

SEPTEMBER COURT.

Fall term of Court Opened Monday—Granger Frain Foreman of Grand Jury.

Court convened on Monday morning at ten o'clock. The grand jury was called and sworn, and Isaac S. Frain, of Marion township, selected as foreman. After being charged by the Court as to its duties in passing upon bills of indictment and inspection of county buildings they retired to the Grand Jury room for deliberation.

The constables of the several boroughs and townships then made their quarterly reports. The attention of these officers was called by the Court to their duties in relation to the public roads of the county under recent legislation and interpretation thereof by the appellate court including the so-called breaker.

The forenoon session was taken up in hearing motions and petitions as presented by the several members of the bar.

Comm. vs. Hyman Garfinkle, charged with receiving stolen goods knowing the same to have been stolen. Prosecutor John F. Devine. The defendant plead guilty and on motion of the District Attorney sentence was suspended upon the payment of the costs and restitution of the goods.

Comm. vs. D. W. Pletcher, F. A. Fields, J. Maggs and E. W. Smith, being an appeal from summary convictions before a Justice of the Peace under the Act of 1905 for trespassing upon the land of Burdine Butler. This action grows out of an examination of a line of Howard Borough crossing lands of the prosecutor and incident to the building of the railroad improvements in the vicinity of Howard. After hearing the evidence the Court reversed the conviction and discharged the defendants.

Comm. vs. Harry Toner, charged with forgery; prosecutor J. M. Robb. Defendant waived the finding of the Grand Jury July 19, 1912, and plead guilty and was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of not less than two and one-half years nor more than ten years.

Comm. vs. Jacob Jackson, charged with larceny; prosecutor J. L. Marshall. Defendant waived the finding of the Grand Jury August 7, 1912 and plead guilty and was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of not less than nine months nor more than three years.

Comm. vs. John E. Murray, charged with larceny; prosecutor L. L. Marshall; defendant waived the finding of the Grand Jury Sep. 20, 1912 and sentence was suspended.

Comm. vs. Calvin Coble, charged with assault and battery; prosecutor Edward Sellers. Defendant waived the finding of the grand jury and plead guilty and on request sentence suspended on payment of costs.

Long-Corman.

The marriage of Charles Austin Long, of Spring Mills, and Miss Maude E. Corman, of Penn Hall, took place at the Reformed parsonage, in Aaronsburg, Rev. W. D. Donat performing the ceremony.

The groom is a son of Merchant C. P. Long, of Spring Mills, and with his father is in business there. He is a graduate of a commercial business college and by experience has gained a good insight in the mercantile business. The bride is the daughter of Daniel Corman, and a young lady of talent and ambition.

On Wednesday morning the young couple left for Ohio, where they will remain for two weeks, and on their return they will reside in Spring Mills.

The Reporter joins a host of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Long all the best things in this life.

Incendiary is also outside.

With the thought of being discharged from service preying upon his mind Alphonse Rohrbasser, buttermaker of the Belleville creamery, set fire to the creamery building and committed suicide Tuesday morning shortly before one o'clock. His lifeless body was found in the engine room of the building and a 32 calibre revolver was lying by his side. Two bullet holes in his head were evidence that he had shot himself twice, the first shot not proving fatal. The fire when discovered had gained considerable headway and before it was put under control the flames had consumed all but the engine room of the creamery building. They found that coal oil had been freely sprinkled upon the wall.

The loss on the building is about $4500, with $4000 insurance. The building was erected a year ago.

Over eleven hundred of the twelve hundred dollars needed to repair the Lutheran church in Centre Hall have been subscribed according to reports of solicitors made at a congregational meeting on Saturday evening. Some forty members of the church have not been seen by any of the committee having the subscriptions in hand. This indicates that the needed funds will be raised with little or no difficulty. Considering all conditions the young people in the church made the most liberal contributions.

There was always water at the spigot during the Grange Encampment and Fair, although the water line in the reservoir was lower than anyone wished it to be.

DEATHS

F. D. Hosterman, the oldest son of John and Leah Hosterman, was born near Woodward, May 18th, 1836, and died at Penn Hall, September 17th, 1912, his age being seventy-six years, three months and thirty days.

