elected president, what reforms could he proceed to put through? This is what the Roosevelt supporters, breathless from much cheering, have wholly neglected to inform the rest of us. Mr. Roosevelt could not bring about the election of senators by direct vote; that can only come through a constitutional amendment. He could not make universal the presidential preference primary; that rests with the several states. He could not recast the trust or transportation laws; that is the province of congress. He could not bestow upon a waiting nation the power to recall judicial decisions; that would require the amendment of one federal and forty-eight state constitutions.

He could not fight the trusts. Mr. Perkins, Mr. McCormick and Mr. Hanna were not born yesterday. Nor has Mr. Roosevelt forgotten the time when the Harriman correspondence 'came home to roost.'

He could not touch the tariff, even if he knew anything about it or had any convictions about it. That, also, rests with congress, and Mr. Roosevelt's tendency to quarrel with congress has already been impressively demonstrated.

He could not-conscientiously-do anything to help on the movement to limit the service of a president to one meets the doctor he asks him, 'How term of six years. It could raise an unlimited campaign fund by selling in Pittsburg the right to fix the steel duties, and in Fall River the right to fix the duties on cotton goods, and in Lawrence the right to name the duties on woolens. The present method is the same in substance, but it is not businesslike. Immunity from prosecution under the Sherman law would be worth a good deal of money to the big combinations, but they ought to have some assurance that if they give $125,-000 they will not be prosecuted because they refused to be "touched" for an additional $150,000.

The Recall Needed. The United States does not need the recall of presidents.

The United States needs above all things in political life the recall of humbug, hypocrisy and hysteria, and the inauguration of common sense. The election of Governor Wilson will serve both purposes. Democrats can't begin their Christmas shopping early this year, because they do not know how much it is going to cost them to celebrate the first ewes, $3@3.50; stockers and feeders. presidential victory in twenty years.

BOY'S FACE A MASS OF SCABBY SORES

Awful to Look At, Resinol Cured In Less Than Two Weeks.

St. Louis, Mo .- "At about 11 years of age my face was covered with a mass of scabby sores, awful to look at, and my sleep was broken up by the intense itching, and then after scratching, the sores would pain me just something awful. My mother got salves and soaps to use, but all to no purpose. A friend of mine who was Physical Director at the Y. M. C. He gave me some Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and in less than two weeks I was cured, without leaving any marks or scars whatever." (Signed) Ernest Le Pique, Jr., 3021
