FOR REORGANIZATION.

The Reporter Advocates the Reorganization of the Democratic Party in Pennsylvania Because it Believes the Old Organization Impotent and Partially Discredited.

The Centre Reporter advocates the reorganization of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania because it believes the old organization impotent and partially discredited.

It believes the old organization, that for years has managed the Democratic party in Pennsylvania, to be contented with Republican rule in Pennsylvania, because under Republican rule a number of them hold office, and do so without opposition from the Republican party. Notably among these so favored is J. K. P. Hall, who has been re-elected to the state senate in a Republican senatorial district. The Philadelphia section of the Democratic party has also been able to give to a number of its leaders berths that could be obtained only because of the ability of these leaders to deliver votes at the poles for Republicans when most needed.

The Reporter favors the reorganization of the Democratic party because the managers defeated the will of the people at the Allentown convention, by refusing to nominate William H. Berry for governor. The managers refused him the nomination for no other reason than to make certain the election of the Republican nominee, whoever that might be.

The Reporter favors reorganization of the Democratic party because it believes, as do the great majority of the Democrats of Pennsylvania, that the managers consulted with the Republican leaders in the state and agreed to and did hold the Democratic state convention in 1910 before the Republican convention, so that the Republicans would have the advantage of knowing just what the Allentown convention would do. That is the only instance in all political history where a minority party held its nomination first.

sylvania because it believes the leaders total of 2,230,710 linear feet, or 421 of the "old guard" are not sincere; they have placed personal ambition in the past above party success, and there is no evidence of repeutance; to party in the state is of more concern to them than success at the polls ; these leaders have been accused of all kinds of crookedness-crookedness without name and number-and can no longer lead except to the detriment of the party and to the advantage of the Republican organization.
