Very Often.

The man who works two hours a day And then plays golf, has more to say About the heat
Than Mike or Pete
Who works ten hours for meager pay

Roosevelt's continuous declaration that no honest man can support Taft is getting to be as monotonous as his former assertions that most all his acquaintances are liars.

LOCALS

The trout season closed yesterday (Wednesday.)

It looks as though the September picnic on Grange Park will be the greatest ever.

Mrs. G. E. Heckman Mrs. H. F.
Rossman and son Peeler are spending some time at Atlantic City, New York and Coney Island.

Mrs. Catharine Gramley, widow of the late Samuel Gramley, aged some eighty years, died at Rebersburg on Wednesday morning. Interment will be made on Saturday forenoon. A more extended notice will appear next week.

Harry Harshberger is gradually improving in health, although his condition is such that he is confined to bed at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin H. Harshberger, at Potters Mills.

A weasel played havoc with the young chickens Mrs. W. W. McCormick, at Potters Mills, raised this season, a few nights ago. Twenty-eight young birds, fourteen of which were large enough for broilers, were killed by the animal. The weasel was trapped a few nights later.

Burdine Butler, of Howard, is keeping the railroad company from laying its track on his farm, although the company has filed a bond of $10,000 to pay all damages. As fast as the railroad company's men lay their track Butler and his assistants throw it to a side. Butler is a good fighter, but usually loses in the end.

Mrs. Enaline Benagr, an account of whose death appears in this issue on the first page, was the aunt of Mrs.
G. L. Goodhart, Mrs. Daniel Daup and Mrs. James B. Stroh, of Centre Hall, having been the sister of their father, the late Lot Evans. Mrs.
Benagr was the youngest in a family of twelve children and was the last survivor.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Davis, of Altoona, and Mrs. A. C. Stadler, of Bement, Illinois, are guests of Mrs. William A. Bond and daughters in Centre Hall. Mr. Davis is a retired foreman of one of the Altoona shops. While Mrs. Stadler is from Illinois she is not infected with the hat-in-the-ring microbe, but if she were given the privilege she would cast her vote for the Jersey Schoolmaster, and she can give reasons for it.

County Commissioner James L.
Kemmerer and Funeral Director E. E.
Morris, both of Leganton, on their way home from Lock Haven Friday morning in a runabout car, skidded over a ten foot embankment in the mountains in the vicinity of Her-lach's saw mill site. Mr. Morris was thrown from the machine, but his companion was caught under it, and could not release himself until it was lifted off of him. Both men were badly bruised, but not seriously hurt.
The car, although it turned turtle, was but slightly damaged.

J. Edward Kline, of near Colyer, was seriously hurt by being thrown from a load of wheat. He and Harry Fees, who lives with Mr. Kline, on Saturday had loaded a load of wheat, and on driving from the field to the road the wagon passed over a ridge, jarring the wagon. Mr. Kline and a single sheaf of wheat were thrown off, into a gutter. The man's spine seems to have been injured and he was also bruised about the head. At present he is able to sit in a chair, but at times he becomes irrational and his friends are considerably alarmed over the probab' final results. Mr. Kline is in his seventy-seventh year.

State Association Organized.

A state association for the promotion of the teaching of agriculture in the public schools of the state was organized at State College on Tuesday.
Almost four hundred teachers are attending the summer school, and sixty-five of these are studying agriculture.
The title of the association is the Pennsylvania Association for the Promotion of Agricultural Education and Rural Life.

The organization was effected by electing the following officers: President, J. F. Hellman, York county; Vice President, A. T. Schwalm, Schuylkill county; Treasurer, C. F. Ball, Lawrence county; Secretary, B. N.
Bottenhorn, Centre county.

Thirty-three teachers joined the association. The payment of a fee of fifty cents per member per year entitles any one engaged in the teaching of agriculture or in the promoting of such teaching to membership.

Hon. Leonard Rhone represented the State Grange at the organization of this association. Prof. W. A. Krise, of Centre Hall, was also at the meeting.

Free Trip for Soldiers.

Every honorably discharged veteran of the Civil war whose residence is in Pennsylvania will be given an opportunity to attend the exercises that will mark the 50th anniversary of the bloody carnage at Gettysburg, July 1, 2, and 3, of next year, free of charge, so far as railroad fare is concerned, the state having appropriated a sum of money to defray such expense. In order to take advantage of this offer it will be necessary to write M. J. General Daniel E. Sickles, U. S. A., retired, at New York City, giving his name, the company and regiment and the place of residence. General Sickles and his corps of assistants will do the rest.

Shuey-Beish.

At the United Evangelical parsonage in Centre Hall, by Rev. S. A.
Snyder, the ceremony was performed on Wednesday evening of last week, making Lester G. Shuey and Miss Romie C. Beish, both of Pleasant Gap, man and wife.

good position in Akron, Ohio, was home on a week's vacation, and while here was married to Miss Flossie Stover, at the home of her parents, on Saturday evening, Rev. W. D. Donat officiating. Only the members of the bride's and groom's families were present to witness the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Mingle have hosts of friends who wish them well in their new relationship. They left on Wednesday morning for their new home in Akron, which is ready to occupy.

The Philipsburg Journal has this to say: D. O. Downing, whose farm near Port Matilda is one of the best in Centre county, conducted on scientific principles, was hereaways. In addition to his farm work, he is operating a saw mill at Martha, near which he recently purchased a large tract of timber and which will require five or six years to cut. Mr. Downing was a candidate for the Republican nomination for Sheriff last year, and while defeated, made a strong fight, and will likely enter the arena later on.

Isn't it funny, since you come to think about it, how snow comes down in winter and ice goes up in summer.

as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the world would be much better off and the percentage of suffering greatly decreased," writes Lindsay Scott, of Temple, Ind. For

The Great Semi-Annual CLEAN SWEEP SALE
The Big Event Now On

And so the Clean Sweep Sale is here again. We sort of pride ourselves on the fact that we don't have to do much talking about them, their reputations precede them. This time two special features are worthy of special mention. First the fact that the sale is a week ahead of time this year, and secondly, assortments are the largest in the store's history. All in all, you're facing your big opportunity, the real sale of the town.

If you own a nice home be it large or small, you can improve its appearance immensely by building not only the sidewalks, but the front steps, curb-stone, well cover, cellar, fence posts, etc., of concrete. It is so much neater than wood and more sanitary. It never decays —is fire and rat proof—and can be easily kept clean.

Concrete is the simplest building material and the most durable. It is readily made from clean sand and a few sacks of good Portland cement—preferably Universal because of its uniform quality and great strength.
