Children's Party.

Wednesday was the third anniversary of the birth of Agnes Geary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary, and to celebrate the event the following little children were invited to the Geary home from 2 to 4 o'clock: Helen Smithgall, Helen Brown, William Musser, Byers Ripka, Samuel Snyder, Elizabeth Bartholomew and Miriam Moore.

LOCALS

Mrs. Shannon Boal suffered a light stroke of paralysis a few days ago.

Many of the side line water pipes that had been frozen from two to three months, opened this week.

Entertainments in Grange Arcadia Friday and Saturday evenings under the management of the local I. O. O. F.

Miss Sadie Gfrerer is in the Bellefonte hospital for treatment. She has been in delicate health for some months.

A number of the school teachers in Potter township will finish their terms of school this week, and none of them later than next week.

A. N. Neese, of near Spring Mills, moved to near Hartleton last week. He is very much pleased with his new home, a farm he purchased, and finds himself in a good neighborhood.

Leroy Mench, of Aaronsburg, a graduate of the Peabody music school, Baltimore, Maryland, will begin teaching music on April 1st. He solicits pupils wishing piano and organ instruction.

Messrs. William H. Homan, H. H. Mark and C. M. Arney went to York on Monday for the purpose of looking over a lot of mules on private sale in that city. All returned without having made purchases.

Squire Auman, of Coburn, was in Centre Hall last week. He is engaged in the lumbering business, and was in Nittany Valley at one of his mills, and on his return reached town too late to board the train for Coburn.

Paul Shaeffer, who had been injured while coasting on Nittany Mountain above Centre Hall, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital a second time. In addition to the original injuries, he is now suffering from erysipelas.

Mrs. W. A. Krise, Misses Emma McCoy, Savilla Reasick, Mable Arney, and Carrie Sweetwood attended a meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Huntingdon, at Lewistown.

Samuel Shoop arrived in Centre Hall on Tuesday from the state of Indiana, where he has lived during the past year or more. Mrs. Shoop stopped in Altoona, but will be here later when Mr. Shoop finally decides which of several houses he will rent.

Wilbur J. Dabem, on Sunday evening, 17th, lost his pocketbook between Potters Mills and Old Fort. Any one who had the good fortune of finding it will confer a favor by reporting, and Mr. Dabem will make good for the finder's trouble and honesty.

The people in and about Rebersburg regret to see Landford Faxon leave their town. He has been a good landlord and used his guests well. Clarence Stover, a native of Rebersburg, has arranged to buy the hotel, provided the court will permit the transferring of the license.

Miss Lou Dingee, of Altoona, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rosman, and on Saturday was called home on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. Mollie Williams, who died very suddenly. She was the eldest daughter of Jonas Dingee, deceased, and was aged sixty years.

The Rebersburg Lutheran people had extended a call to Rev. Hassinger, of Greensburg, but when the minister's parishioners found he might leave them his salary was raised, and this induced him to say that for the present, at least, Greensburg will continue to be his field of work.

Miss Ida Novey, an attractive Philipsburg young lady, a bookkeeper in the Novey's Second-Hand Store, has sued Simons Ziff for $5000 because he failed to fulfill his promise to marry her. He is under $1500 bail to appear at the May term of court in Bellefonte. Ziff is a hawker of green groceries.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Michael Kerstetter died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Reuben Welty, at Bellefonte, where she and her husband made their home, Tuesday morning. Interment will be made at Pleasant Gap, Friday morning, services previous at the Welty home.

Before her marriage the deceased was Miss Rebecca Musser. She was aged seventy-six years and two months. There survive the husband, and five of the six children born to her, namely, William and Ammon, Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Samuel Gettig, James, and Mrs. Reuben Welty, Bellefonte. There also survive two brothers and two sisters—Samuel and John Musser, Aaronsburg; Mrs. Reuben Harter, Coburn; Mrs. Allen Wert, Brush Valley.

Mrs. Leah Julia Colyer, nee Campbell, widow of William Colyer, died at the home of her son, Charles Colyer, near Linden Hall, Friday morning, aged seventy-three years, three months and fourteen days. Interment was made Monday, at Tusseyville, services by Rev. S. A. Snyder. Ten children survive, namely: John, Waddle; Frank, Millheim; Mrs. George Horner, Mrs. Jacob Zong, Daniel, and Charles, Linden Hall; Samuel, Lewistown; Arthur, Hecla; Mrs. Charles Bitner, Potters Mills; Mrs. William Taylor, Boalsburg.

Frank McCoy, one of Bellefonte's prominent citizens, died Sunday morning, aged sixty-eight years. Interment was made Tuesday. Mrs. McCoy, nee Miss Eleanor Allison, and two children, Miss Anna and John, survive.

Mr. McCoy was the son of Dr. John McCoy. He graduated from Pennsylvania State College, and became manager of the McCoy & Linn Iron Works at Milesburg, and later became the principal owner of the only charcoal iron furnace in the state.

Entertainment March 29 and 30.

Under the auspices of the local order of I. O. O. F., Seth T. Fruit will appear in Grange Arcadia, Friday and Saturday evenings, March 29th and 30th, in illustrated lectures. The subjects are:

- (1). A trip through Colorado and the Grand Canyon. Illustrated by slides and moving pictures.
- (2). An evening with the authors—Poe, Whittier and Longfellow.
- (3). An evening with "Rip Van Winkle," "Uncle Tom's Cabin," or "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." Illustrated by slides and moving pictures.

Admission, 10 and 15 cents; reserved seats, 20 cents.

LOCALS

Mrs. Irvin Musser, of Millinburg, arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meyer the latter part of last week and will remain for a short time.

A regular meeting of Progress Grange will be held Saturday afternoon in Grange Arcadia. A class of nearly thirty will be given the third and fourth degree.

Lloyd H. Duck, who lived west of Centre Hall, but who during the past year was on a farm near Bellefonte moved to Millinburg. He is a son of Frank P. Duck, of near Madisonburg.

Keep in mind the entertainments in Grange Arcadia on Friday and Saturday evenings under the auspices of the local order of I. O. O. F. The chart will be at Kreamer's store Thursday and Friday.

The Syracuse reversible riding plow, also called the one-way plow, is built with a view of giving strength without giving it a clumsy awkward appearance. It will plow ridges and smooth land, turn your furrows up or down the hill; draft is light compared to the work done; works equally well with either two or three horses. These plows are here for inspection.—J. H. and S. E. Weber, Centre Hall and Oak Hall.

Poetic Justice.

Policeman—When long to rest the world had sunk I found this person roaring drunk. Prisoner—Denial, sir, I cannot plead; drunk I was—oh, blind indeed. Magistrate—To show how poorly drinking pays I'll send you up for thirty days.

Three Letters.

Bill—He's considerable of a letter writer. He wrote me three yesterday. Jill—Three, did you say? Bill—Yes; L. O. U.—Yonkers Statesman.

Think of your own faults and probably you will talk less about the faults of others.
