POOR JOHN NEATLY CAUGHT

Cleverly Contrived Trap That Led to the Downfall of One Forgetful Husband.

He had returned home in the evening tired and ready for a restful hour or two.

"John, my love," said his little wife sweetly; "did you post that letter I gave you this morning?"

"Yes, my pet," said John, hiding his conscience-stricken face behind the newspaper.

"Well, what is your answer?" still more sweetly.

"What is what?" gasped John.

"Addressed to me," exclaimed John. "I didn't notice it."

And then, like a foolish man, he fell into the trap and produced the letter from his pocket to see. The envelope was not addressed to him; but a long and severe lecture was shortly after.

Scotch Query.

A bluff, consequential gentleman from the south, with more beef on his bones than brain in his head, riding along the Hamilton road, near to Planty, asked a herdsboy on the roadside, in a tone and manner evidently meant to quiz, if he were "half way to Hamilton?" "Man," replied the boy, "I wad need to ken whar ye hae come frae, afore I could answer your question."—Exchange.

FINAL TABULATION OF VOTES THAT ELECTED WILSON

Analysis of the Returns by Political Experts Shows Surprising Results

BIG SLUMP IN THE BALLOTS

Washington.—California swung into the Roosevelt column. An entire tabulation based on returns from all county seats gave the Colonel a lead over Wilson of less than one thousand. The Democrats say the Supreme Court will be called upon to revise the count. The latest revision of the election results in New Jersey give Gov. Wilson a plurality over Roosevelt of 20,728. The Democratic vote in Bergen, the last of the counties to announce its figures, proved higher than was anticipated and brought Wilson's lead up over the 30,000 mark. The total vote, would call for an increased total by 25,000. Instead, the total vote cast was less.

In 1908 the Republicans and Democrats cast 447,800 votes. This year the combined vote of the Democrats, Republicans and Progressives is 398,000 in round figures.

That enormous loss was divided by the Taft and Roosevelt vote, which, if combined, shows a greater slump than the Democratic.

The Democrats have elected the Presidential electors and all the State officers in Delaware with the exception of Monaghan, for Governor. They also definitely control the Legislature that will elect a United States Senator to succeed Senator Richardson.

Everett, Wash., fourth largest city in the State, adopted the Henry George single-tax. This is the first city in the United States to do so. All public revenues will be raised by land taxes solely and unimproved land will pay higher taxes than property that has been improved.

Illinois, the great State which the Progressives all along felt surest of carrying, swung over to Wilson. The Republicans got a crumb of comfort from Massachusetts, where the counting of the ballots for minor State officers showed that, although the Democrats had elected the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Secrewas as follows: Wilson, 70,722; Roosevelt, 139,994; Taft, 85,448. Plurality for Wilson, 30,728.

Returns from all of the eighty-eight counties in Ohio give Wilson 405,120; Taft, 273,287, and Roosevelt, 209,793. Wilson's plurality, 131,833.

In South Dakota Roosevelt's plurality is 5,000.

Complete returns from all precincts in Illinois gave Wilson a plurality of 16,105 over Roosevelt. The lead of Gov. Wilson over Col. Roosevelt in Iowa was increased to 21,454.

Complete returns from Utah give Taft 35,756, Wilson 28,418, Roosevelt 21,030, Debs 5,025.

In Minnesota the figures show: Roosevelt, 113,384, Wilson 97,495, Taft 59,123.

The new Illinois Legislature will be made up on joint ballot of 97 Democrats, 78 Republicans, 26 Progressives and 3 Socialists. These figures are based upon complete returns from the entire State. The House will have 73 Democrats, 53 Republicans, 24 Progressives and 3 Socialists; the Senate, 25 Republicans, 24 Democrats and 2 Progressives.

The Democrats will lack six of a majority on joint ballot, while there are just enough Progressives and Republicans combined to make one more than the 103 votes necessary to elect a successor to Shelby M. Cullom as United States Senator. One Democratic Senator, J. R. Boulware in the Peoria district, faces a contest by John Daley, his Republican opponent.

Wyoming, placed heretofore in the doubtful column finally landed in the Wilson list. Republicans, however, have re-elected Mondell to Congress, and Senator F. E. Warren has a majority in each branch of the Legislature.

Despite the intense interest in the election, New Jersey total vote suffered a slump. About 58,000 voters who exercised the franchise in 1908 remained away from the polls.

For half a century there has been a steady increase in population and voters. The normal rate of increase tary of State, the Republican candidates for State Treasurer, Auditor, and Attorney General had been saved from the wreckage by pluralities of 2,000 to 5,000. The Legislature is Republican also, so that the expectation of a Democratic gain in the filling of W. Murray Crane's seat will not be realized.

In Wisconsin, which was carried by Wilson for President, Gov. McGovern, Republican candidate for Governor, was re-elected. He was the Roosevelt candidate for Chairman of the Republican National Convention and supported the Colonel in the campaign, thereby incurring the displeasure of Senator La Follette, who, however, advocated his election.

Returns confirmed Wilson's victory in West Virginia, although the Legislature is Republican. In Iowa the Democratic candidate's plurality reached 20,000.

