LOCALS

Mrs. C. P. Long, of Spring Mills, is visiting friends at Jersey Shore.

Prof. and Mrs. C. F. Shaw have returned from their Southern trip.

Wednesday morning of last week a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William McClenshan. This is the second child and both are boys.

The Pleasant Gap base ball club will play a game on its home grounds on Saturday afternoon with the Lemont team, and in the evening a festival will be held for the benefit of the local team.

Miss Mabel Kline and brother George Kline, of Leas State College, on Saturday, entertained in honor of Bruce Dunlap, who just graduated from Pennsylvania State College. William L. White, one of the orators at the Junior oratorical contest, was also present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Bitner have returned to Alaska after a residence in San Francisco for several months. Mr. Bitner is a son of Dr. H. F. Bitner, of Centre Hall, and is again employed with the Morgan-Guggenheimer company. The family will live in Kennecott.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Royer, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Dashern, on last Thursday morning went to Chambersburg to visit relatives. They expect to return home today (Thursday) or tomorrow. Cards from them state that the weather conditions in Franklin county are very similar to that prevailing here, and crops are no better.

Last Sunday afternoon Gross R. Allison and John Rowe hired horse and buggy from the Booser-Fet elolivery, Centre Hall, and some time during the night while driving through Texas, on their return from Rebersburg, the horse dropped over and in a few minutes was dead. The livermen contend the horse had only been hired to go as far as Spring Mills.

While crossing the railroad track at the station Wednesday morning, a young horse hitched to a wagon loaded with grass and driven by Domer Ishler, took fright at a freight engine and ran away. The wagon struck a tree in front of Mrs. William Colyer's residence; here the horse and wagon separated, and the driver was thrown to the ground, receiving a number of bruises. The horse was injured to some extent, but not seriously.

Negroes Commit Heinous Crime.

On Saturday night, at Lock Haven, just outside the Robins show tent, two negroes and a white man outraged a white girl, seventeen years old, named Emma Brown, of Lock Haven. The girl and her aunt, Mrs. George Keeler, of Bellefonte, also just a young woman, entered the large circus tent, and had occasion to leave it temporarily. On reaching a short distance below the tent the two were approached by two colored men and a white man. The women ran in different directions, the older one reaching a point well lighted, but the younger one was captured by the fiends. The men flourished knives and threatened the girl before they could accomplish their purpose. When Mrs. Keeler found her companion, the men with her fled. She was assisted from the grounds, but on her way to a house fell over exhausted. She was then carried into a house near by, where she became delirious. As soon as an ambulance could be secured she was taken to the city hospital.

The girl's neck shows marks of having been choked, and her face was swollen from blows of the fists.

Two colored men named Ben Anderson and William Lovett, circus employees, were arrested at Wellsboro and are now in the Clinton county jail charged with the crime.

LOCALS

The hearing in the William Witmer case was postponed. The case was to have been heard on Wednesday before Judge Orvis.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Keller, of Axemann, mourn the loss of their babe, aged twelve days. Interment was made at Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. I. V. Musser, and sons, Harold and William, are at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meyer, in Centre Hall.

Misses Hazle Emery, daughter of Merchant C. F. Emery, and Ferns Hoover have been visiting friends in various sections of Union county during the past two weeks.

August D. Lanard, of Philadelphia, is stopping at the Centre Hall hotel and will spend a few weeks in Centre county. He is the paying teller in the Ninth National Bank in Philadelphia, and a son of H. F. Lanard, the engineer, who has been inspecting the farm buildings in Potter township during the past few weeks, and is now about ready to begin the same work in Gregg township.

Spring Mills

Mrs. George Singlerly and daughter Emma, of Lock Haven, are spending a few days with Mrs. Windom Gramley.

Those who have returned from the different schools for their summer vacation are: Groes Shook, Franklin and Marshall, Lancaster; Rufus Finkle, State College; Miriam Long and Marian Finkle, Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove.

The members of the I. O. O. F. decorated the grave of Jacob Bitner, at Salem, on Saturday evening. Sixty-nine members took part in the exercises. Prof. R. U. Moyer delivered an address in memorial of the deceased, and Rev. Price spoke on the good of the order. Both were excellent addresses.

No matter who the Chicago convention or conventions nominate, the Teddy Bears will not be popular after the November election.

The press and the clergy go hand in hand with the whitewash brush and rosy spectacles, magnifying little virtues and kindly throwing little deformities into oblivion. The pulpit, the pen and the gravestone are partners in saint making.

A Parson's Three Prices.

A good tale is told of an old Welsh minister in the sixties who when written to as to his terms for officiating at a special preaching festival replied that he had three prices: "For 15 shillings I will make all the people laugh, for a sovereign I will make them laugh and weep alternately, while for 30 shillings I will make them jump on top of the benches"—Cardiff Western Mail.

