GEORGE A. BEZNER,
Bellefonte, Pa.

For County Chairman.

For State Delegate.

LEMONT, Pa., March 2, 1912
The Centre Reporter,
Centre Hall, Pa.

GENTLEMEN: I authorize you to announce my name as a candidate for delegate to the State Convention, subject to the will of the Democratic voters at the primaries on April 13th, 1912.

Very truly,
I. J. DREES

We are authorized to announce that Abraham Weber, of Howard, is a candidate for delegate to the Democratic State Convention, subject to the decision of the primary election, April 13th, 1912.

For National Delegate.

To the Democratic voters of the 21st Congressional district, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for delegate to the Democratic National Convention in Baltimore, June 25th, 1912.

To the voters of my home county of McKean, no explanation as to my brand of Democracy is necessary, but to the citizens of Cameron, Clearfield and Centre counties a statement is due. I stand for that type of democracy represented by William Jennings Bryan, Champ Clark, Woodrow Wilson, and other progressive leaders, and believe with them, that the rights of men take precedence over the rights of money, and in the welfare of the masses, above that of the special interests dominating commerce and finance.

I favor the nomination of Woodrow Wilson for President, not that he is any better than many other Democratic leaders, but first, because he is especially available.

I favor the nomination for Vice President of some equally good democrat, preferably a western man, such as Champ Clark, or Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, Ollie James, of Kentucky, or Chamberlain, of Oregon.

I am unalterably opposed to the nomination of Harmon, of Ohio, or Underwood, of Alabama, as I consider them the representatives of that reactionary element that seeks to "Aldrichize" the Democratic Party.

I favor the reorganization of the Democratic Party in Pennsylvania by the elimination of the Guffey-Hall-Donnely dominance, which can no longer attract the independent citizen, and has lost the respect and confidence of the vast majority of the rank and file.

If I am chosen as a delegate I shall work for the foregoing program.

I am not now, never have been, and do not expect to be, a candidate for any office. I do want to see the Democratic party remain true to its principles in the nation, and purge and purify itself in the state.

On the foregoing basis I submit my name for the action of the voters at the April primaries.
ASHEE K. JOHNSON,
Bradford, Pa., Jan. 22, 1912.

Sales in Penna Valley.

Some of the big sales in the valley will come off within the next two weeks.

Tuesday, 19th, at ten o'clock, J. B. Ream will sell cows, shoats and a large variety of goods.

Wednesday, 20th, an all day sale will be held by Perry K. Detwiler, near Farmers Mills. This will be a clean-up sale, and includes a large farm stock, implements, and household goods.

Thursday, 21st, N. C. Yarnell, at Linden Hall, will sell six horses, twelve cows, three bulls, fifteen heifers, twenty shoats, and a lot of farm implements; sale begins at 10 o'clock.

Tuesday, 20th, at Linden Hall, John M. Wieland will sell all his farm stock and farm implements.

Tuesday, 20th, the Zeigler Brothers, at Aaronburg, will sell four horses, ten Jersey cows, four Jersey heifers, and farm implements. The cattle are a choice lot.

Both the Keystone Gazette and the Bellefonte Republican have announced that they are anti-Roosevelt. But what's the difference, Taft or Roosevelt! Neither of them will be in it at the November election. Roosevelt has already spoiled what little chance there was left to re-elect Taft. The g. o. p. is nothing to T. R. when he is not in the ring as chief clown.

FAVOR ONE CONVENTION.

Reorganizers Call Convention for May 7th, 10 A. M., in Chestnut St. Auditorium Harrisburg.

The Reorganized State Democratic Executive Committee did a number of important things at its meeting in Harrisburg on Tuesday, but among them all, perhaps, the most important, the most significant of the character and purposes of the reorganization movement, was the committee's unanimous approval of the proposition made weeks ago by State Chairman Guthrie to Walter E. Ritter, of Williamsport, claiming to be State Chairman, and rejected by him.

This proposition made and rejected early in January, was to unite with Mr. Ritter and his committee in a joint call for a convention, the roll to be made up under joint supervision, placing on it the names of those shown to be elected by the official certificates, and no others, and to be called by a temporary president to be also jointly selected, and leave to the convention thus organized the decision of all questions.

This proposition unanimously and enthusiastically endorsed by the State Executive Committee, and ordered sent to all members of the State Central Committee and to all who claim to be members, Mr. Ritter included, is one that all Democrats can gladly accept and one that no true Democrat, who has at heart the good of the party and its success, can reject.

It leaves not one decent objection to one convention and clears the way for the complete restoration of the control of the party organization to the voters to whom it belongs.

The Reorganizers convention has been called for May 7th, 10 a. m., in the Chestnut street Auditorium, Harrisburg.

Henry Varner, who has been a resident of Boalsburg for several years, has gone to Milroy where he will be at home with his son. Mrs. Mary Stamm, who was Mr. Varner's housekeeper during the past year, is now keeping house for Cyrus Durst.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knox, who resided at Pittsburg, Kansas, and expect to make their home at Denver, Colorado, spent some time visiting relatives in Pennsylvania. Part of last week they were guests of the Goheen families at Boalsburg. Mr. Knox's mother will be remembered by a number of the Reporter readers as Miss Lizzie Goheen, who was married to A. Boyd Knox, in March 1881. They commenced housekeeping at Cherokee, Iowa, and are still living at that place. Mr. Knox has been in failing health during the last few years, having symptoms of diabetes. Early in the fall his one foot became sore and the disease spread over the ankle, and part of the limb became affected. A specialist was consulted and it was found necessary that the limb should be amputated, which was done, the cut being made above the knee. The limb healed nicely and he is now trying to get around by the use of an artificial leg.