New Hampshire shows a Republican majority in the Legislature of sixteen, and that body will elect the Governor, as well as a Senator, none of the candidates having received a majority at the polls.

In New York State the counting of the ballots got around to the referendum authorizing the issue of $50,000,000 bonds for highway improvement, and the returns indicate its adoption by a plurality of 305,000.

HAWAII GOES REPUBLICAN.

Prince Kuhio Sent to Congress by 1-263 Majority Over Democrat.

Honolulu.—Prince Kuhio was elected delegate to Congress over L. L. McCandless, Democrat, by a majority of 1,263. McCandless is now reported to be a candidate for appointment as Governor of the territory when Governor Frear resigns. G. J. Walter, who was a delegate to the Baltimore convention, was also a candidate for the governorship.

The territorial Legislature will be made up of nine Republicans and six Democratic Senators and eighteen Republican and twelve Democratic Representatives.

DEMOCRATS HAVE BIG CONGRESS MAJORITY

Next House Will Consist of 297 Democrats, 122 Republicans and 16 Progressives

ELIMINATION OF CANNON

Washington.—The practically complete returns of the general Congressional elections show that the political classification of the next House of Representatives will be: Democrats, 297; Republicans, 122; Progressives, 16.

This gives the Democrats a majority of 159 over Republicans and Progressives combined, and a plurality over the Republicans of 175. During the Congress session which ended in August the Democrats had a majority of 66 over the Republicans.

Many notable changes in the personnel of the House of Representatives will result from Tuesday's Congressional landslide. The most conspicuous figure that will disappear from public life in consequence of the great Democratic victory is ex-Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, familiarly known as "Uncle Joe," who has been defeated for re-election from the Eighteenth District of Illinois by F. J. O'Hair. Until last evening the result in Mr. Cannon's district was in doubt, but the completed count shows that Mr. Cannon has lost by a narrow majority.

This is Mr. Cannon's second defeat for Congress. He was out of the House of Representatives for one term, having been defeated for election in 1890. He was even then a veteran member of the House. Since 1892 "Uncle Joe" has been sent back regularly to Washington, and for many years was the dominating figure in the lower branch of Congress.

James R. Mann, the Republican floor leader in the House, has been re-elected from the Chicago district which he has represented for many terms. But other Republican House leaders from Illinois shared the fate of Mr. Cannon. Representative William B. McKinley, Chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee and President Taft's manager in the pre-convention campaign for the Republican Presidential nomination, shared the fate of many of his Republican associates in the House. Another Republican House leader from Illinois who suffered defeat is Representative William J. Roddenberg, one of ex-Speaker Cannon's lieutenants. Still another prominent House Republican to be buried under the Democratic victory is J. H. Davidson of the Sixth Wisconsin District. He has been a conspicuous member of the House for many years, but has shown decided Progressive leanings for several terms.

The Democrats made a clean sweep of the Indiana Congressional districts and retired the veteran Crumpacker, who had been foremost in the Republican ranks in the House. Representative Edwin Ebenezer Hill of Connecticut suffered defeat also. His State, like Indiana, is sending a solid Democratic delegation to Congress, which politically is a remarkable event in a State that is strongly devoted to the protection policy.

Representative Seno E. Payne, who was floor leader of the Republicans in the House during Mr. Cannon's incumbency of the Speakership, was returned from New York. Joseph W. Fordney, another of Mr. Cannon's lieutenants and firm friends, was elected from the Michigan district that has sent him back to Congress time and again. Representative Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of Col. Roosevelt, did not escape defeat in the First Ohio District, which is located in the City of Cincinnati. Mr. Longworth ran as a regular Republican, and his strength in the district was weakened by the fact that he was opposed by a candidate of his father-in-law's new third party.

Another conspicuous member of the House who was rejected by the voters of his district is Representative Cyrus Sullyway of New Hampshire. Sullyway is a giant in size and always attracted much attention from the galleries when the House was in session. The defeat of the two Republican candidates for Congress from his State was one of the great surprises of the election.

HONEST BUSINESS MEN NEED HAVE NO FEAR.

Woodrow Wilson, President-elect, issued this statement: There is absolutely nothing for the honest and enlightened business men of the country to fear.

No man whose business is conducted without violation of the rights of free competition and without such private understandings and secret alliances as violate the principle of our law and the policy of all wholesome commerce and enterprise need fear either interference or embarrassment from the administration.

The responsibilities of the task are tremendous, but they are common responsibilities which all leaders of action and opinion must share, and with the confidence of the people behind us everything that is right is possible.

Newspapers and Literature. All this over emphasis of the unmeaning surface is due to a confusion of newspaper and literary standards, ends aims. The word literary has come to suggest an absence of red-blood; spinners and knitters in the sun; the 35 cent magazine crowd; this is non-sensical, of course. In its elemental meaning literature is at least as stern a job as journalism, albeit the intention and function of the latter is merely to present things that happen, of the former to volatilize such material into hovering and potent meanings; to strike the rock and raise a spirit that is life.
