

DEATHS

From Our Boalsburg Correspondent. Mrs. William Hoover passed away at her home, at Shingletown, at 2 o'clock Monday morning. She had been ailing for several years with bronchial troubles, and for several months she suffered with a complication of diseases. Early on Sunday morning she was seized with a violent pain in her head, which the attending physician pronounced a rupture of a blood vessel. This left her unconscious, in which condition she remained until released by death. Her maiden name was Louisa Homan. Her parents were John and Mary Homan, and she was born at Aaronburg, Dec. 16-h, 1839, making her age seventy-two years, seven months, and six days. She was married to William Hoover, at the home of her parents on "The Branch," January 20th, 1859, and all her married life was spent in Harris township. She was the mother of twelve children, two of which died in infancy. Hall, the oldest son, died after attaining manhood. He lost his life in Texas about thirty years ago by being caught by a train while in the act of driving cattle over the track. She is survived by her husband, and nine children, three sons and six daughters: William Pitt, and Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of Steamboat Springs, Colorado; Mrs. Belle Miller, Memphis, Tennessee; Mrs. Annie Lukens, and Mrs. Esie Tanheim, Altoona; Mrs. Maude Belle, State College; Miss Bertha M. Hoover, Clearfield; Royce C., Eldorado, and A. Boyd, at home; also sixteen grand-children; one sister, Mrs. Sarah Fortney, of Pine Grove Mills; one brother, Alfred Homan, of Pittsburg; a half-brother, William Homan, of State College; and three half-sisters, Mrs. Luther Wert, of Aaronburg; Mrs. Jacob Musser, of Coburn, and Mrs. John Musser, of Loganton. Funeral services will be held at her late home this (Thursday) forenoon, conducted by Rev. W. K. Harnish of the Presbyterian church, of which she was a member. Interment in the Boalsburg cemetery.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Taylor, wife of John J. Taylor, of near Yearick's church, in Bush Valley, died after an illness from typhoid fever, extending over a period of several weeks. Interment will take place at the Union cemetery, Farmers Mills, Rev. F. W. Barry to officiate. Before her marriage Mrs. Taylor was Miss Nancy Brian. She was aged fifty-one years. There survive her husband and three children: Bessie, wife of George Fiedler, Jersey Shore; Rose, wife of John Albright, Millheim; Thomas, Bush Valley; Cleveland, Sunbury.

Anna Ertha, aged twenty-three days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Musser, north of Coburn, died Monday night. Interment was made Tuesday afternoon.

LOCALS

A nice rain on Wednesday. F. K. Carter, who is handling the team owned by the Zettle Brothers, is open for engagements to do hauling of all kinds.

The frame work of the new planing mill being erected by the Zettle Brothers is well under way. All the lumber for the mill was sawed on their own mill.

Benjamin Yearick, while helping to unload hay at the Hubler barn, near State College, was struck by a loaded wagon and knocked down, breaking his left arm.

Mr. and Mrs. William Furey, of Pittsburg, on Wednesday were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. King, in Centre Hall. From here they went to Milroy, taking Mrs. King with them in their car.

Col. W. Fred Reynolds, of Bellefonte, who recently sold the farms having the large peach orchards on them to the state, offers for sale three power sprayers, and numerous other orchard implements, all in perfect condition.

Mrs. Maggie Harper, who had been at the Bellefonte hospital for two months, last week returned to her home in Centre Hall very much improved. Her many friends here are greatly pleased to see her back again, and hope her recovery will be permanent.

The injunction issued against James Witmer restraining him from performing business transactions for his father, William Witmer, was dissolved on Wednesday morning by Judge Hall who heard the case. The dissolution was ordered without hearing the defendant's testimony. This places the father's affairs in the son's hands as heretofore.

The Moeschlein brewery, at Sunbury, was damaged by fire to the extent of $75,000. The insurance had expired on Saturday, and on Tuesday arrangements had been made to renew it. A cedar tank containing 3,500 barrels of beer burned through and the stuff ran out and was lost. A twelve-inch concrete floor divides the storage room from the ice plant above. This was burned and cracked so badly that the flames worked their way up into it and most of the valuable apparatus will be a total loss. The plant will be rebuilt at once.

LOCALS

The Pine Stump Sunday-school will hold a festival Saturday evening. The funds will be used to purchase an organ.

Mrs. S. Hinton left for her home on Thursday of last week after spending a few weeks pleasantly with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shoop.

If you want a good, reliable binder twine, get the O. K. McCormick Standard at seven and one-half cents.—R. D. Foreman, Centre Hall.

I. A. Shawver, proprietor of the National hotel at Millheim, took in the ball game Saturday afternoon. He made the trip in his Ford touring car, and brought several members of the ball team with him.

William Wolf and J. O. Hile are doing some fine brickwork on the residence being built by former commissioner H. E. Zimmerman, at Pleasant Gap. These workmen are skilled mechanics, and their work shows it.

Miss Maude Sechrist, daughter of Rev. J. R. Sechrist, and who formerly taught the primary grade of the Centre Hall schools, passed the examination as a missionary to China, under the board of the United Evangelical church. Miss Sechrist expects to come to Centre Hall in the near future to visit among friends.

The residence of Robert Kellock, in Phillipburg, was badly damaged by fire. The next morning Harry Weber, acting for an electric light company, was examining the building to ascertain the cause of the fire, when he touched a live wire. It was first thought that he had been killed, but later was restored to consciousness and is now improving.

Hon. H. W. Shoemaker, of New York, purchased Nickabon, 3016, from J. H. Detwiler, east of Centre Hall, and had him shipped to his country residence at Riverside, Connecticut. The animal will be used as a gentleman's driving horse, and is stabled with a number of other highly bred horses. The horse was driven to Lock Haven and from there was shipped by rail to Connecticut.

This from the Millheim Journal: Byron Musser, of this place, an employee at the P. R. R. station at Coburn, is taking a two-weeks' vacation. On Wednesday morning he left for Philadelphia and Atlantic City to spend several days, and will return on Saturday to Bellefonte, where he will be joined by his brother, Dale, and the two young men will leave for Oil City and Pittsburg, thence to Toronto, Canada; to Niagara Falls, Williamsport and home.

Uniform size and strength are characteristic features of the O. K. McCormick binder twine, the Standard brand, at seven and one-half cents.—R. D. Foreman, Centre Hall.

If you are a housewife you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy or beautiful by washing dishes, sweeping and doing housework all day, and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out into the open air and sunlight. If you do this every day and keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by all dealers.

Why pay high prices for a twine of doubtful quality when you can buy the O. K. McCormick Standard at seven and one-half cents.—R. D. Foreman, Centre Hall.

Universal Portland Cement. If you own a nice home be it large or small, you can improve its appearance immensely by building not only the sidewalks, but the front steps, curbstones, well cover, cellar, fence posts, etc., of concrete. It is so much nearer than wood and more sanitary. It never decays—is fire and rat proof—and can be easily kept clean. Concrete is the simplest building material and the most durable. It is readily made from clean sand and a few sacks of good Portland cement—preferably Universal because of its uniform quality and great strength. FOR SALE BY W. GROSS MINGLE, Centre Hall, Pa.
