

DEATHS.

Col. Edward R. Chambers died at his home in Bellefonte on Saturday, after an illness dating back three or more years. Interment was made Tuesday, Dr. Youn and Dr. Wilcox being the officiating ministers. His age was a little over fifty years, having been born February 24, 1857, in Virginia.

When six years old, Mr. Chambers accompanied his father, Rev. Elijah Chambers, a Methodist minister, from Virginia to Half Moon Valley. In 1881 he was graduated from Pennsylvania State College, and in 1883 he was admitted to the Bellefonte bar, where he practiced his profession ever since, gaining for himself a reputation as a criminal lawyer.

For eight years Col. Chambers was connected with the Auditor General's Department at Harrisburg and audited the accounts of various charitable institutions, and for an equal length of time he was a revenue collector. Governor Pennypacker made him a member of his staff.

Mrs. Chambers, nee Miss Mary Worth, and three children survive: Frederick and Isaac, Philadelphia; and Miss Helen, at home. There also survive three brothers, James, William and George, of Bellefonte; and one sister, Mrs. W. V. Larimer, also of Bellefonte.

Daniel K. Geiss, died at his home in Girard, Kansas, on Sunday and interment will be made to-day (Thursday) at Girard. His age was sixty-nine years and twenty-eight days.

Mr. Geiss was a son of the late David Geiss, who was one of the early settlers in Potter township, and with his family lived at the Stone Mill, which mill he operated. Later he moved to the McClellan farm at Tussey Sink, and thereafter went to Joliet, Illinois, his younger sons accompanying him. The deceased lived at Joliet for many years, but ten years ago moved to Girard, where he died. He was engaged in the real estate business and was well to do.

Mrs. Geiss, whose maiden name was Addie Kern, and was reared near Lewistown, survives, as do also his four children, namely, Ward and Miss Edith, Girard, Kansas; Mrs. Beulah Battle and Lloyd, Joliet, Illinois. Two brothers also survive: David K. of Bellefonte; and Jacob K., of Beloit, Kansas.

The death of William H. Smith occurred at his home at Madisonburg, Monday night, due to a paralytic stroke. Interment will be made at the Union church, Farmers Mills, Friday forenoon, services by Rev. W. F. Barry. His age was almost sixty-four years.

Mr. Smith was a carpenter by trade, and was well known about Centre Hall. A wife, nee Mary Emerick, survives, and also three children: Mrs. Mabel Yearick, Madisonburg; Albert, Winburn; and Miss Annie, at home. Five brothers—Isaac, Penn Cave; Andrew, Mackeyville; Howard, Nittany; James, Pitsclair; Benjamin, Philadelphia, and one sister, Mrs. Sarah Homan, Millheim, also survive.

John Trafford, who had been ill since the holidays, died in Bellefonte, Sunday afternoon. The remains were taken to Williamsport, where interment was made Wednesday. Mr. Trafford was a candidate for the nomination of register, and held minor positions at the court house. A wife and seven children survive.

The Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph contains the announcement of the death of Ralph S., the eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Wiser. The death occurred Sunday. The father is well known in Centre Hall, where for a number of years he was employed by W. W. Bobb.

Deaths of Prominent Men.

Daniel Bower, of Rote, Clinton county, a well known gentleman, died at the age of eighty-two years.

Henry Axtell Hall, for sixty years a resident of Williamsport, died in that city at the age of ninety-five years, one month and twenty-nine days.

GOOD

YOU don't have to paint good roofing to make it wear. That's why Three Ply RELIANCE RUBBER ROOFING, "The Roof Durable," is guaranteed for ten years; Two Ply for eight years and One Ply for five years without painting, costing, or attention of any kind! No other roofing is made so good—no other is guaranteed so fairly—and no other will serve you so faithfully for so long a time.

RELIANCE RUBBER ROOFING

"The Roof Durable" costs no more than unguaranteed roofing and it wears two or three times as long. If you are anxious to get a roof you can rely on in every weather; one that is not going to keep on costing you money every year or two for painting and repairing, you will do well to use RELIANCE. Come in, write or phone. Get the facts—you will prefer it.
