By Experiment.

"What was your little boy crying about last evening?" "Over his lesson in natural history." "A child of that age studying natural history? You astonish me!" "It's so, just the same. He was learning the difference between a wasp and a fly."

Different.

Daughter—Since it is your wish, dear parents, that I should marry the rich old brewer, I consent, although he is seventy years old.

Mother—But he is only sixty.

Daughter—Sixty! Tell him to ask me again in ten years.—Meggendorfer Blaetter.

Real Problem.

"Do you think we can defeat this man?" asked the campaign manager.

"Yes," replied Senator Sorghum.

"But I won't be satisfied with that. What I want to hand him is some kind of a defeat that he won't be able to use as a personal advertisement for future business."

Her Engagements.

Miss Vivian is very much of a flirt and she has been engaged to a dozen young men during the few seasons she has been on the eligible list. A few days ago she said to her father:

"Pa, you may congratulate me on having acquired a new object of my affection."

"I am glad to hear it," he replied. "I hope you are as happy with him as you will be with the next one."

Rare Books for Harvard.

Harry Elkins Widener, who was lost on the Titanic, had a very valuable collection of books, and these will go to Harvard university. His grandfather, P. A. B. Widener, will provide a building in which the books will be adequately housed. The collection includes a first folio Shakespeare, a copy of Shakespeare's poems in the original binding, and what is described as the finest collection in the world of Robert Louis Stevenson's works.

MADDENED BY RED NECKTIE

Gentle Bossy, Suddenly Infuriated, Seriously Wounds Child.

COW DRAGS GIRL ON HOOK

While Leading the Jersey from the Field Three Men Appeared, One With a Flaming Tie—Helen Masters Seriously Hurt.

Allentown.—Impaled on a hook and dragged around a field by an infuriated cow, Helen Masters, the 16-year-old daughter of Charles Masters, a farmer living near Westcosville, was seriously hurt. With the moon busy at harvest, Miss Masters was delegated to tend the cattle. She was leading a Jersey that had always been a gentle bossy from the pasture field when three men came walking along. One of these wore a red necktie. The men neither spoke nor made motions, but as soon as the cow spied them she reared furiously. The hook at the end of the chain by which Miss Masters was leading the cow, caught in the girl's right thigh, and as the animal plunged across the field the girl was dragged over the rough ground. The men started in pursuit, but before they caught up the cruel hook, which had sunk to the bone, was torn out of the flesh. The girl had fainted. The men picked her up and hurriedly summoned Dr. Albert N. Miller. The leg was so badly lacerated that she will be crippled.

Girl a Year in Snakedom.

Washington.—Declaring that she was compelled to work in a den of snakes in a traveling show, and exhibiting scars on her arms which she said were caused by the bites of the slimy reptiles, Miss Goldie Denman, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Denman, reckoned as one of the prettiest and most popular girls of Washington, reached home after being strangely missing for nearly a year. The girl told an amazing story of her experience since she had vanished, following the close of the county fair here last fall. In her story, told to the authorities here, Miss Denman said she had become acquainted with a young stranger at the fair, and when the fair closed this man persuaded to accompany a side show. The girl said she left town with the company with the idea of "traveling to the next town for the fun of the thing," and then returning home. Scarcely was she out of the town when, according to her story, the manager of the company informed her that she was under a contract and threatened her if she attempted to escape or made any statement to officers.

Jilted Swain Grew Peevish.

York.—When Lenora O'Bryan left Chauncey Hobbs waiting at the church, Hobbs didn't break into melancholy song, but hired a team and started out to find his faithless sweetheart, who was out for a drive. He came upon her in the street, and, following the encounter, the girl preferred charges of aggravated assault and battery, under which Hobbs is now waiting in jail. Miss O'Bryan alleges that she was driving a younger sister when her jilted lover sprang from his buggy and attacked her. She was beaten and choked, she says, and most of her clothing was torn from her back, besides which Hobbs threatened her with a revolver and stiletto.

Fear Tarantula in Soda.

Pittsburgh.—Learning a tarantula had escaped from a bunch of bananas and was supposed to be in the soda water reservoir, hysterical girl members of the ultra-fashionable Oakmont Motor Boat Club left their glasses and dashed wildly from the building. Several fainted and had to be removed to their homes. Others clambered into their autos and dashed madly to the nearest physicians, while several ran to nearby drug stores and begged for emetics and stomach pumps. Only those who had not imbibed of the soda were free from the thought of a poisonous and revolting death. The tarantula was later recaptured in an abandoned pipe.

Fatal Bolt Finds His Shelter.

West Chester.—During a storm, Joseph Ingram Gould, aged 27 years, sought shelter in the barn of a neighbor, Taylor Ingram, and while standing in the open doorway, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. Little damage was done the building.

Saved Drowning Youth.

Chester.—George Wilson saved Jas. Abbott from death by drowning in the Delaware river, the youth, unable to swim, having gone beyond his depth.

Berry Pickers Killed.

Saltsburg.—When lightning struck the tree under which they took shelter during a rainstorm, on the Schmidt farm, a mile and a half from here, two women and a girl were instantly killed. The victims were Mrs. Louise Schmidt, 65 years old, wife of William Schmidt; Emma A. Schmidt, 41 years old, daughter of Mrs. Schmidt; Katherine Marie Widgman, eight years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Widgman, of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Widgman and her daughter were visiting at the Schmidt farm.

COMMERCIAL
Weekly Review of Trade and Market Reports.