He was married to Miss Catharine Hains, and to this union were born four children: William P., and Emma C., at home; Susan L., wife of A. F. Heckman, Tusseyville; John F., of Penn Hall. He is also survived by eleven grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, an only sister, Mrs. J. A. Haines, of Woodward; and by two of his seven half brothers, Adam H., of Boalsburg, and Newton N., of Edwardsburg, Michigan.

He was a successful farmer, a good citizen, an obliging neighbor, a kind father, greatly interested in the education of his children, and a faithful member and elder of the Reformed church.

For him no physician was summoned for seventy years, but nearly three years ago he fell a victim of paralysis and for the last ten months was not able to walk without assistance.

Funeral services and burial at Salem took place on Saturday forenoon, the pastor Rev. W. D. Donat, assisted by Rev. D. M. Geesey, officiated.

The body of Mrs. Elmer Smith was shipped from a hospital in Cumberland, Maryland, to Coburn for burial at Millheim. The funeral was held from the residence of G. W. Stover, Wednesday forenoon, Rev. D. W. Donat officiating. Mrs. Smith and her husband, both of whom were formerly residents of Haines township, lived in Virginia. The deceased's maiden name was Priscilla Long, and she was aged forty-six years and fifteen days. Her husband survives.

LOCALS

On Friday night some one captured thirty-feet of hose on the lawn at the United Evangelical parsonage, in Centre Hall.

Reuben Garis, who for several years has been employed in the Dauberman meat market, on Monday went to the Altoona district with a view of securing employment.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Noll, of Pleasant Gap, will go to Philadelphia the latter part of this week, and on their return will announce the opening at Mrs. Noll's millinery store.

Mr. and Mrs. P. McMannus, of Harrisburg, attended the Grange Encampment and Fair, and met many of their old friends in Penna Valley they had not seen in a long time.

Mrs. George Markle, of Linden Hall, did not fail to make her annual business call on the Reporter at its camp headquarters. She was accompanied by her little daughter, Carrie.

William C. Boczer, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Knarr, Mrs. S. S. Kreamer, Mrs. J. H. Lambert and daughter Ruth, of Centre Hall, are in Altoona, having been attracted there by the War Governor's Conference in that city.

S. K. Emerick, of Fleming, was one of the Reporter's callers during the past week, having been accompanied by his brother, George F. Emerick, of near Centre Hall. Mr. Emerick is devoting some of his time to auctioneering, in which line he has proven a success.

Archie Homan, of Cleveland, Ohio, is at the home of his mother, Mrs. Emma Homan, in Centre Hall. He is purchasing agent for a large concern in Cleveland manufacturing automobile springs. He has been with his employers for a number of years, and although the position is one that gives him little time to himself he takes pride in rendering his employers good service, and in return is being well taken care of by them in the way of salary.

W. W. Weaver, who for several years was located at Reading and doing telegraphic work for the Pennsy, is now located at Birdsboro, just four miles out from the city. He and Mrs. Weaver and little son, who just passed his first birthday a few days ago, came up to Centre county to attend the Grange Encampment and Fair, making their headquarters with Mr. Weaver's father, A. J. Weaver, at Tusseyville.

The Selins Grove Times tells that Mrs. Lewis Moyer, a blind lady living in Washington township, came near losing her life from being bitten by a copperhead snake. The woman takes great delight in caring for a flock of fowls, and oftentimes sits down and permits them to peck her hand. On this occasion the woman thought the old hen was showing appreciation for her good attention, but it proved that a copperhead snake was sinking its fangs into her hand, the great pain being the first intimation that an error in judgment had been made. The woman was taken to the house, and a "hex" doctor tolerated in the neighborhood was called. Her condition grew worse, and the "hex" admitted that he could do her no good on account of his own physical weakness, when a physician was summoned who administered scientifically, and revived the patient from the convulsions into which she had fallen.

LOCALS

This is the big week in Altoona.

Dr. G. W. Hosterman is in Lancaster, where he will remain with his son, S. V. Hosterman, Esq., until Saturday a week.

The water melon and banana man, an Italian, who shipped a car load of the fruits here last week, claims that on Saturday night much of the fruit was stolen from the car on the railroad track at Centre Hall railroad station.

