

BACKACHE A SIGNAL OF DISTRESS

Pain in the back is the kidney's signal of distress. If this timely warning is ignored, there is grave danger of dropsy, gravel, uric poisoning, or Bright's disease.

When you have reason to suspect your kidneys, use a special kidney medicine.

Doan's Kidney Pills relieve weak, congested kidneys—cure backache—regulate the urine. Good proof in the following statement.

CONVINCING TESTIMONY

Louis Johnson, Main St., Carrollton, Ky., says: "My whole body was bloated from kidney trouble and I was in bed four months, hardly able to move. My kidney secretions were scanty and painful. Four doctors failed to help me and I was in despair. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they made me well. My trouble has never returned. THOUGHT HE KNEW THE SIGNS

Aged Darcy Could See Nothing to His Passenger Except a Man Instituting Lodges.

Bob Hull, the champion story teller of Savannah, had occasion lately to take a business trip into interior Georgia. He took his golf clubs with him, intending to stop on his way for a match on the famous links at Augusta.

He dropped off the train at his business destination—a small town on a branch road—and carrying his luggage climbed into an ancient hack and bade the driver, who was an old negro man, take him to the local hotel.

The negro eyed the queer-looking yellow leather bag that his passenger carried with the peculiar looking sticks in it. His curiosity got the best of him finally.

"Boss," he began, "please, suh, 'scuse me—but mout I ax you a question?"

"Go ahead and ask," said Mr. Hull. "Whut kind of a lodge is you institutin'?"—Saturday Evening Post.

Raw Chickens.

Rose Pastor Phelps Stokes, in an address on behalf of a New York country week charity, told a quaint story.

"A little slum girl," she said, "stood for the first time in her life in a barnyard—a genuine, old-fashioned barnyard with its ricks, its lazy cows, its plows and harrows, and what-not."

"The slum child drank it all in delightedly, then gasped half to herself: 'An' jest look at the chickens—al, runnin' around raw!'—Washington Star.

Why He Sorrowed.

"And then Nero had Rome set afire in every quarter."

"Alas, how terrible!" murmured little Moritz, with an expression of such deep anguish that his teacher asked why it affected him so much.

"Why," said Moritz, "just think of the poor insurance companies!"—Fliegende Blaetter.

HARD TO SEE.

Even When the Facts About Coffee are Plain.

It is curious how people will refuse to believe what one can clearly see. Tell the average man or woman that the slow but cumulative poisonous effect of caffeine—the alkaloid in tea and coffee—tends to weaken the heart, upset the nervous system and cause indigestion, and they may laugh at you if they don't know the facts.

Prove it by science or by practical demonstration in the recovery of coffee drinkers from the above conditions, and a large per cent of the human family will shrug their shoulders, take some drugs and—keep on drinking coffee or tea.

"Coffee never agreed with me nor with several members of our household," writes a lady. "It enervates, depresses and creates a feeling of languor and heaviness. It was only by leaving off coffee and using Postum that we discovered the cause and way out of these ills."

"The only reason, I am sure, why Postum is not used altogether to the exclusion of ordinary coffee is, many persons do not know and do not seem willing to learn the facts and how to prepare this nutritious beverage. There's only one way—according to directions—boil it fully 15 minutes. Then it is delicious." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

"MONEY IS NOT ALL IN THIS LIFE."—GEO. W. PERKINS

COLONEL IS CRAFTY

AUDACIOUS EFFORT TO CORRAL ALL THE PROGRESSIVES WILL PROVE FUTILE.

SHOWS WILSON'S STRENGTH

Roosevelt Presumes on Ignorance of His Hearers and Readers When He Says Bosses and Representatives of Privilege Are Flocking to Democrats.

Colonel Roosevelt, with that aggressive audacity so strongly characteristic of his nature, in the effort he is making to stampede progressive Republicans who are disposed to stay with the regular organization and then under the cracking noise of his own whip to corral them in the Bull Moose pen, is giving testimony of the growing strength of the Democratic nominee.

For instance, in his speech delivered before the state Progressive convention at Des Moines, he is quoted as saying that he found everywhere among reactionary Republicans a growing purpose to support Woodrow Wilson, on the theory that President Taft was beaten already, and that the only hope of preserving the old parties was to support the Democratic ticket and defeat the Progressives. He then added: "Where Mr. Wilson is getting ed support of that type, we have the right to ask independent Democrats who believe in the principles for which Democracy nominally stands, to come with us. I ask every Democrat who really believes in the right of the people to rule to come with us, for every representative of privilege, every boss is going to his side."

Of course, in making this statement, Colonel Roosevelt was presuming upon the ignorance of those who might hear or read his utterances, for, as Col. Henry Watterson has well said of him, "Intelligent persons who chance to be led, by interest or by curiosity, to attend Roosevelt orations will feel that their intelligence has been insulted, or that the orator should be attended by a keeper." True, Republicans as well as non-partisan voters, are flocking to the support of Governor Wilson, but none of those Republicans are reactionaries or stand-patters, as Colonel Roosevelt well knows. He is thrusting forward a man of straw to frighten Progressive Republicans away from the support of President Taft. Especially audacious is his assertion that "every representative of privilege, every boss is going to his (Wilson's) side," when the fact has been indisputably established that the two biggest and bravenest representatives of special privilege in the world, the steel trust and the harvest trust, are the inspiration and chief support of the new party movement. Without the influence of these two concerns in his behalf, Teddy would hardly be known to the running.