Vertical Versus Horizontal.

"My wife is very strict on vertical etiquette."
"Vertical etiquette! What do you mean?"
"Why, in an elevator with her she insists on my removing my hat, but on a train or a street car she doesn't!"—Boston Transcript.

That's Why.

Patience—He promised to take me out for an automobile ride, and he came around today to say he could not. Patrice—Did he seem embarrassed? Patience—Yes; I guess that was the trouble. He seemed financially embarrassed.—Yonkers Statesman.

A Confirmed Taste.

"I'm best if I can see what Blabkins finds to admire in that Miss Jorkins," said Hinkleigh. "Why, she's wholly made up."
"That's it, I guess," said Harkaway. "Blabkins always was crazy about fiction."—Harper's.

Our wishes lengthen as our sun declines.—Young.

Harris Township.

Flag Day was observed at Boalsburg.

We had a fine rain on Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Irvin Stover, of Philadelphia, spent a week with relatives in this place.

Children's Day service will be held in the Lutheran church on Sunday at 10 o'clock.

James Fry and Miss Esther Kaup are visiting at Tyrone, Altoona and Williamsport.

Master Franklin Weber, of State College, is enjoying some of his vacation days at Boalsburg.

H. M. Hosterman and family spent Thursday at the home of Newton Neidigh, near Pine Hall.

The auditors met with the school directors for their annual settlement on Saturday afternoon.

Adam Hosterman is enjoying some time with relatives at Aronsburg, Woodward and other places.

Rachel and Samuel Mothersbaugh, of Williamsport, are visiting with their grandparents at the Hilsdale farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Grove, of Pine Grove Mills, spent Thursday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Edward Lucas.

Mrs. Ella Johnson, of Altoona, is spending some time with her brother J. W. Staum and other Centre county relatives.

Again the stork made a visit to Boalsburg, and left a bright little girl at the home of Edward Lucas on Friday afternoon.

A. P. Lee sold his farm near Boalsburg to J. C. Rossman, of near Penns Cave, who will take possession next spring. Consideration was $6,000.

A number of men from Boalsburg attended the raising of a large strawshed on the Boal farm at Oak Hall, tenanted by David Snyder. William Stover of Boalsburg superintended the work.

Adam Felty has gone to Altoona for an indefinite time. His daughter, Mrs. Mary Shugart, accompanied him to the city and after a short visit with friends in that place returned to her home at Boalsburg. On her way home she spent a few days with A. B. Klmpert and family at Bellefonte.

The following persons were elected as teachers for the coming term: Rock Hill, George W. Johnstonbaugh; Walnut Grove, H. M. Hosterman; Shingletown, Paul Rupp; Boalsburg Grammar, E. R. Williams. There are several applicants for the High School and the Boalsburg primary, but no teachers have as yet been elected.

At the Children's Day service held in the Reformed church on Sunday evening, the service "The Rose of Sharon," was used and was well rendered as also other recitations and exercises on the program. Bouquets of roses, peonies and other flowers adorned the chancel. Notwithstanding the rainy weather there was a good attendance. Those who were prevented by reason of sickness or inability from being present were kindly remembered by friendly callers bearing with them pretty bouquets.

Linden Hall.

Mrs. John Weibly spent Sunday with her sister, at Watsonstown.

Miss Ruth Ross returned last week from a three weeks' visit with relatives in Altoona and Juniata.

Mrs. Irvin Stover, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days with her father, the venerable James Stover.

Miss Bertha Meyer returned home after spending a week with friends in Altoona and McElhattan.

Miss Margaret Ferres spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister Lavon at the Lock Haven Normal.

M. Charles Moore will leave on Thursday for a trip through the western states where he will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan returned from a trip to Milton, Beaverstown and Lewisport. They made the trip in their touring car.

The United Evangelical Sunday-school will hold their children's day service Sunday evening, 30th inst., at 7:30. Everybody is invited to attend.

Mrs. Henry Houser, who underwent an operation in the Bellefonte hospital last Tuesday, is improving.

Miss Anna Mary Houser is keeping house for Mr. Houser while Mrs. Houser is in the hospital.

A LARGE CONTRACT.

What Murray & Bitner Wants Every Year, son in Centre Hall to do.

When Murray & Bitner the enterprising druggist, first offered a 50 cent package of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price, and guaranteed to return the money if it did not cure, they thought it probable from their experience with other medicines for these diseases that they would have a good many packages returned. But although they have sold hundreds of bottles, not one has been brought back.

To those suffering with dizziness, headaches, poor digestion, constipation and straining, Dr. Howard's specific offers quick relief. It is an invaluable boon to all who feel uncomfortable after eating, and is today the popular dinner pill in all the larger cities.
