CONGRESSMEN-AT-LARGE—George B. Shaw, Westmoreland county; Joseph Hawley, Allegheny county; George R. McLean, Lawrence county; E. E. Greenawald, Lancaster county.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

CONGRESS—James Gleason, Houtzdale.

LEGISLATURE—Robert M. Foster, State College.

Shake hands with yourself on Wilson.

Here we are back at the desk after a week's vacation. The writer's vacation was not one of idleness, but a change of work—the kind that makes the palms of your hands look as though they belonged to an honest man.

LOCALS.

Mrs. Victor A. Auman spent the 4th of July season with Mrs. Robert Miller, in Tyrone.

If you want a good, reliable binder twine, get the O. K. McCormick Standard at seven and one-half cents—R. D. Foreman, Centre Hall.

A stallion became vicious while under the care of George Bitner, of Beach Creek, and bit off one of the fingers from the right hand of his keeper.

Miss Myra A. Stover, of Millheim, graduated from the Millersville Normal School, and will teach the primary grade in the Millheim public schools.

Mrs. Ed. L. Bartholomew and little daughter came to Centre Hall a few days before the Fourth and are now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Q. A. Kennedy, west of town.

Penns Cave is becoming a popular stopping place for automobile parties. A number of Tyrone people traveling in cars made up a part of the visitors to that place on Sunday.

At a recent meeting of the Centre Hall school board, D. F. Luse was elected a member of the board to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of L. G. Bearick from Centre Hall.

Good farm for sale, near Centre Hall. Good buildings, running water, and timber on the place. Will be sold reasonable. If you are interested, write to the Centre Reporter, and you will receive further information.

Mrs. Charles Dunham, of Port Richard, New York, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Weber, in Centre Hall, having come here the latter part of last week in company with her daughter. She was called here on account of the serious illness of her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee, of Mechanicsburg, accompanied by their little daughter, have been with the former's parents at Centre Hill and other friends and relatives in Potter township. Mr. Lee is employed in a typewriter manufacturing establishment in Harrisburg.

Mrs. H. M. Hettinger and children, Paul and Martha, of Altoona, came to Penns Valley to visit friends, and after a week's stay Mrs. Hettinger and daughter returned home on Monday. Paul will stay with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fye, east of Centre Hall, and help on the farm.

John H. Weber has been seriously ill at his home in Centre Hall during the past two weeks or more. His condition has been critical, and his many friends are much alarmed. He is receiving the best medical and surgical attention, and nothing is left undone for his comfort. His early recovery is earnestly hoped for by all.

Those who attended services in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening had the pleasure of listening to a solo by Miriam Huyett, ten years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett, that was out of the ordinary for a child of her age. The title was "Just for Today." The child has an exceptionally sweet voice and almost perfect enunciation.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Harpster have returned from Baltimore, and are again located at the Centre Hall hotel. Mr. Harpster was fortunate enough to secure a string of tickets, and attended almost every session of the convention. He is a Republican, but since hearing Bryan's pleadings for better things in politics, he thinks the Democratic party is of some account.

Brislin & Company have finished peeling and hauling bark from Sprucetown. Just to show what a good team can do, Thomas Miller, who drives a team for William Bresler, loaded the remains of the job, and when the load was drawn onto the scales at Centre Hall, the beams showed the net weight to be 5500 pounds, or two and three-quarter tons. Seven car loads of bark were shipped from the tract.

Mrs. L. H. Krebs, of Salt Lake City, Utah, was an arrival in Centre Hall on Monday afternoon, and is at the home of her father, D. P. Houser, and sister Mrs. Robert Bloom, west of Centre Hall. Mrs. Krebs is making her first trip east in twenty-two years. Mr. Krebs is a civil engineer and is connected with the engineering department of Salt Lake City, and owing to a death in the engineering force was unable to accompany his wife on this trip. He is a native of Ferguson township.

Horrible Death of a Child.

William Louis, aged sixteen months, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cleveland, Jr., two miles east of Zion, met a horrible death on Monday morning. Preparations were made for doing the weekly washing by filling an iron kettle with water and lighting a fire under it in an outside fire place. The fire place was walled up on three sides to a height of about two and one-half feet, and on this wall the child, unobserved by the members of the family, climbed, and losing its poise fell into the kettle of water. Just how long the little one was boiled before discovered is not exactly known, but it is thought it could not have been more than ten or fifteen minutes. When discovered the lifeless body was lifted from the kettle, but the hairs of its head and scalp clung to the sides of the heated vessel against which it had rested. It was a most horrible death, and the scene of the parting of the flesh and dropping out of the teeth, was one never to be forgotten by those who witnessed it. The fond parents have the deepest sympathy of all in this sad hour.

Boy Dragged to Death.

Miles Miller, nine years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Miller, of Coleville, was dragged to death on Tuesday morning. The lad mounted a harness-colt to ride him to water, and for some reason the animal became frightened and started to run. The boy became entangled in the harness, and was dragged head downward for a quarter of a mile, when the horse was captured. When released the youth was dead, death having been caused by many cuts and bruises on all parts of the head.

Red Mill Sold.

The Red Mill, one of the oldest mills in Penna Valley, located in Potter township, was sold recently by the executors of the John S. Auman estate to Charles Hockman, of Center Furnace, in College township. Mr. Hockman does not expect to operate the mill himself; although an experienced miller, and is conducting the Center Furnace mill with his father, Samuel Hockman.

Mr. Hockman informs the Reporter that the Red Mill plant will be extensively repaired. The mill is now operated by Albert Bradford, a son-in-law of the former owner, who has built up a good trade for flour and feed.

Advent Church Burned.

