

TO REPAIR LUTHERAN CHURCH.

$1200 to be Expended for Roofing, Freecolng, Painting and Carpets. At the congregational meeting called for Saturday evening in the Lutheran church it was decided to expend $1200 for repairs on the church. Committees were appointed to secure bids for repairing the roof, for freecolng, for painting, carpet, etc.

The edifice was erected in 1885, and since then the only repair work done was to repaint the woodwork on the exterior, and occasionally stop leaks on the roof. The interior has become very much soiled and badly needs the attention it is purposed to give it.

LOCALS.

Money talks, that is why we will offer a special discount on all goods on exhibition at the Grange Encampment and Fair.—Weber Brothers.

A. P. Matz, of Millheim, was bitten by a dog while entering the premises of Robert Young in Penn township. The wound became very sore.

Morris From has an advertisement in this issue telling of the business he contemplates conducting on Grange Park during the Encampment and Fair.

S. K. Knepley left on Tuesday for Waverly, New York, where he will visit a brother whom he has not seen for twenty-nine years. He will be gone for ten days.

Two men who registered at the New Cameron house, Lewisburg, carried away $500 worth of jewelry and $50 in cash. Rooms were entered while guests were at supper.

A short time ago farmers in the various parts of Penns and Brush Valleys were wondering whether or not the corn crop would amount to stubs, and now they can't get done telling of the bumper crops that are growing. Corn has been fairly snapping on account of its rapid growth.

One of the members of Company A, 148th Regiment, who greatly desired to attend the reunion of that company at Rebersburg, and was unable to do so was Charles W. Wiser, of Burbank, Ohio. He did come east last week, however, and was entertained by his brother William Wiser, in Millheim.

Rev. John H. Keller, who for a number of years had been teaching in Clairmont College, at Hickory, North Carolina, has left that institution and is now serving a charge at China Grove, in the same state. Of course, it is a Reformed charge he is serving, having been born and reared in that faith.

It was to attend a reunion of the survivors of the 148th Regiment, in Bellefonte, last Friday, that brought C. D. Runkle from Pittsburgh to Centre county, and of course being in the county he did not miss the opportunity to come to the old home at Centre Hall, nor to pay a visit to his mother, Mrs. Lucinda Runkle, at Spring Mills. Mr. Runkle is employed by the Pittsburgh Land Improvement Company.

The official board of road and bridge viewers will meet in the grand jury room in the court house on Monday to hear testimony on a number of petitions for roads and bridges, among them being: For a new road in Howard and Liberty townships; for a new bridge over Elk creek in Millheim borough; for a new road in Curtin and Liberty townships; for a public road in College township, and to vacate a road in Howard and Liberty townships.

S. Ward Gramley, the Millheim banker, advertises cockerels of the Thompson strain barred Plymouth Rock in this issue. Mr. Gramley has a fine lot of birds, and will have an exhibit at the Grange Encampment and Fair. The following is a record of the number of eggs produced by twenty-seven hens of the same strain from January 1 to September 1: January, 109; February, 456; March, 548; April, 582; May, 591; June, 385; July, 390; August, 338; total, 3,399. Average per hen for the eight months, 125 eggs.

After a pastorate of about four years on the West Milton Reformed charge, Rev. W. A. McClellan has accepted a call to a charge in the Wyoming classis at Conyngham, in Luzerne county, and about the middle of this month will enter upon the work on the new field. Conyngham is a borough about the size of Centre Hall, and is located about eight miles north east of Hazelton. There are three appointments on the charge. The best wishes of the minister's many friends in Penns Valley go with him to his new home.

The Watchman makes this allusion to one of Centre Hall's residents: Helping to swell the big crowd that enjoyed themselves at the fair yesterday was David J. Meyer, of Centre Hall, who seems to be having just as good a time as some of the boys who were taking their annual holiday outing. Since Mr. Meyer has been spending his winters in South Carolina he seems to be renewing his youth, and certainly has the appearance of being blessed with excellent health. He will take his usual part in having Penns Valley roll up as large a Democratic majority as possible in November.

COUNTY W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Annual Gathering of Organization in Centre Hall Last Week.—Mrs. Parels Principal Speaker.

The twenty-seventh annual convention of the County W. C. T. U. was held in the United Evangelical church, in Centre Hall, Friday and Saturday of last week. The sessions were well attended by the people in Centre Hall and surrounding country, the local organization being one of the strongest in the county. The program as printed in these columns last week was carried out almost to the letter, every one on the program, with one exception, having been present and was prepared with the work assigned.

The principal speaker was Mrs. Adda Boileau Parels, of Philadelphia, who gave one of her characteristic addresses, the fruits of which were harvested at once upon the close of the meeting when a number of young people—ladies and gentlemen—and others in middle and past middle life became members of the organization, and accepted the white ribbon.

As has been stated heretofore, Mrs. Parels is a power on the platform. She is a power because she believes in what she preaches. She is enthusiastic in her work both on and off the platform. She is one of the few women in the state who gives the whole of her time to the work of the organization.

The meetings during the day were of great interest to the many who attended. Those who entertained delegates were abundantly repaid for their labor for having come in close contact with the women who in Centre county have been carrying on the W. C. T. U. work for many years.

Attention, Farmers

Seeding time is on, and the question of fertilizing will, no doubt, be carefully debated by you. I want to call your attention to the fact that I have in stock ROYSTER FERTILIZERS. If you have failed to place your order in time for fertilizer, or find that you have insufficient for your requirements for Fall seeding, I invite you to give the Royster a trial. I have the goods here and you can drive in at your convenience and get them—the only right way to handle fertilizer. You need not inconvenience yourself by hustling out at a time when you are busy with some other work to get your fertilizer out of a car. When you need the fertilizer, come in, or if you are in town with a team, take some along and save an extra trip.

You will not go wrong on Royster goods; they are founded on Merit and based on Quality. Royster Fertilizers are compounded, not merely mixed. Don't delay; come early.

Oh yes, you no doubt have been thinking of doing some concrete work this Fall yet. In case you do, you will need good cement, for you cannot make good concrete work with poor cement. For all round concrete work the ALPHA PORTLAND CEMENT stands second to none. It will make a good substantial job and color out right. I have sold lots of it and not one sack went wrong. Try it.
