

REORGANIZERS CONTROL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

110 to 73 Was Standing of Convention Delegates for and against Reorganization—Old Guard Routed at Every Point—Centre County Recognized—Goodhart Sits in Convention Without Ritzer Credentials, and Kurtz is Made a Delegate-at-Large.

The Reorganizers won a glorious victory in Harrisburg on Tuesday. It was a victory that had back of it the great majority of Democratic voters in Pennsylvania. The discredited leaders of the "old guard," which now may be spelled without a capital, were unhorsed. Their strength was but seventy-two delegates against one hundred and ten for Reorganization.

Former Judge James Gordon led the old guard. He was a candidate for permanent chairman, national committeeman and national Delegate-at-large. After the Reorganizers polled their strength in electing Joseph O'Brien, of Scranton, a first-water Reorganizer, permanent chairman over Gordon, the convention went along in a most harmonious way. The program mapped out by the caucus held by the Reorganizers was carried through without deviating a hair's breadth.

Centre county was recognized by making C. R. Kurtz, editor of the Centre Democrat, one of the delegates-at-large to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore, and placing G. L. Goodhart, of Centre Hall, on the credential and resolutions committees, two of the most important committees of the body.

As was previously planned the Reorganizers met in the Chestnut street auditorium and at noon marched to the Majestic theatre, where William A. Glasgow, Jr., selected by both Guthrie and Guffey, acted as temporary chairman until Mr. O'Brien was elected permanent chairman, and J. D. Connelley, of Clearfield, was elected secretary.

GUTHRIE IS ENDORSED.

Satisfaction with the present leadership was evidenced in many ways, culminating in the adoption of a resolution by the convention, recognizing George W. Guthrie as chairman. The convention's action likewise guaranteed the election of Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer as national committeeman by the delegation to the Baltimore convention. It set at rest for all time the disgust of the people with the trading tactics of a repudiated leadership and it opened the way for Democratic success in the fall.

Do Not Repair an Old Wooden Porch

In a few years its props and posts will decay again, through exposure to the weather, and you have the job to do over again. Better tear down the wood structure and build it of concrete—posts, steps, foundation and even the floor. Then you will have an everlasting porch of solid appearance and beautiful design, which is also fire-proof. Mix a few sacks of