Saturday night, the last day of June, the Advent church, two and one-half miles east of Pleasant Gap, was totally destroyed by fire. The Sunday-school held a festival there on that night, and several hours after all had left the place the fire was discovered. It is presumed the fire originated from a cigar stump that a careless molder had thrown near or onto inflammable material. Services were held in the church twice each month. The structure, although built many years ago, was kept in good repair. There was no insurance.

Broke Back in a Fall.

McKinley Osman, aged about fifty years, fell from a cherry tree at his home at State College, and although the distance was but ten feet he fell in such a way as to break his back. He was taken to the Bellefonte hospital where everything possible is being done for him.

Note from Weber.

To Our Trade: Although the senior member of our firm has been unable on account of serious illness to attend to business in his Centre Hall office, we respectfully solicit a continuance of your patronage. Every effort will be made to serve you promptly if you are in need of repairs, or machinery not on hand. Our employees at our business places are capable of taking your orders and securing for you the same advantages and low prices you would obtain if able to see the head of the firm.

We call your attention to binder twine and oils. Before you place your order call at our places of business, examine the goods and compare prices before making purchases.

We carry everything needed on the farm in the way of machinery and tools.

Very respectfully,
J. H. & S. E. WEBER,
Centre Hall and Oak Hall.

Why pay high prices for a twine of doubtful quality when you can buy the O. K. McCormick Standard at seven and one-half cents.—R. D. Foreman, Centre Hall.

Harris township.

Mrs. J. N. Dinges visited at State College over Sunday.

Corn, potatoes, oats and barley are suffering for want of rain.

Miss Edith Hartwick, of Altoona, is visiting relatives in this place.

Mrs. E. R. Williams with her sons Karl and Donald are visiting in Altoona.

Miss Margaret Hoy, of State College, is enjoying this week at the R. B. Harrison home.

Adam Krumrine, of Tusseyville, is at Boalsburg superintending the hay making in his lots near town.

Mrs. Alvin Myers with her children who spent the winter in Florida are visiting relatives in Boalsburg and vicinity.

Rev. S. C. Stover and wife today (Thursday) departed for Atlantic City, Ocean Grove and other places of note. On account of the pastor's absence no regular service will be held in the Ref. church until August 4th, in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Rev. W. K. Harnish is having a vacation; there will be no service in the Presbyterian church until Sunday afternoon, July 22d.

Mrs. Sarah Stover, of Centre Hall, came to this place on Monday and will stay for some time at the home of her daughter Mrs. Palmer Ishler.

Miss Sallie Keller visited at Centre Hall last week.

Miss Rebecca Closs and Beryl Brouse visited at State College.

Mrs. Eliza Fouse, of Huntingdon, is spending the summer at the home of her daughter Mrs. H. M. Hosterman.

Miss Louella Ross, of Linden Hall, spent Sunday at Boalsburg.

Mrs. J. H. Ross, of Linden Hall, and Mrs. Curt Musser, of Altoona, were entertained at the E. W. Sweeney home on Saturday.

Robert McCrae, David and Reuben Stuart, of Bellevue, and D. K. Mothersbaugh, of Williamsport, spent the Fourth at Boalsburg.

The members of the Pine Stump Sunday school will hold a festival on Saturday evening, 27th inst., at the Pine Stump school house.

Cherries are plenty and housewives are busily engaged in storing them away for winter; pears and peaches are scarce, but we have a few plums and apples.

We have a fine hay crop and fine weather to store it away, but helpers are scarce. The old "men" who have reached the three score and ten and passed the four score, are tending helping hands.

The Boalsburg Boy Scouts came in for honors in the parade at State College on July 4th for having the finest float. The prize was $5.00. The float was a representation of a tenting scene in the forest. The wagon was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting, and up one of the larger trees was climbing a teddy bear. In the forest was located a miniature camping tent, with kettles hung, and fire blazing all the time. The boys took great pride in their work, and Calvin Stamm, the driver, was equally proud of his fine team and gaily decorated wagon.

Rebassburg.

Ebel Harter and Sidney Krumrine are on the sick list.

Bruce Morris, of Philadelphia, is spending his vacation in this place.

Haymaking season is over in this vicinity. A fine crop of hay has been housed.

A good shower of rain is very much needed in this valley at present, as we have had no rain for several weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. E. S. Stover and daughter Grace, of Bloomfield, N. J., spent the past week with relatives in this place.

Mr. Rickert, of Nittany Valley, spent several days in this place this week and while here traded horses with Samuel Mowery.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Walker, of Pittsburgh, arrived in this place on Tuesday and will spend several weeks with the former's parents.

Mrs. J. D. Houser and family, of State College, spent several weeks at this place among relatives and returned to her home on last Saturday.

Quite recently Jerome Moyer bought the Benjamin Beck property situated one-half mile north of Wolf Store. This is a mountain home and Mr. Moyer will plant the same in fruit trees.

Brush Valley.

The corn crop through here is poor. Concrete steps have been erected to the front of Bethel church.

H. S. Lambert and wife, of Lewisburg, spent several days in Brush Valley.

The teachers for our schools are: Homer Snook, Murray; and Boyd Vonada, Hoy's.

Some of the Old Fellows in this vicinity attended the funeral of Frank Richardson, at Spring Mills, on Saturday.

The most of our farmers are through making hay and are busily engaged in cutting wheat. Both the wheat and hay crops are good through here.

The Murray Union Sunday school will hold a festival at the Murray school house on Saturday evening, July the 29th. As this is the first festival in this vicinity for this season they will have the Wise orchestra, of Madisonburg, to furnish music for the occasion.

The watering trough on Brush Mountain has been torn away. The third of many beasts of burden have been quenched at this point, as it was the most important trough along the line. Owing to its great need it is hoped the township authorities will reconstruct it.
