in Altoona.

A. S. Allen, of Centre Hill, spent Saturday at Boolsburg.

George Houtz and Roy Coxey, departed on Tuesday for a trip to Nebraska.

Forest Bible, of Oak Hall, started on Monday to help Elmer Houtz at butchering.

Mrs. Sarah Stover, of Centre Hill, is visiting at the home of her daughter Mrs. Elmer Ishler.

Jacob Meyer and William Stover attended the funeral of Miss Elizabeth Davis on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ira Rishel and sister Miss Laura Keller, spent Friday and Saturday in Bellefonte.

Fresh bread and cakes from Altoona and Harrisburg can be had by calling at the Harrison and Stuart stores.

Miss Edie Rishel returned from Bellefonte on Saturday where she has spent the last six months taking instructions in dress making.

Miss Myra Kimpfort, of State College, spent the time from Saturday until Monday at Boolsburg. Miss Kimpfort and Miss Rhoda Harrison are spending this week in Philadelphia where they are visiting with relatives.

Miss Margaretta Gohsen spent Saturday and Sunday at State College. She attended a missionary service in the auditorium on Sunday morning. The address was delivered by Miss Montgomery, of Brooklyn, New York.

Miss Ella Rhone who spent the winter at Wilmington, Delaware, was a guest at the L. Mothersbaugh home on Friday. On Friday evening she went to Bellefonte and until Tuesday was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Klier, when she departed for her home at Terminal Island, California.

Relatives and friends who attended the funeral of Mrs. Emma Myers were Alvin S. Myers, of Jacksonville, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wolf, Mrs. Mary Meek, Mrs. Ira Hess, Charles Stamm, Miss Mary Stamm, Frank Stamm, Mrs. Thomas Forshey, Mrs. John Gramley, Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Emory Shires, of Roaring Springs; Mr. and Mrs. William Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Myers, of Alexandria; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myers and daughter May, of Pine Grove Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers, of Fairbrook; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Musser, of Ferguson township; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dale, of Dale Summit; Mr. and Mrs. John Ishler, Mrs. Adaline Kline and son Roy, Mrs. Adam Ziegler, of State College, and Joseph Myers, of Axemann.

Linden Hall.

Mrs. Mary Wilson, who has been quite sick for sometime, is improving.

Richard Brooks and Alvin Stump visited friends in Altoona and Phillipsburg last week.

Saturday evening a story and song service was rendered in the U. E. Church, which was well attended.

Harry Davis and sister Mrs. Julia Stone, of Bellewood, arrived here Saturday to attend the funeral of their aunt, Miss Davis.

Arber Cumings moves on the 1st of April to the Houtz farm and Edward Cunningham the present tenant will move to Bellefonte.

Wednesday William Brooks moved to the farm occupied by his son Lee and Lee Brooks moved to the farm which his father vacated.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Ross are entertaining their neices Misses Ida and Martha Moyer, of Hiwatha, Kansas, and Mr. and Mrs. Sechrist, of Lebanon county.

While returning from the funeral of Miss Davis, the horse driven by Mrs. John Fielding became unmanageable and upset the sleigh, throwing her and little Virginia White out. Mrs. Fielding was severely cut about the head and face. She was taken to the home of Miss Davis and a doctor summoned, and after her wounds were dressed she was taken to her home. The horse was caught later in the lane leading to the Weaver farm.

The Coughs of Children

They may not cough today, but what about tomorrow? Better be prepared for it when it comes. Ask your doctor about keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. Then when the hard cold or cough first appears you have a doctor's medicine at hand. This cough medicine is especially good for children. No anodynes. No alcohol.

Many a child is called dull and stupid when the whole trouble is due to a lazy liver. We firmly believe your own doctor will tell you that an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills, sugar-coated, will do such children a great deal of good. Ask him. Made by the J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

GREAT REDUCTION SALE

Having purchased the general merchandise business of J. Frank Smith, at Centre Hall Station, we are offering a variety of goods at very greatly reduced prices. These goods include Calicoes, Gingham, Woolen Sweaters and Caps.

It will pay you to come and look over our stock and participate in some of the many bargains now being offered.

A New Line of Laces and Embroideries

A Fresh Supply of GROCERIES

You are invited to give our store a call and we will try to make your visit here one of profit to you.

THE STORE PROPERTY ROOM.

Holds Articles For Use In Window and Special Displays.

Every one has heard of the theatrical property room—the place where storied artificialities are laid carefully away to be ready for the call of the next emergency. But few persons know that every big store has its property room, too, and that its wonders are even more entrancing than those of the funny cupboards "back stage."

The shop's property room is filled with articles used for window display and special decorations, and, while the theatrical property is largely imitation, the store's property is real.

Rare old tapestries are laid away in the dim hidden chamber, to be used when occasion requires as backgrounds for Paris hats in the Broadway or Fifth avenue windows, as draperies hung beside a choice collection of new hand bags or slippers or fans. Priceless vases from Italy, strange carved chests, wonderful screens—all these lend enchantment to the background of the window display or bring a real intrinsic loveliness to the salon wherein is shown the season's newest millinery.

Many a fashionable New York shop decorates its windows now and then with but one hat, one costume, one piece of furniture. The rest is decoration, background, "property."

The property room is almost always in some queer, faraway corner of the store, a room badly lighted, well nigh inaccessible. But it is full of treasures. It calls back the atmosphere of medieval romance. It is comparable only to an ancient English attic—New York Times.

Why There Was No Tip.

In a downtown restaurant which is usually crowded during the midday meal time a waiter took pains to secure places at one of his tables for two men who had been waiting for some time. The waiter received the thanks of both men and attended to their wants in a highly satisfactory manner. When the check was presented one of the men paid, received the change and left nothing on the salver for the waiter. "You forgot to tip the waiter," said his companion. "No, I didn't. He's my landlord."—New York Tribune.

Bessie Wasn't That Kind.

"I wouldn't drink out of that cup," said little Johnnie to the well-dressed young stranger, "that's Bessie's cup, and she's very particular who drinks out of it."

"Ah," said the young man as he drank the cup dry. "I feel honored to drink out of Bessie's cup. Bessie is your youngest sister, isn't she?" "Not much! Bessie is my dog."—Ladies' Home Journal.
