

DEATHS.

Samuel Bruss died at his home west of Centre Hall on Saturday morning. Interment was made at Centre Hall on Wednesday morning, Rev. Fred W. Barry officiating, assisted by Dr. W. H. Schuyler.

Mr. Bruss for many years lived in Potter township on the Bruss homestead, where his father Isaac Bruss lived. He was road supervisor for a number of terms, and also conducted farming operations, he being the owner of a farm east of town. He was born May 4th, 1845, making his age a little over sixty-seven years. Mrs. Bruss died a few months ago; they had no children. There survive, however, five sisters, namely, Mrs. Anna Finkle, Ashland, Ohio; Mrs. Bella Goss, Nashville, Tennessee; Mrs. Emeline Coldron, Miss Sabina and Mrs. Mary McCleahan, Centre Hall. Two brothers and one sister are deceased: George, who died in service in the Civil War; John, who died at Julian; and Mrs. Catharine Sprow.

Mrs. Mary M. Green, wife of G. Dorsey Green, of Filmore, died of acute appendicitis, after having undergone an operation a few days previous. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Gregg, deceased, and was born in Penns Valley about seventy-eight years ago. All her married life, however, was spent on the Green homestead farm in Buffalo Run Valley. She is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. W. E. Gray, Bellefonte; Samuel, at Los Angeles, Cal.; Miss Elizabeth Doney, at home; Allen, in California, and Dr. George D. Green, of Lock Haven.

Mrs. Margaret Gray Hutchison, widow of the late Archibald Hutchison, died at her home in Warriors-mark Valley, aged about seventy-four years.

LOCALS.

Mrs. Smetzer, daughter Zelta and son Earl, of Johnstonburg, visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Rebecca Emerick, in Centre Hall.

A few days ago one of Newton Yarnell's horses kicked a valuable mare and broke her leg. The animal was killed to put her out of misery. The loss is quite a heavy one to Mr. Yarnell.

The following trustees were elected by the alumni and various societies of the Pennsylvania State College: Gen. James A. Beaver, George G. Hutchison, William T. Creasy and Edward T. Tyson.

Mrs. Emma Boal Jackson was brought from Mount Alto to Centre Hall on Monday evening and from here was taken to Colyer to the home of her sister, Mrs. William Jordan. She was obliged to lie on a cot enroute. The trip from here was made in the livery car.

Those who read the bulletins posted in the Reporter windows giving an account of the Chicago convention, are indebted to the Lewisport Democrat and Sentinel. Of course, the relay was paid for by the Reporter, but the paper named first made it possible to do so. The commercial telephone exchange operators are also entitled to credit for securing a message from Altoona.

The Spring Mills lodge of Eagles came to Centre Hall Saturday evening to do honor to one of their departed members—the grave of Henry Emerick was decorated and the usual memorial ceremonies held. The speaker on the occasion was Prof. U. A. Moyer, principal of the Gregg Township High School, and his address was very favorably commented on by those who heard him. A number of the Eagles connected with the Centre Hall lodge also joined in the ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cashner arrived at Green Hill, near Logantown, on Friday from Laurelton, footsore and weary, having walked all the way, pushing their ten months old baby along in a hand carriage. They came by way of the Penns Valley narrows and Woodward, thence across the mountains to Livonia and Sugar Grove. The distance is twenty-five miles, all rough road. "There's nothing doing in Union county and we pulled this way looking for a job," said Mr. Cashner in answer to a quiz by the editor of the Sugar Valley Journal.

The Morton Chronicle has this to say of a young lady who claims Centre Hall as her birthplace, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lohr, of Philadelphia: The degree of Bachelor of Arts was conferred upon Miss Nellie W. Lohr, of Linden avenue, at the Commencement exercises of the University of Pennsylvania held at the Metropolitan Opera House, Philadelphia, on Wednesday the 19th. Miss Lohr was among the very few who graduated with high honors. Diplomas were awarded to nearly one thousand graduates, this being a record year for old Penn. Miss Lohr expects to teach, having qualified as a teacher of the higher branches, and the school district securing her services may be considered very fortunate.

Wiser-Decker.

The marriage of Emerson E. Wiser, of Millheim, and Miss Jennie K. Decker, of Spring Mills, took place at the residence of Edward Decker, a brother of the bride, at Sober. The officiating minister was Rev. J. Max Lantz, and the ring ceremony was used, the time of the marriage being Monday evening.

Tuesday morning the young couple started on a short trip to the east and on their return they will begin house-keeping in Altoona, where the groom is employed.

Mr. Wiser is a son of the late Samuel Wiser, of Millheim, and is an honorable and industrious young man. The bride has been one of the operators in the Bell telephone exchange at Spring Mills since its opening there, and is a young lady of intelligence, and is highly thought of by all her acquaintances. She is a daughter of the late Green Decker.

The young people have the best wishes of the Reporter for a happy and prosperous as well as a long wedded life.

A LARGE CONTRACT.

What Murray & Bitner Wants Every Person in Centre Hall to do.

When Murray & Bitner the enterprising druggist, first offered a 50 cent package of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price, and guaranteed to return the money if it did not cure, they thought it probable from their experience with other medicines for these diseases that they would have a good many packages returned. But although they have sold hundreds of bottles, not one has been brought back.

To those suffering with dizziness, headaches, poor digestion, constipation and straining, Dr. Howard's specific offers quick relief. It is an invaluable boon to all who feel uncomfortable after eating, and is today the popular dinner pill in all the larger cities.

There is no real need of anyone being troubled with constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets will cause an agreeable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect. Give them a trial. For sale by all dealers.