Mrs. Samuel Ertle, in Georges Valley, has been seriously ill during the past six weeks. She is suffering from that peculiar disease with a peculiar name—shingles—which attacked her on the waist line. She suffers greatly at times.

Messrs. Frank W. Grebe, W. John Crago and William D. Grebe purchased from Edgar Sheffer the splendid Hotel Sheffer, on the corner of North Front and Pine streets, in Phillipsburg, and will conduct the same as soon as the license can be transferred.

The announcement that a boy, weighing nine and one-fourth pounds was born to Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Snyder, at the United Evangelical parsonage, in Centre Hall, was given out Tuesday morning. "The mother and babe are doing fine," was the report of the father.

Lock Haven is planning for an aviation exhibition about October 10th. If the plans go through, exhibitions of flights between Lock Haven and Mill Hall will be repeated for several days in succession. An aviation meet in Lock Haven will bring together many thousands of persons from all sections of Central Pennsylvania.

James P. Hering, of Altoona, was in Centre Hall over Sunday, and Monday morning went to Penn Hall to visit his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Hering, who is one of the most aged yet best preserved ladies in that district. On his return home on Monday afternoon he was accompanied by Mrs. Laura Lee, a sister-in-law, who will remain in Altoona for a week.

Altoona was well represented on the camp grounds, a number of families from that city having been tent holders and among them were Wilfred Moser and family, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Glenn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gentzel and family, Mrs. T. Bressler, of Flemington; Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Bloom, of Williamsport; A. I. Bloom, of Lock Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Holdeman, of Panams, were guest of these parties during the week.

Reporter Register.

Ruth Kries, Nora Ream, Johnstown; W. H. Ripka, Middleburg; Daniel Ripka, Spring Mills; Mame Krumbine, Vintondale; W. W. Boob, Cincinnati; R. U. Bitner, Avia; Michael Stover, Feldler; S. K. Emerick, Fleming; G. F. Emerick, Centre Hall; Geo. H. Ripka, Millroy; Joseph H. Kramer, Reading; John F. Kramer, Centre Hall.

The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is founded on their experience in the use of that remedy and their knowledge of the many remarkable cures of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery that it has effected. For sale by all dealers.

The Boy.

A writer in the Biblical World, speaking of "The Minister and the Boy," says: "To behold in the boy a rough summary of the past and to be able to capitalize for good the successive instincts as they emerge is to accomplish a fine piece of missionary work without leaving home. * * * The fire worshiper, the fierce tribesman, the savage hunter, the religion making nomad, the daring pirate, the elemental fighter with nature and rival of every kind, the master of the world in making, comes before you in the unfolding life of the ordinary boy. * * * He is an abridged volume on ethnology."

Apple or Onion?

No one would for a moment imagine any one mistaking an onion for an apple. But don't be too sure. Some day when you have nothing else to do cut a small square of onion and a square of apple of the same size, close your eyes and hold your nose tightly and then get some one to hand you one of the squares without telling you which one it is. You would be well advised not to wager any money on being able to tell by chewing which it is. The explanation is that a large part of what we call taste is really smell.—Pearson's Weekly.

The Strange Part.

Mr. Dresser (with evening paper)—Here's a strange news! A New York child hid for thirty hours in her mother's clothes closet! Mrs. Dresser—I should say it is strange. Imagine a New York woman not changing her clothes in that time!—Judge.

Ordeals.

"It must be a terrible thing to go through the 'third degree.'" "It must be, indeed," replied Mr. Bingdad. "I'll bet it's even worse than trying to answer all the questions a twelve-year-old boy can ask."—Washington Star.

That they are sinners few are willing to deny; that they are sinners few are ready to admit.

Laundry will go out from this office Wednesday, Oct. 24.

THERE IS NO PLOW SUPERIOR TO THE SYRACUSE RIDING PLOW

It plows the same depth the whole day long; sticks to the ground in stormy soil; can be well handled on rocky hillsides. It leaves no deep furrows to wash; will throw the soil up hill better than any other plow made; it is strong enough to do its work, yet not clumsy. Made for two or three horses.

NEW IDEA MANURE SPREADER Does its work to perfection

There are many of them in use, and every machine is giving satisfaction. The draft is light, yet no other spreader will do the work as well. The wear and tear has been reduced to the minimum in the NEW IDEA.

