

WHAT WILL CURE MY BACK?

Common sense will do more to cure backache than anything else. It will tell you whether the kidneys are sore, swollen and aching. It will tell you in that case that there is no use trying to cure it with a plaster. If the passages are scant or too frequent, proof that there is kidney trouble is complete. Then common sense will tell you to use Doan's Kidney Pills, the best recommended special kidney remedy.

A TYPICAL CASE—

Fred A. Campbell, Atlantic Ave., Boothbay Harbor, Me., says: "I cannot describe the awful pain I endured. The kidneys were in terrible condition; pain in voiding urine was intense and often passed blood. For weeks I was laid up in bed. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cured me after I had doctored without relief."

Probably Made a Hit.
A young woman who presides over one of the kindergarten schools of Cambridge appeared at her desk recently attired in a new close-fitting skirt. With no thought other than the conducting of her regular routine work, the teacher went about her duties. She noticed, however, that one of her charges was paying little attention to his work, but following her with his eyes wherever she chanced to go. Approaching the little fellow with the intention of ascertaining the trouble, she said: "Well, Tommy—" Before she could go any further the youngster shook his boyish head and said: "Say, teacher, that's a classy skirt you've got on!"—Boston Post.

Life Sentence.
The marquis of Queensberry, apropos of the long sentence of Foulke E. Brandt, said at a dinner in New York: "It reminds me of an incident in London. A certain peer drove in a taxi cab to Westminster and, when he got out, gave the driver a very small tip. 'The driver mistook him for a member of the house of commons and snarled: 'I hope you get turned out next election and don't never get in again!' 'Don't worry, my friend,' said the peer, as he set off for the house of lords. 'Don't worry,—I'm in for life.'"

How Aggravating.
Brown—I saw a man drop twenty stories the other day, and it was a caution the way he swore.
Greene—Swore after dropping twenty stories?
Brown—Yes. They were in a magazine he had just bought, and he dropped it in the mud.—Judge.

ROUSING THE IRE OF UNCLE SAM

Mexican Rebels Had Better Change Tactics.

DAY OF RECKONING COMING

Their Interference With the Official Mail Of American Consuls Causing a Feeling Of Aggravation At Washington.

Washington—Mexican rebels are rapidly rousing the ire of the United States government, and while no steps of retaliation have been discussed as yet, it is almost certain that the revolutionists will never obtain sympathy or recognition here.

Interference of the rebels with official mail of American consuls and the summary execution of Thomas Fountain, an American gunner, in defiance of protest from this country, have caused a feeling of aggravation at the State Department.

Though the United States is practically powerless at present to compel more courtesy from the rebels, it is felt that a heavy reckoning is awaiting some of the insurrecto leaders.

It is the official view in Washington that if the rebels, made desperate by their failure to secure supplies necessary to a successful campaign, are trying to force intervention in Mexico, their deliberate intentions are doomed to failure. As notice has been served on Americans to keep out of harm's way in Mexico, it is argued that the administration cannot be held accountable for evil results following a disregard of President Taft's warning.

Military leaders in Mexico, federal or rebel, who in violation of international rules of war, deliberately bring about the execution of a prisoner of war, are considered guilty of murder under international law. If a rebel leader, having caused the death of an American, comes within the jurisdiction of the United States, he is certain to be arrested and turned over to the Mexican government, with the expectation that he would be tried on the charge of murder.

The rebels seem to be confining their efforts during the past few days to harassing railroad trains, killing officials in some instances and delaying traffic generally.

The action of Yaqui Indians in firing upon trains and the burning of a bridge on the line running out of Guaymas, Sonora, has caused the complete abandonment of service on that road.

WON IT FOR THE REBELS.

An American's Gallant Fighting In Mexico.

Kansas City—Tracey Richardson, 23 years old, a Kansas City boy, though shot through the lungs by federal bullets at the recent battle of Jimenez, won the day for the rebel forces under General Orozco when he climbed back into the saddle of his machine gun and swept the government trenches. Under cover of the firing, the rebel cavalry charged, routing the enemy.

