Bull Moose an Appropriate Name.

When the Colonel chose the name Bull Moose for himself and other sore heads, after they discovered they couldn't run the Republican party, many people wondered why the odd name had been selected. But, after all, the name is particularly appropriate, judged according to the Colonel's own estimate of the bull moose, printed in his book, "The Wilderness Hunter." Here is what he says of the animal:

The bull moose lives on the public domain and is a very wasteful feeder. He is of a wandering and flighty disposition. His flesh, moreover, is coarse and stringy; his hide is thick and of a very poor quality. He frequently shows a clumsy slowness of apprehension which amounts to downright stupidity.

LOCALS.

Miss Jennie Mehorn, of York, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Geary. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodhart, of Altoona, are at the home of Mrs. Mary Goodhart.

Miss Mary Potter, beginning of this week, was at the Bellefonte hospital for treatment.

If it is fertilizers you want, either mixed or the ingredients for your own mixing, you can get it from Webers, at Centre Hall or Oak Hall station.

D. Ross Bushman, in this issue, advertises a desirable building lot for sale. The location is on Main street, north of the residence of Mrs. Mary Goodhart. See the adv.

Mrs. J. H. Boon and daughter, Miss Alice, who came here from Germany last summer and since were at the home of Mrs. Boon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Brisban, on Tuesday went to New York city.

Down in Snyder county the anti-liquor people are continuing their fight. The last step was to publish in circular form the names of all petitioners and the attorneys who represented the license applicants.

Representatives of the Bell telephone company have contracted with six private parties at Potters Mills for telephones. The instruments will be installed in the near future. The persons are: John Bubb, A. C. Ripka, Harry Wagner, Morris Burkholder, Frank Bogdan and Lloyd Smith.

William Colyer, east of Old Fort, is building an extensive building which will be fitted up in modern style for breeding and fattening pens. Concrete floors and troughs will be built. Mr. Colyer expects to make a business of growing and feeding hogs, and is not contented with the shift pens he has been using in the past.

The stone house on the Ishler farm, along the Boalsburg pike, bears the sign "Western Penitentiary." The windows are covered with iron gratings, and this is held to be the requirements of a penitentiary. In the old farm house, now being remodeled, are already located "trusty" prisoners, who are employed in various capacities on the penitentiary site.

Mrs. Margaret Griffith, of Rhyll, Wales, and two children are visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. R. R. Jones at the Reformed parsonage. Mrs. Griffith and children arrived in New York, July 12, coming over in the Lusitania. Before coming to Centre Hall she was visiting relatives and friends in Lehigh county, this state. She and the children will sail for Wales about September 9th.

A. E. Kerlin, proprietor of the Grand View Poultry yards, at Centre Hall, the latter part of last week started on a trip through sections of Pennsylvania and New York to visit several extensive poultry plants. Mr. Kerlin has been giving the poultry business undivided attention for a number of years and has a thorough knowledge of every detail. It is his practice to go into sections where the most modern poultry plants can be found and compare notes.

McClellan—Fleisher Reunion.

First annual gathering of the McClellan and Fleisher families was held on Thursday of last week in the grove at Tussey Sink. For many years the names McClellan and Fleisher have been very familiar in Penn's Valley. On last Thursday, from numerous counties of Pennsylvania, came loyal sons and daughters, friends and relatives to enjoy the festivities of the first reunion of the McClellan and Fleisher kin. Ideal was the day and ideal was the environment for such an occasion. The true spirit of reunion was felt long before the real activities began. As one by one, descendant after descendant arrived, the real joy heightened more and more until the climax of the day was reached.

After a sumptuous feast, the crowd was ready to listen to the program that had been arranged for the afternoon. The program opened with a brief sketch of the history of the McClellan and Fleisher families by Rev. W. A. McClellan, of West Milton, followed by an address by Rev. S. A. Snyder, of Centre Hall. Then followed their recitations: "The house in the meadow" by Miss Lovedy Gettig; "My Sisters best fellow," by Miss Beesie McClellan; "Coming home," by Miss Orpha Fleisher; "St. Peter," by Miss May McClellan. After singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," Rev. Snyder pronounced the benediction. The music for the day was furnished by George Zrby, of Tusseyville, and Daniel Close, of Mifflin county.

A permanent organization was formed by electing these officers: president, C. E. McClellan, Millheim; secretary, Lillian Gettig, Colyer; treasurer, Harry Franz, Centre Hall. Committee: R. G. and H. A. McClellan, T. J. Fleisher, S. D. Wert, E. R. McClellan, W. A. Fleisher, Daniel Close, Emanuel McClellan.

The reunion picture was taken by Mr. Smith, of State College, also by Ralph Rishel, of Boalsburg.

As the shades of evening lowered, the guests left the scenes of this most enjoyable event, but all looking forward with joy to the reunion to be held next year.

Mrs. L. V. Gettig, Secretary.

New Daily for Milton.