THE "OLDS" GASOLINE ENGINES

have many superior qualities. The cut here represents the 4-A Hopper Jacket Engine. From the material that enters into it to the smallest detail, the engine is superior in quality. The Olds engines are built in all sizes. Ask for a descriptive catalog.

There is no FARM MACHINE OR IMPLEMENT that we do not handle.

HEAVY WAGONS AND BUGGIES

GRASS SEED :: CLOVER SEED :: ALFALFA SEED

J. H. & S. E. WEBER

CENTRE HALL and OAK HALL STATION

For Fall Wear and Comfort

A GOOD LINE OF CAPS

A FINE LINE OF MEN'S HATS

AN EXCELLENT LINE OF FALL PERCALES AND GINGHAMS

FALL BLANKETS

Give us a call and be convinced of the dependable merchandise to be found at our store.

KREAMER & SON

Centre Hall, Pa.

male Register. SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12, one o'clock, near Colyer, by Mrs. J. S. Houseman. Two horses, three fine cows, wagons, implements, household goods and an endless variety of articles not mentioned on posters.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20, one o'clock.—A. W. Garver, on Nittany Mountain, will sell the following: One horse, two buggies, harness, spring harrow, lot of household goods, etc.

NOTICE—My patrons will please take notice that my dental office will be closed until the morning of October 5th.—G. W. HOSTERMAN, D. S., Centre Hall.

FUR FOR SALE—Cross between Boagle and Fox brand, five months old; making of a good dog. Price reasonable. GEORGE B. SLACK, Centre Hall.

FARM FOR SALE—From now until September 28th there will be offered for sale the greatest value in an 80-acre farm to be found in Centre county. For further information address box 24, Linden Hall, Pa. o.39p'd.

ADMINISTRATRIX NOTICE—LETTERS of administration on the estate of Samuel M. Bell, late of the township of Harris, deceased. Letters testamentary on the above estate having been duly granted to the undersigned, she would respectfully request all persons knowing themselves indebted to the estate to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them duly authenticated for settlement. MRS. LOU D. BELL, Administratrix, Boalsburg, Pa. o.40.

A Philanthropist.

"Pa," said little Willie, looking up from his paper, "what is a philanthropist?" "A philanthropist, my son," replied his wise pa, "is usually a man who spends his time getting other people to spend their money for charity."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Place For Footprints.

"I shall leave footprints on the sands of time," said the idealist. "What for?" asked the crudely practical person. "Nobody will want to go round looking for footprints. What we want to do for posterity is to help build some good roads."—Washington Star. o.39p'd

A Modern Girl.

"Why did you turn him down?" "He began to yap about two living as cheaply as one. When I get married I expect to make the money fly."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Women's Wills.

"In how many states can women make their wills?" "In most of 'em they come with it ready made."—Baltimore American.

FARM FOR SALE—One mile east of Centre Hall, on Brush Valley road, 151 acres, 50 acres are under cultivation, the balance mountain pasture and timber land. Flowing water from strong mountain springs—a large ice pond of pure spring water. A young fruit bearing orchard, 10 room house, barn and out buildings. GEO. F. BIRLE, Bellefonte, Pa. or ANNIE E. BIRLE, Centre Hall, Pa. o.39p'd

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE—Letters testamentary on the estate of John B. Ream, late of Gregg township, deceased. Letters testamentary on the above estate having been duly granted to the undersigned, he would respectfully request any persons knowing themselves indebted to the estate to make immediate payment and those having claims against the same to present them duly authenticated for settlement. J. C. ROSSMAN, ROSETTA E. LUSE, Executors, Spring Mills, Pa. o.40p'd

RIGHT-ROOM HOUSE ON CORNER LOT.

Also an eight-room house on a corner lot, good stable, and a fine assortment of fruit. The property is a desirable one in every way and is well located.

Also, house and lot at Tusseyville, property of Emma Moyer. All in good repair. Good location, and will be sold cheap.

The above properties are offered at very fair prices. For further particulars apply to W. B. MINOLE, Centre Hall, Pa. Jan. 22, 11.

Few, if any, medicines, have met with the uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The remarkable cures of colic and diarrhoea which it has effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by all dealers.