Richardson has served in three military campaigns. First he served with Estrada in Nicaragua, then with Christmas in Honduras and in the present uprising in Mexico.

ROOSEVELT'S GREAT RUN.

Governor Wilson Practically Unanimous Choice Of The Delegates Elected.

Philadelphia—The primary election in Pennsylvania resulted in a landslide for Colonel Roosevelt.

Of the 64 delegates elected in the 22 districts fully 50 are pledged to vote for Roosevelt. Added to this is the probability that the Republican State Convention will choose 12 delegates-at-large to the National Convention, which will be controlled by the anti-Taft element, insuring at least 62 delegates for Roosevelt from this State.

On the Democratic ticket Woodrow Wilson was the practically unanimous choice of the delegates chosen to the Baltimore Convention.

In addition to the national delegates the voters chose candidates to State conventions of both parties, which will name 12 delegates-at-large. On the Republican side these will in all probability be for President Taft, while the Democrats are solid for Wilson, both factions of the party having declared for him.

In Philadelphia Taft carried the first three Congressional districts by about three to one. The Fourth, Fifth and Sixth were carried for Roosevelt.

President Taft Worth $51,940.
Cincinnati—President Taft's personal tax return now on file at the Hamilton County Courthouse here shows that he is $20,720 richer in property subject to taxation than he was last year. In that time he has accumulated $50,000 worth of stocks, while last year he held only $30,000 worth. His cash has decreased from $3,720 to $840 and his debts are listed as $6,500. The total value of the President's property is given as $51,940.

COMMERCIAL

Weekly Review of Trade and Market Reports.

Bradstreet's says:

"While good and bad conditions conspire to give an irregular appearance to trade, there is an undeniably better feeling in evidence in the larger lines of wholesale and retail trade, except in the sections immediately affected by unfavorable happenings. Good features are the arrival of fairly settled spring weather at many points, the appearance of hitherto belated Easter demand at retail, further improvement in iron and steel and the settlement of many labor disputes in the textile and other trades by the granting of higher wages. On the other hand, the influence of past heavy rainfall and the melting of snows in the valleys of most Western rivers has resulted in widespread damaging floods and fears of further injury; the excess of moisture in the soil delays crop preparation and planting. North and South, and impairs country roads and the idleness of nearly 400,000 coal miners tends to restrict seasonal activities, transportation and buying in the sections affected. A survey of the entire situation leaves much to be desired, but it might be observed that political and tariff uncertainties are not so prominently instanced as disturbing elements."

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade Says:

"The growth of business confidence, which is so plainly in evidence, may be greater than the growth in business activity, but the latter steadily increases and is, moreover, supported by substantial contributions to the soundness of general conditions. The better sentiment prevailing in most of the markets is clearly revealed in the reports which come from the different sections of the country and notably from the leading centers of the West and South."

Flattery.
Edward D. Easton, one of the biggest manufacturers of talking machines in the world, has an idea that everybody is as much interested in grand opera as he is. He gives weekly concerts at his home and makes all his servants, who represent various nationalities, listen to them. Once a Swedish housemaid gave signs of intense satisfaction at the hearing of a particularly loud and shrill record by the great soprano, Lina Cavalieri.
"So you like that?" asked Mr. Easton, all puffed up because his grand opera had made such a hit.
"Ay t'ink it bane grand," replied Alma. "It sound to me just lak de way de Ireesh cook she cry las, when hossban' die."—Popular Magazine.

He Was the One.
A small boy with a rather lost and lonesome appearance walked into the country clerk's office at the courthouse. He gazed about him for a time and finally approached Deputy Henry Smiley.
"Please, sir," the lad said timidly, "have you seen anything of a lady around here?"
"Why, yes, sonny," answered Smiley. "I've seen several."
"Well, have you seen any without a little boy?" the lad asked anxiously.
"Yes," replied Smiley.
"Well," said the little chap, as a relieved look crossed his face, "I'm the little boy. Where's the lady?"—Denver Times.