A new daily newspaper will make its appearance in the bustling town of Milton about September 16th. It will be known as "The Morning Bulletin" and will be issued by the Miltonian Printing company, of which F. A. Godcharles is president and F. P. Angle, formerly business manager of the Jersey Shore Herald, is secretary and treasurer.

Harris township.

Mrs. Ella Stairs, of Youngwood, is a guest of Mrs. Emma Stuart.

D. W. Myers and daughter Miss Mabel are visiting in Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Harrison spent a few days with relatives, at Williamsport.

Mrs. Susan Keller, of Axemann, visited relatives at Boalsburg last week.

The Odd Fellows of the Boalsburg Lodge are looking forward to a free-to-all lecture.

Mrs. John Hess and daughter Miss Mary, of Dubois, are visitors at the home of Charles Segner.

Mrs. Harriet Steele, of Bellefonte, spent a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Julia Dings.

Mrs. John Meyers and son Karl, of Spring Mills, spent a few days at the home of Mrs. C. W. Corl.

Mrs. L. F. Mayes, of Lemont, with her children spent Thursday afternoon at the William Mothersbaugh home.

Mrs. John Ishler, of State College, with one of her daughters, were guests at the home of Mrs. Susan Ishler on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Glenn, Miss Spangler, and Miss Amanda Mothersbaugh of Lemont, spent Tuesday at the Hillside farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher entertained a number of their friends, at a card party at the Boalsburg hotel on Friday evening.

Mrs. Annie Kreamer and son Condo, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Edward Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shuey and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Johnson, of Bellefonte, attended the Sunday-school picnic on Saturday.

Walker Shutt with his family attended the funeral of Mrs. Shutt's father, William T. Johnson, at Pleasant Gap on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fortney attended the Baileyville picnic; Rev. and Mrs. J. I. Stonecypher and Mrs. Ulrich visited at Williamsport.

Mrs. Frank Tharpe, Mrs. Harry Ishler, and Miss Helen Riley attended the McClellan and Fleisher reunion held at Tussey Sink last Thursday.

The farmers in this locality are pretty certain of a fair corn crop, although it is possible for the frost to catch the late planted. Before the recent rains there were doubts whether the corn would make a crop. Potato fields also look fine, and the yield will be large. The early sown oats was a good crop and is already in the barns. The late sown oats is not ripening evenly, and some that was sown in bad condition on the shock.

Aaronsburg.

Thomas Hull spent Sunday with his family.

Steward Anderson, of Altoona, is spending a few days here.

Harry Crouse and Harvey Crouse made a trip to Lock Haven and Renovo.

Phillip Eisenhour and Lowell Actor are employed as carpenters at State College.

Miss Ida Wert and niece, Martha Smith, of Texas, spent Saturday with Allie Eisenhour.

Walter Orwig, who is employed in the Altoona car shops, came here to visit his family over Sunday.

Curtis Winkblech, of Rebersburg, is visiting his uncle Warren Winkblech and they are both having a fine time.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Rogers and little girls, and Miss Willson, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with the former's aunt, Mrs. J. P. Coburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Kerstetter, of Loganton, spent Sunday with the former's uncles, William Bower, Sr., and Cornelius Bower.

Mrs. Doshler and Miss Mary Stahl entertained Miss Nedie Stahl and her sister Mrs. Charles Foust, and the latter's daughter, Dorothy, of Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wert and the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baker, all of Philadelphia; and Mrs. Jessie Wert, of Rebersburg, are spending the hot summer months with Mrs. Luther Wert.

Mrs. Mabel Wetherhold and children, of Allentown; Mr. and Mrs. Clymer Stover and children, of Lewis town, came to Aaronsburg on Sunday evening to visit their aged father at the home of George Weaver.

Those who visited at William Wolfe's over Sunday were his aunt, Mrs. S. J. Wolfe and three children—Kline, Elizabeth, and Bertha—of Howard; Helen Vongonture, of Albany, N. Y., and Eva Feldler, of Feldler.

The visit of Mrs. Fred Lambert and son Carl was suddenly terminated on account of the sickness of Mr. Lambert who remained at their home in Altoona. They came here on Friday and intended staying for a much longer time with relatives.

The farm in Halm township belonging to the estate of the late Emanuel Mosser, was sold by the trustees at public sale to W. T. Winkblech, for $6,000.

West Brush Valley

The bush meeting in Crater's woods was well attended.

Rev. E. E. Haney, of Waller, is spending a few weeks among friends and relatives in this section.

Many of the farmers in this valley are selling their milk to the condenser at Mill Hall, shipment being made from Spring Mills.

C. A. Weaver, one of the school directors, has erected a new concrete step in front of Murray school house, which adds greatly to its appearance.

ZETTLE BROS., Proprietors

WE wish to announce that although our plant burned on the night of the 13th, we are prepared to furnish the trade with a large variety of building material. We have several car loads of window sash, doors, siding, flooring, glass, wainscoting, surfaced yellow pine, molding, plastering lath, and rough timber in stock or in transit, and will be pleased to supply the trade.

Our loss was total, having had no insurance, and we therefore respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

It is our intention to rebuild the plant, and endeavor to furnish the trade with everything in the building line.