The truth is, Colonel Roosevelt is both an opportunist and a Jesuit in politics. He seizes upon the present time, when discontent is general in the land over the effect of policies for which he himself is partly responsible, as the opportune moment, with the assistance of the dominant trusts

T. R. and the South. Having failed to abate a crying political nuisance while he had the power to do so, few thoughtful persons are disposed to take as more than a demagogic appeal Mr. Roosevelt's present protestations of regret over conditions which he indorsed with perfect fortitude so long as he was a conspicuous beneficiary of them. Powerful as is the bid he has made for the southern vote, there is such a widespread distrust in this section of the country of the stability and of the promises and being plattitudinous and to gather the army of discontented to his standard and augment this strength by fooling those who have admired his wonderfully vigorous personality, to again ride into power, only to be dislodged by revolution.

PROTECTION; HOW IT WORKS

Rhode Island, a Tariff-Made State, as Described By Miss Ida M. Tarbell.

"The doctrine of protection is worth looking at as it works," declared Governor Wilson at Easton, Pa., the other day. He added, in characteristic phrase:

"I haven't any reverence for any economic doctrine whatever—except as it works."

How does the Aldrich doctrine of "protection" work? Ida M. Tarbell is admittedly one of the foremost tariff experts who have taken sides with the people in the tariff controversy. She is a sober, thoughtful student and writer, whose conclusions, though often annoying to some highly-placed gentlemen, have almost invariably been found correct. Here is what Miss Tarbell says of that "tariff-made state," Rhode Island:

"This, then, is high protection's most perfect work—a state of half million people, turning out an annual product worth $187,000,000; the laborers in the chief industry underpaid, unstable, and bent with disease; the average employers rich, self-satisfied, and as indifferent to social obligation as so many robber barons. It is an industrial oligarchy made by a million's beneficence, under the mistaken notion that it was working out a laborer's paradise. It is feudalism, and not even benevolent feudalism."

No one can question the justice of Governor Wilson's statement, that economic doctrines are to be judged by their works.

By their fruits ye shall know them. The fruits of the Aldrich tariff are bloated fortunes, corrupted politics, enhanced cost of living.

The Wisconsin Progressives. If the Progressive Republicans of Wisconsin are to maintain the integrity and efficiency of their movement, they will not only continue to follow Senator La Follette in utter disregard of any false god, but they will vote, as the senator has frequently voted, for principle irrespective of artificial party lines.

The hope of the Progressive Republican cause lies in the staunch, uncompromising leadership of men like Senator La Follette, of men who for the mere sake of gaining office will neither change principles as they would a suit of clothes, nor will profess one thing when they really believe another.

In the coming campaign the fight is one of principle. Principles are unreal. The fight is not between this party and that party; it is between Tories and Progressives regardless of party. Among the presidential candidates there is only one man who has shown by deed as well as by word that he is a thorough-going Progressive, with ability to do things. That man is Woodrow Wilson. He deserves the support of every voter. Republican, Democrat or independent, who believes in interested public service and desires the general welfare.—Milwaukee Journal.

Integrity of his purposes political that there is small likelihood that there will be many takers.—John Marshall of Charleston, S. C.

Of Interest to Farmers. Two harvesting machines, identical in all respects, manufactured by the harvester company, are on exhibition in Texas; one bought in Germany for $80, and the other in Illinois for $125. There will be reams of "explanations"—and just one reason.—Wall Street Journal.

EVIDENTLY OUT OF PLACE

Indignant Frenchman Had Some Fault to Find With Postmaster, and Said So.

A Frenchman with a name spelled a la Paris and pronounced something like Ca-choo had never learned to read or write, but he managed to disguise the fact pretty well until he moved to a new community where the name was not common. Going to the postoffice one morning he inquired: "Got any mail for Joe Ca-choo?" "What's the name?" inquired the clerk. "Ca-choo, Joe Ca-choo." "How do you spell it?" "Can't you spell Joe Ca-choo?" "No," said the clerk, "I never heard it before." "Then the disgust of the Frenchman, which had been constantly rising, boiled over and he snorted: "Well, if you can't spell, why don't you sell your old postoffice to someone that can?"

PIMPLES CAME IN BLOTCHES

Morrison, Tenn.—"For one year I suffered from a very severe attack of acne or pimples, accompanied by eczema. It first showed itself by the formation of small red, rather hard pimples which were not only disfiguring, but were painful. They also appeared on my neck and chest. Their itching was often so intense as to cause insomnia, and they very often caused pain and burning. I tried several so-called 'sure cure' remedies, but they did little or no good. Several months ago I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and wrote for a sample.

"I found them so soothing that I at once purchased a twenty-five cent cake of Cuticura Soap, and a fifty cent box of Cuticura Ointment. After using them for about a month, all of the itching and the pimples had entirely disappeared." (Signed) John Finger, Dec. 30, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston." Adv.
