LOCALS.

Call to see us on Grange Park. All our goods will be sold at a special discount during that week.—Weber Brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Yearick, of Philadelphia, have been at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mingle during the past week.

The W. C. T. U. will have headquarters on Grange Park. All white ribbons and others interested in the work are welcome to the conveniences of the tent at any and all times.

Mrs. William Swann and children, of Baltimore, Md., arrived in Millheim a few days ago and will spend some time with Mrs. Swann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. B. Hartman.

The Magnesia Covering Company will have an exhibit of its roofing material at the Grange Encampment and Fair. Both samples of the material and literature will be distributed.

Miss Grace Smith, of Centre Hall, and Miss Victoria Witmer, of Los Angeles, California, made a trip through Lebanon county, looking for the Witmer old home site, that country having been the settling point of the Witmer family.

As has been their custom heretofore, Messrs. J. H. and S. E. Weber will have an elaborate display of farm implements, machinery, wagons, tools, engines, on Grange Park during the Encampment and Fair. The part that interests farmers most is this: A special discount from former prices will be allowed on all purchases made while on the camp grounds. The Webers buy right and are therefore able to sell right.

It is affording John E. Youts, of Mattoon, Illinois, much pleasure to again tramp the scenes of his boyhood days. He is now more than seventy years young, and when seventeen he left his home at Millhelm for Illinois, where he became prominently connected with industrial affairs, occupying at this time the presidency of the Mattoon Car Works. Mrs. Youts is accompanying her husband. She is a Chicago lady. They are now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Rishel, at Farmers Mills. Mr. Youts being Mr. Rishel's uncle. They will remain at least until after the Grange Encampment and Fair.

Mrs. Albertson, a blind lady from the institution for the blind at Philadelphia, attended services in the Reformed church on Sunday. She is spending her vacation with Mrs. Noll, at Linden Hall and Mrs. William Stover at Boalsburg.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the reunion of Mrs. Margaret Shenberger Keller, and a number of her descendants and associates, held at the Mothersbaugh home, on her eighty-ninth birthday, Tuesday Sept. 3rd. It was celebrated in the form of a basket picnic, the baskets contained all the good things imaginable; coffee, tea and iced lemonade were served with the lunch. Relatives and acquaintances from Wilmington, Delaware, Pittsburg, Bellefonte, Centre Hall, Pleasant Gap, Houserville, Pine Grove Mills, Boalsburg and vicinity were present. No regular program was carried out; one hundred and three names were enrolled. Birthday booklets, and cards, and other tokens of love and respect were given to Mrs. Keller. Mrs. Keller was born at the Blue Spring near Boalsburg, and never resided more than a distance of ten miles from her birthplace. She is enjoying good health, and has a very retentive memory. She has four children, Ebraim K. Keller, of Pleasant Gap; George Keller, Honesville; Dr. Grant Keller, of Warren Pa.; Mrs. Elizabeth Mothersbaugh, with whom she is at home. Dr. Keller was not present at the reunion. She has thirty-five grand children, forty-four great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. During the afternoon Ralph Rishel took a picture of the company, after which baskets of fine peaches were passed. Near the closing hours of the day the guests departed, with best wishes for Mrs. Keller and family, for the days to come.

Pleasant Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel V. Burris are very happy over the arrival of a big baby girl a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. George Horner and five children and two grandchildren, namely, Mrs. Cyrus Confer, daughters Pearl and Grace, of Penns Cave; Bruce, Harry, Maud and Earl Confer, of Colyer, and Miss Ruth Callahan, of near Linden Hall, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George L. Horner, of Pleasant Gap.

BIG CASH PRIZES FOR MAKING SOAP

This is a great opportunity for every housewife to test her skill as a soap maker and at the same time win a valuable cash prize. Every woman can enter this contest—it doesn't cost one cent to try—the conditions are as simple as A B C.

We want to prove to every housewife who reads this paper, that with the aid of Banner Lye she can make all the soap she needs for her family use—make better soap than she can buy anywhere—make it cheaper, with very little labor and in a very short time.

To the women who send in the best samples of homemade soap in which Banner Lye has been used we will award the following cash prizes this month:

1st Prize $15.00 2nd Prize $10.00
3rd Prize $ 5.00 50 Prizes of $ 1.00 each

BANNER LYE The Greatest Soap Maker

Is the greatest soap maker on the market. It unites perfectly with fats and oils, making a soap that lathers freely, eats up dirt and grease and destroys germs. Banner Lye soap makes hard water soft, saves labor and backaches.

If you are not quite ready to boil your fat just now, remember there will be three separate contests—one in September, one in October and another in November. Same amount of prize money will be given away ($80.00) each month. If you don't win in September, try in October; if you don't win in the first two contests, try in November.

Enter the contest soon as possible—if your dealer cannot supply you with Banner Lye, write us.
