

DEATHS

Isiah Emery, father of merchant C. F. Emery, of Centre Hall, died at his home at Cowan, Union county, Sunday evening. Death was due to typhoid fever. Interment was made Wednesday morning at Lincoln chapel. Had Mr. Emery lived until next Sunday he would have been sixty-one years old.

Mr. Emery was a farmer by occupation. He was twice married, his second wife surviving him, as do also six children by his first wife, who died in 1884. The children are Charles F., Centre Hall; Irvin, Mszepka; Harry, Beavertown, all engaged in the mercantile business, and Martin, a farmer at Laurelton; Mrs. Frank Hackenberg, Burnham; Mrs. Monroe Knepper, Elysburg; Mrs. Samuel Sholter, Glen Iron.

Mr. Emery and family, of Centre Hall, attended the funeral.

William T. Johnson, a well known resident of Pleasant Gap, died of cancer of the liver, from which he had suffered the past six months. He was about sixty-five years of age. Mr. Johnson was a plasterer by occupation, an honest and industrious man and one who was well known and esteemed throughout this entire community. Surviving him are his wife and three daughters, namely: Mrs. Shutt, of Boalsburg; Mrs. Knapp, of Curwensville, and Miss Sarah, at home. The funeral was held on Friday, burial in the cemetery at Pleasant Gap.

Nicholas Meglinney, father of C. Meglinney-Hood, editor of the State College Times, died suddenly at his home in Palmyra, New Jersey. The deceased was the last of a large family of southerners on both his father's and mother's side and the only one to espouse the Union cause, having joined Colli's Zouaves, One Hundred Fourteenth regiment, at the outbreak of the war and served over three years in Company B. But one member of the company survives and he was able to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Mary Jane Wells, wife of Joseph Wells, following a lingering illness with pulmonary trouble, died yesterday afternoon shortly before 2 o'clock at the family home at Point Lookout.

The deceased, who was aged thirty-six years, four months and sixteen days, was born near Boynton, in Rush township. She was a daughter of the late Jonathan Walker, deceased. A husband and five children survive.

Mrs. Mary Jane Geesey, widow of John Geesey, died at her home in Altoona of senility. Her maiden name was Mary J. Carner and she was born in Centre county on March 3rd, 1837, hence was past seventy-five years of age. The latter part of her life was spent in Altoona. Her husband died twelve years ago but surviving her are five sons, one daughter, one brother and two sisters.

Rebersburg.

Jacob Bower, an aged gentleman of Coburn, is at present journeying in town.

Mrs. Hess, of Lock Haven, is at present visiting at the home of James Corman.

Robert Parke, of Sunbury, who was visiting at this place returned home on Friday.

Prof. Auman Weaver and family are at present circulating among their many friends in this place.

The late rains have caused the farmers a great deal of extra work in storing their oats and barley crop.

Rev. Solley, of Greensburg, presided an interesting sermon on Sunday morning in the Reformed church at this place.

Randel and Mary Bair, both of Altoona, are at present visitors at this place at the home of their grandfather, William Bair.

On Friday Mrs. Maude Leach shipped her household goods to Wilkes Barre. Mr. Leach is employed at that place, and they will begin house-keeping there.

The Centre County Oil and Gas Company, which leased several thousand acres of land in this vicinity, will this week begin to prospect for oil on the Jacob Kepbart farm situated a short distance north west of town.

William Weaver, who is employed in Pittsburg, had the misfortune to fracture the bone in one of his arms, and not being able to work came to Rebersburg in company with his family. They are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Weaver.

This coming Saturday will be the great day for Rebersburg. Elaborate preparations are being made for the fiftieth anniversary and reunion of Company A, 148th Regiment, which will be held in Long's woods, a short distance west of this place. Several bands have been engaged, to furnish music for the occasion. General James A. Beaver and Col. H. S. Taylor, both of Bellefonte, will make appropriate addresses. Everybody is invited to come and participate in the celebration.

DEMOCRACY MUST BE A WORTHY INSTRUMENT

People Trust It, Says Woodrow Wilson, and It Must Make Good.

Sea Girl, N. J.—Woodrow Wilson at the "Little White House" at Sea Girl is daily called upon to demonstrate his ability as a ready speaker.

There is not a day passes but what he meets various delegations who call to assure him of their support.

In speaking of political machines to the Brooklyn Democratic Club Governor Wilson said: "Machines are bad, but an organization may be very essential. For instance, I have been surrounded by an organization here in New Jersey while doing my best work. A machine uses its political opportunities for the selfish ends of its members. No members of our organization would ever think of doing that. Public opinion in New Jersey has drawn the distinction. It has killed the machines, and it is going to keep the organization going."

"It seems to me that we are standing in the presence of something higher than allegiance to the Democratic party. The country has been disappointed in the Republican party, and it is turning to the Democratic party. That party is willing to show the way toward those things which must be realized."

"Some gentlemen seem to find it easy to make personalities out of politics, but it seems to me that whenever that is done politics is debased. "Men who are in search of reform are now resorting to the Democratic party, because, for my own part, I do not know where else they will turn to expect the results. There is no discounting the strength and serviceability of a united party, and the splendid part is that the Democratic party is united."

"Speaking seriously, nothing affords me more genuine pleasure than to receive such greetings from men in Jersey who have at least tested my qualities. Because you have known me at close range and if you will be kind enough to vouch for me perhaps the rest of the country will be credulous of your report."

"I have spent a great deal of time since I became governor of New Jersey defending your character. It was supposed in the old days, when the board of guardians was in charge of the state, that you were all of you disposed to give the most monopolistic trusts of the country a great ringing welcome in New Jersey."

"New Jersey was known as the mother of trusts—a very troublesome and questionable family—and I had to spend my time outside New Jersey assuring the people of the Union that it had not been the fault or the disposition of the people of New Jersey that there were certain gentlemen who had undertaken to carry the Republican party in their pockets and to administer independently of the rank and file of Republicans in the state."

"New Jersey is progressive, but the United States is progressive, and we have here merely a delightful sample of the people of the United States."

"Now, these people are not bent on destroying anything, but they are bent on setting everything in order; they are bent upon justice; they are bent upon seeing to it that the people in general are partners of the government, as I was trying to show the other day. And the Democratic party is now placed under a peculiar responsibility. It has to prove that it is the worthy instrument of that zeal on the part of the people of the United States. If it does not prove it now it will never be given another chance to prove it. No party that proves unfaithful to that ideal will ever again be trusted by the people of America. And therefore we are standing at a turning point in our politics. We must make good or go out of business. In the vernacular, it is a case of 'put up or shut up,' because words are going to be discounted. Nothing will be honored except the actual carrying out of such programs as sensible men may unite in for the common benefit."

Wilson will make the most accessible president who has ever occupied the White House. He is typically a Democratic man.

Wilson is the best equipped man nominated for the presidency since Lincoln.

George W. Perkins is sure a "bully" Progressive.