Bradstreet's says: "The week's report furnish a veritable budget of good news. Practically every crop prospect pleases, current trade is of reasonable volume, buying for fall and beyond is expanding, the iron and steel industry is oversold, labor is scarce, railroads are preparing for a heavy traffic in the autumn, gross earnings are improving, just now no one seems to be much concerned about political matters and although retail dealers have to cut profits in order to move stocks, business has been stimulated. Expansion in trade is most visible in the Northwest and sections catering thereto. Eastern centers also note an uplift in trade. Print cloths are firm, with staple goods showing activity. Deliveries of dress goods and men's wear are so far behind as to cause clothing manufacturers some concern and mill agent reserve the right to advance prices at any time. In the knit goods and hosiery line business for next spring is expanding and purchasers of washed fabrics and fancy cottons are sampling quite liberally in preparation to buying freely, spring of 1913."

TWO TERRIBLE CASES OF RINGWORM CURED

By Resinol. Itching and Disfiguring.

Chicago, Ill., June 5, 1912: "My little daughter had a running sore, which I was told was a wet ringworm, on the back of her head from ear to ear, and also one which spread from one hip to the other, extending from the waist down. They itched her continually. She had to be carried on a pillow, and nights she could not sleep on account of the sores. She suffered terribly, and would scratch continually. I bought Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and after about two weeks my child was well and healthy." (Signed) Mrs. Emely Skelniek, 253 Greenham Ave.

Nossville, Pa., May 11, 1912: "It is the greatest pleasure for me to testify to the merits of Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment in the treatment of ringworms, from which I suffered for about five weeks until I found a perfect cure in Resinol."

"The trouble began with severe itching, affecting my face and neck. Then burning set in, causing me to lose a lot of sleep. In all, there were a dozen fairly large sores, with many small ones. The sores were very unsightly. I tried several remedies without much relief until a happy thought struck me to try Resinol Soap and Ointment. It made short work of the ringworm." (Signed) E. S. Gilliland.

Red Cross Seals Being Printed.

Seventy-five million Red Cross seals are now being printed for the holiday sale of these anti-tuberculosis stickers for 1912. The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, which in co-operation with the American Red Cross will conduct the sale, makes this announcement and states further that the outlook this year is bright for a higher sale than ever before.

The seal this year is said to be the best of its kind that the Red Cross has ever issued. The design is in three colors, red, green and gray. A Santa Claus head in the three colors is shown in the center surrounded by holy wreaths. In each corner is a small red cross. The seal bears the greeting, Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, American Red Cross, 1912."

Quaker Oath.

Two small boys in a family of Friends, writes a contributor, had a disagreement, during which the older boy became very much incensed.

Finally, he took his brother by the shoulder and shook him, with the exclamation, "Oh, the little you, thee!"

Then as the enormity of his offense came over him, he said, in a changed voice, "Don't tell mother I swore."—Youth's Companion.

HAD THE BANDMASTER GOING

Governor Suffered Because His Request Was Not Couched in Plain Enough Language.

Mr. Melvil Dewey, state librarian of New York, said recently that librarians would do well to furnish free music rolls for player-pianos, just as they now furnish books.

"In Toledo," said Dr. Dewey the other day, "my project has been lately inaugurated. It will accomplish much for the musical art."

Then, apropos of music and ignorance, Dr. Dewey told a story.

"A certain governor," he said, "was being lunched at a seaside town. During the repast the local band played on the beach outside the hotel. The drum was in charge of a blacksmith, and he beat it so resonantly that at last this message was sent out: 'The governor requests the drummer to desist.'"

"The bandmaster was puzzled by this message for a moment; then his face brightened in a smile, and he said: 'More drum, Joe; the governor likes it.'"

SCURF ON BABY'S HEAD

Campbell, Va.—"I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment for scurf on my baby's head and they made a complete cure. It came on her head soon after birth. It broke out in pimples and itched and she would scratch it and cause sores to form. Her head was very sore and her hair fell out in bunches. She was very cross and fretful and could not sleep at night. I tried many remedies, all failed, then I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they commenced to heal at once. I put the Cuticura Ointment on, and a half hour after washed her head with the Cuticura Soap. I used them a month and she was cured entirely." (Signed) Mrs. W. B. McMullen, Mar. 8, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."

Sounds Better.

The feeling of many men with regard to public office is much the same as that which a certain distinguished Frenchman had toward the academy—that group of forty who are called "the immortals." He was asked one day why he did not propose his candidacy for the academy.

"Ah," said he, "if I applied and were admitted, some one might ask, 'Why is he in it?' and I should much rather hear it asked, 'Why isn't he in it?'"—Christian Register.

WHERE DOCTORS FAILED TO HELP

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. Green's Health—Her Own Statement.

Covington, Mo.—"Your medicine has done me more good than all the doctor's medicines. At every monthly period I had to stay in bed four days because of hemorrhages, and my back was so weak I could hardly walk. I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I can stay up and do my work. I think it is the best medicine on earth for women."—Mrs. JENNIE GREEN, Covington, Mo.

How Mrs. Cline Avoided Operation.

Brownsville, Ind.—"I can say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me more good than anything else. One doctor said I must be operated upon for a serious female trouble and that nothing could help me but an operation.

"I had hemorrhages and at times could not get any medicine to stop them. I got in such a weak condition that I would have died if I had not got relief soon.

"Several women who had taken your Compound, told me to try it and I did and found it to be the right medicine to build up the system and overcome female troubles.

"I am now in great deal better health than I ever expected to be, so I think I ought to thank you for it."—Mrs. O. M. CLINE, S. Main St., Brownsville, Ind.
