GEORGE A. BEZNER,

LEMONT, Pa., March 2, 1912.

The Centre Reporter,
Centre Hall, Pa.

GENTLEMEN: I authorize you to announce my name as a candidate for delegate to the State Convention, subject to the will of the Democratic voters at the primaries on April 13th, 1912.

Very truly,
I. J. DREESER.

We are authorized to announce that Abraham Weber, of Howard Borough, is a candidate for delegate to the Democratic State Convention, subject to the decision of the primary election, April 13th, 1912.

For National Delegate.

To the Democratic voters of the 21st Congressional district, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for delegate to the Democratic National Convention in Baltimore, June 29th, 1912.

To the voters of my home county of McKean, no explanation as to my brand of Democracy is necessary, but to the citizens of Cameron, Clearfield and Centre counties a statement is due. I stand for that type of democracy represented by William Jennings Bryan, Champ Clark, Woodrow Wilson, and other progressive leaders, and believe with them, that the rights of men take precedence over the rights of money, and in the welfare of the masses, above that of the special interests dominating commerce and finance.

I favor the nomination of Woodrow Wilson for President, not that he is any better than many other democratic leaders, but first, because he is especially available.

I favor the nomination for Vice President of some equally good democrat, preferably a western man, such as Champ Clark, or Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, Ollie James, of Kentucky, or Chamberlain, of Oregon.

I am unalterably opposed to the nomination of Harmon, of Ohio, or Underwood, of Alabama, as I consider them the representatives of that reactionary element that seeks to "Aldrichize" the Democratic Party.

I favor the reorganization of the Democratic Party in Pennsylvania by the elimination of the Guffey - Hall - Donnelly dominance, which can no longer attract the independent citizen, and has lost the respect and confidence of the vast majority of the rank and file.

If I am chosen as a delegate I shall work for the foregoing program.

I am not now, never have been, and do not expect to be, a candidate for any office. I do want to see the Democratic party remain true to its principles in the nation, and purge and purify itself in the state.

On the foregoing basis I submit my name for the action of the voters at the April primaries.

ASHER R. JOHNSON,
Bradford, Pa., Jan. 22, 1912.

We are authorized to announce that F. Gray Meek, of Bellefonte, will be a candidate for delegate to the Democratic National Convention, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters of the twenty-first Congressional District, as expressed at the primaries, April 13th.

We are authorized to announce that W. A. Hegarty, of Clearfield, will be a candidate for delegate to the Democratic National Convention, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters of the twenty-first Congressional District, as expressed at the primaries, April 13th.

Hoping for a Cool Summer.

From Democrat and Sentinel, Lewistown.

Since girls and women have been wearing open and low-topped waists all through the cold weather, a horrible thought arises as to what is likely to happen when they dress for the coming summer weather.

More Pennsylvania Mountain Stories.

Monday of this week, Hon. Henry W. Shoemaker, of New York, in company with J. H. Chatham, of McElhattan, drove to the Bear Meadows, and on their way favored the Reporter with their presence. Mr. Shoemaker, born, reared, and educated in the city loves the country best, and spends much of his time in the mountainous sections of the Keystone state, where he gets his inspiration for more mountain stories. He is also a business man, and has offices at 26 W. 53rd street, is the owner of several newspapers in Pennsylvania and other states, mixes in politics a bit, but story writing with scenes set in all sections of Central Pennsylvania, is his first love.

A few weeks ago a four hundred page book, entitled "More Pennsylvania Mountain Stories," found its way to the Reporter's desk through the kindness of the author, Mr. Shoemaker. There are twenty-six chapters, and each chapter is a story with a local setting in Central Pennsylvania Mountains—"Cora Pemberton's Biography" and the "Pitcher Plant" relating to scenes on Paddy Mountain and the Bear Meadows, respectively. The titles of the various chapters follows:

When the Pigeons Fly.
The Last Elk.
The Passing of a Ghost.
The Story of Lewis's Lake.
The Last Pack.
The Story of the Sulphur Spring.

Story of the Picture Rocks.
Vindication of Frederick Stump.
The Cross on the Rock.
The Fate of George Dupre.
Billy Anderson's Ghost.
The Dreamer.
The Call of the Track.
The Ghost of the Pine.

The Courage of Peter Pentz.

Farmers scored one in the decision written by Judge Henderson of the superior Court, in which he declared that oleo possessing a yellow color within the range of yellow butter is illegal. The oleo manufacturers made an effort to make it appear that if oleo did not resemble butter with its customary June tint, it (oleo) was not colored in imitations of butter. The dairy and food commissioners will continue the vigorous enforcement of the law on this line.

Nervous? Thin? Pale?

Are you easily tired, lack your usual vigor and strength? Then your digestion must be poor, your blood must be thin, your nerves must be weak. You need a strong tonic. You need Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. We believe your doctor will endorse these statements. Ask and find out.

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.

The Most Progressive Farmers

in nearly all localities are building their farm improvements of cement. Sidewalks, steps, cellars, well curbs, cisterns, posts, troughs, barn floors, and so on, may all be built of cement, and in many cases, the first cost is less than for wood. Besides, cement construction is clean, everlasting and cannot be burned.

Why don't you Build of Cement? Come talk it over with us—maybe we can help you.
