REORGANIZ ERS ARE REGULAR.

Every Democrat Has the Privilege to Oppose Quffey Without Violating Party

Obligations-The Majority Will Rule, The members of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania who are striving to elect new officers for the state organization are no less regular, are no less true Democrats, are no less loyal than those who are striving to retain the old regime-Guffey, Hall, Ritter, etc. Every member of the Democratic party in the Keystone state has the right to express himself on Saturday, April 13, on the question of leadership in the state. If he prefers the continued rule of Guffey and Hall he will vote for a delegate to the State Convention who at the State Convention will vote for Mr. Guffey for State Chairman; the Democrats who think a better leader than Mr. Guffey should be the State Chairman, will vote for a delegate to the State Convention who will vote for some other man than Mr. Guffey for State Chairman. This is a privilege every Democrat has, and he has the right to exercise it without compromising himself. The election on Saturday, April 13th, is for no other purpose than to give the Democratic voter an opportunity to express himself as to his preference for State Chairman as well as for county chairman and members of the Legislature, and delegates to the state and national conventions.

Mr. Guffey and his followers are in effect taking the stand that all Demo- (supply) crats who do not favor Mr. Guffey for state chairman are not regular; they assume that they (Guffey, Hall, Garman, etc.) are the Democratic party ; that to be a Simon-pure Democrat one must have the Guffey brand-iron mark on him. It appears that the great majority of the Democratic voters in Pennsylvania are no longer willing to subject to this brauding, and April 13th is the day for taking account.

The large majority of Democrata who are opposed to Mr. Guffey have not parted from Democratic beliefs, but on the contrary, they are the most reliable element when party principle is involved. Those opposed to Mr. Guffey are opposed to him and the state leaders because they are convinced the organization controlled by them is not conducted in the interest of the Democrats of Pennsylvania, but is made to serve the Republican state organization, the Ply) beneficiaries being such of the Guffey followers who are willing to aid the Republican organization when occasion demands it.

In other words the Democratic party in Pennsylvania has been a most valuable asset to the Republican machine. The nomination of Mr. Grim was an illustration of this. Mr. Munson was driven from the Allentown convention, and Berry was defeated by Guffey-Hall controlled delegates. That Mr. Berry was the choice of the people cannot be denied; the vote throughout the state proves it; the leaders had no regard for the wishes of the people at the Allentown convention, and they have no regard now for their wishes.

If the Democratic party in Pennsylvania is to become an effective opposition to the Republican party in the state, there must be leaders elected who will be willing at all times and to the Republican state machine; leaders who will not treat with the Republican organization; leaders who will not aid in the election of Republicans in Philadelphia; leaders who will not sacrifice their caudidates for a clear senatorial field; leaders who tions and serve the people.
