

DEATHS

Mrs. S. P. Hockman, of near Hecla Park, after an illness of five weeks from a complication of diseases, died at her home Tuesday evening. Interment will be made at Hubersburg Friday forenoon.

Mrs. Josephine Hockman was the daughter of Jacob Garbrick, and was aged sixty-four years. She was a member of the Reformed church, and the mother of twelve children all of whom survive her. The children are these: Mrs. Venanda Dunkle, Hecla Park; Elmer, Freeport, Illinois; Newton, Zion; Mrs. Edith Deits, State College; Roland and Hattie, Philadelphia; Mrs. B. Gardner Grove and Mrs. Wiltner Grove, Centre Hall; Mrs. William Moyer, Coburn; Harry, Phillipsburg; Mrs. Lloyd Peters, Hecla Park; John, at home. The husband also survives as do also these brothers and sister: Emanuel, Zion; Jacob, Bellefonte; Mrs. John Isler, State College.

Mrs. Hockman was known in Gregg township, where she and her husband lived on the George Krape farm, prior to locating in Nittany Valley, thirteen years ago.

Mrs. Eliza Mitchell Campbell died Friday evening at her home, at Linden Hall. She was born at Pine Grove Mills, and was the daughter of David and Sarah Barron Mitchell, and was the last surviving member of the Mitchell family at that place. On December 1, 1846, she was married to George Washington Campbell, who died November 15, 1896. In 1850 she and her husband moved to the farm on Cedar creek where she has since lived. She was the mother of thirteen children, nine having died in childhood. The surviving children are D. M. Campbell, of Linden Hall, with whom she has always lived; J. E. Campbell, also of Linden Hall; Mrs. Thomas S. Stine, of Annville, Lebanon county, and Mrs. J. C. Gilliland, of Oak Hall.

The funeral was held Tuesday forenoon, services by her pastor, Rev. Harnish, of the Presbyterian church. Interment was made at the Branch. Her age was over eighty-four years.

Mrs. Frances Zones died at her home at Shingletown Monday night of last week, after an illness of several weeks of cancer of the liver. She was born in College township about forty-five years ago; her parents were Daniel and Lydia Shuey. She is survived by her husband and three children, Mrs. Bessie Phillips, Stella and Edgar, at home, also a brother and sister in the western states. Funeral services were held at her home on Friday afternoon, interment in the Boalsburg cemetery. Rev. J. K. Reilly, of State College, conducted the service, assisted by six of the State College students, members of the Y. M. C. A., who had frequently visited and shown kindness to the departed during her illness; they also acted as pall bearers.

Mrs. Amelia Summers died at her late residence in Aaronburg on Friday; funeral services were held on Tuesday, Rev. D. M. Geesey officiating. Mrs. Summers was one of the oldest ladies in Aaronburg and was much respected and loved by all. She is survived by the following children, all of whom were present at her funeral: Mrs. Kate Yudy, of Shamokin; William, of Clearfield; David, of Altoona; Mrs. Tillie O'Neal, of Williamsport; Mrs. Jennie Weiser, of Millheim; Elira, Annie and Charles at home. The late Mrs. Summers was nursed by her beloved mother. Another son Joseph, who is in the west, was not able to come home to attend the funeral.

Abraham Harter, a well known citizen of Millheim, died at his home in Millheim on Thursday of last week, and interment was made Saturday, the services having been held at the late home of the deceased by Rev. J. Max Lantz. His age was seventy-eight years, nine months, fifteen days. His second wife, nee Carrie Yarger, survives, as does also one son, Morgan, by this marriage; also Mrs. Jacob Springer, of Millheim; and George Harter, of Hartleton, children by a former marriage. One brother, G. W. Harter, of Millheim, and three sisters, Mrs. M. S. Fiedler, of Millheim; Mrs. Polly Royer and Mrs. William Neese, of Rebersburg, survive.

Annie Nathan, a red forty-four years, died at the home of George Barly, at Spring Mills, on Thursday evening. Her death was very sudden, and was caused by an abscess on the brain, having fallen over dead in the kitchen. Interment was made in the Presbyterian cemetery, Rev. O. G. Martin and D. G. Caris, of the Evangelical Association, having been the pastors in charge.

Selling Building Lots.

Mention was made a few weeks ago of the fact that C. D. Bartholomew intended laying out a street near the station and offering for sale building lots. This has now been done. Allison street has been surveyed and the lots staked off, and one-half of them have already been actually sold. There are a number of prospective buyers, and Mr. Bartholomew believes that every lot offered will be sold within a very short time.

There are practically no lots to be had on Main street at any price, and this is forcing prospective home builders to purchase sites on other streets. The Bartholomew addition on Allison street is within the borough limits and this condition will give those who build homes there all the advantages of the borough conveniences—roads, water, light, and schools.

There is always more or less advantage of being in on the ground floor when such opportunities as the opening up of an addition in a borough is under way.

Class Day—1912.

"Class Day" was observed by the seniors of the Centre Hall High School by appropriate exercises in Grange Arcadia, on Tuesday evening. The principal feature was a comedy entitled "Just Like Pary." The parts were all well executed, and some of the participants put considerable force into their acting.

In addition to the play of three acts there was music by the Junior Class, which is composed of Misses Hazel Emery, Ruth Smith, Verna Rowe and Messrs. William Reish and Ray Dursi, as well as by the Senior Class. Prof. F. H. Meyer had the music in charge, and during the acts Misses Bertha Strohmeier and Lella Huyett rendered piano duets.

The performances during the whole of the exercises were creditable and were very much appreciated by the large audience. The occasion will be a memorable one in the lives of the members of the two upper classes of 1912 in the local High School.

Rebersburg.

Preston Saylor on Monday morning left for Sugar Valley where he will work on a lumber job.

Howard Krape, the medicine man, quite recently purchased an automobile while in Lock Haven and is now learning how to run the critter.

The grass and grain fields in this section look very promising and if nothing unavoidable happens we can expect a heavy hay and wheat crop.

Warren Beck and family, also Lester Bowersox, who this spring had gone to Greengrove, Illinois, have returned again and are now looking for work in old Brush Valley.

Prof. J. C. Morris, after spending a few days during last week with his family in this place, has returned to Huntingdon, where he is an instructor in the Reformatory.

On last Friday William Hubler and wife and Mrs. Claude Haines drove to Lumar to visit Mrs. Hubler's sister Mrs. Heckman who is confined to her bed with pneumonia.

Rev. Hassinger, who a few weeks ago preached a trial sermon in the Lutheran church in this place and to whom a call was tendered, has accepted the same and will come here some time in July.

Last Monday Samuel Gephart left for Bolivar, Texas, where he and his father a year ago invested in Texas lands, to look after the interest of their investments. They will return in a few weeks.

The Miles township telephone company, which now has a large number of subscribers in Rebersburg and vicinity, has extended its line from Wolf's Store to Brungart's church, a distance of two miles. That section never had telephone service before.

After being confined to the house since last fall on account of a paralytic stroke received while on his way to Coburn station, the many friends of Thomas Walker will be pleased to know that he has so far recovered that he is able to take short strolls out into the open air.

Do Not Repair an Old Wooden Porch

In a few years its props and posts will decay again, through exposure to the weather, and you have the job to do over again. Better tear down the wood structure and build it of concrete—posts, steps, foundation and even the floor. Then you will have an everlasting porch of solid appearance and beautiful design, which is also fire-proof. Mix a few sacks of with clean sand to make your concrete. It is absolutely uniform in quality and is easily handled. We will gladly show you how to use it in making concrete.
