A surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Roger recantly by their daughter Ruth in honor of her parents' twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, at their home at No. 1415 Seventh Avenue, Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Royer were invited out to lunch and upon arriving home found their home filled with friends and relatives. Many of the guests present also attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs Royer which took place in the M. E. church at Sprucetown, the ceremony having been performed by the Rev. I. Heckman. It was also the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. McCormick, of Potters Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Royer received many beautiful and useful gifts, among them being silverware, linen, cut glass, hand painted chinaware and flowers. The evening was pleasantly spent, the guests devoting the time to instrumental music, singing, reading and talking of olden days in Centre county.

At midnight a dainty luucheon was served by the hostess, which was prepared outside the home. In the early morning hours all departed for their homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Royer many more wedding anniversaries.

Among those present were these, a number of whom were formerly resi-
